Death of W. I. Ward

It is our sad duty to chronicle the untimely death of William Ira Ward who passed away very suddenly at Mount Forest Saturday evening January 18th.

Deceased was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Ward near Linwood. A week previous he completed his term as teacher of Glen Dale school and had helped with the corn in the field. He was a young man, a letter to his mother, which was not unstated in his death. He died in his room in apparent good health and spirits about 9:30. A few minutes later Mr. John Moore with whom he was boarding heard him fall and going immediately to his room found that life had fled.

The funeral took place from his father's residence on Wednesday January 22 to Linwood Methodist Church. The pastor Rev. I. P. King assisted by Rev. W. Moffat of Mill Creek conducted the funeral.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Irvin, E. H. Bean, Thos. Wilson, Nelson Grasser, Arthur Rennie and Irvine Milner.

Beautiful floral offerings were contributed by Sunday School Ep. League friends and relatives also a broken wheel from the family.

William, though rather reticent was of a very genial disposition and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was an active member of the Methodist Church and will be especially missed in the Sunday School and Epworth League.

He leaves to mourn his loss, parents, two sisters, Gretta and Ruby and one brother Firman.

MRS. EVA BEAN

There passed peacefully away on Friday evening, July 4th, at 8.30 o'clock, Mrs. Eva Hallman, relict of the late Henry S. Bean, at the home of her son, Mr. Eldon Bean, near Linwood. Deceased had been in ill-health for several months, and was aged 65 years, 5 months, and 17 days. She was the daughter of the late John S. Hallman and was born on the old homestead near New Dundee. She was married to Henry Bean and they resided on a farm near New Hamburg. A few years ago she moved to Kitchener with her family. The past couple of years she has been making her home with her son, Mr. Eldon Bean, near Linwood. She has been a faithful and active member of the Methodist church for many years. This is the third death in the Hallman family within a few months, Abram C. and Emma Hallman, wife of Mr. A. L. Shantz, having passed away.

Deceased was a woman of most amiable disposition. She was devoted to her family and her Christian character endeared her to a host of friends. The bereaved family will have the sympathy of the entire community in their hour of affliction.

There survive, a family of six children namely, Elma (Mrs. Hastings), Shiloh, Maine; Rev. Ivan Bean, Clarendon, Wis., Selena (Mrs. A. Smith), Lake Saskatchewan, Alta., Mary (Mrs. Johnson) Guernsey, Sask., Eldon and Melville, of Linwood. Also the following brothers and sisters, J. C. Hallman, New Dundee; Allan C., New Dundee; Mrs. Rev. W. M. Simmons, Cedar Springs, Mich.; Mrs. (Rev.) Benj. U. Bowman, Elkton, Mich.; Mrs. (Rev.) Dan. L. Schultz, Snover, Mich.; Irvin C. and Eldon C., Waterloo and Mrs. (Rev.) C. N. Good, Kitchener.

The funeral took place at Linwood, on Monday afternoon, at 12.30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, who came to pay their final tribute to the departed.

The funeral service at the house was in charge of Rev. Mr. Draper, of Preston. After a brief service the funeral cortege proceeded to the New Hamburg Methodist church, where an impressive sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Draper. Rev. S. L. W. Harton, of Waterloo also assisted in the service. In the course of the service both gentlemen paid feeling tribute to the beautiful character of the departed. Mr. Peacock rendered a solo "Somewhere," which was sung with much feeling.

The remains were laid to rest in the family plot at Lingelbach's cemetery.

The pall-bearers were the four brothers, Messrs. J. C., Allan C. Irvin J., and Eldon C. Hallman and George and Isaac Bean.
