We, the members of the Linwood Branch of the Women's Institute, have gathered this evening to express our regret that you are about to sever your connection with us.

We have enjoyed the privilege of being associated with you in the work of the Institute "For Home and Country."

As President, you have endeared yourself to the members and shown yourself deeply interested in the welfare of each, and ever ready to lend a helping hand and promote the interest of all with whom you came in contact.

To say we will miss you is only giving expression to what we feel in a very real way. As a Branch we wish to acknowledge our indebtedness to you for your services, which have been rendered with commendable faithfulness, marked efficiency, and above all, untiring cheerfulness.

As a tangible evidence of our appreciation and good-will, we ask you to accept this basket of flowers. We trust the choicest flowers of life, "Peace, Good Health and Happiness" may ever bloom for you and

Train Crew Exonerated

The adjourned inquest into the death of Jacob Kieffer who was killed on the 8th Concession of Wellesley on Thursday, March 12, was resumed in Schnurr's Hall, Linwood, on Wednesday morning before Coroner Wagner.

Crown Attorney Bowlby and Provincial Constable Oliver of Kitchener were present.

The train crew were examined. Engineer Pagnell swore that he whistled before reaching the crossing and that the bell was continuously ringing. Mrs. Joseph Schmidt, Mrs. Jacob Kieffer, Mr. Gideon Wagner and Mr. Gideon Phair were also sworn.

None remembered having heard the whistle but would not swear that it was not blown.

The jury brought in a verdict declaring the death of Mr. Kieffer due to accident and exonerated the train crew from all blame.

Dear Pastor.—It was with deepest regret that we learned of your intention of leaving our midst. During the years you have been with us you have always shown the keenest interest in our moral and spiritual welfare and have always done your utmost to instil into our hearts a sense of duty to God and our fellow men and we appreciate your untiring efforts more perhaps than we have sometimes shown. To show that appreciation we ask you to accept this gift, not for its intrinsic value but as a slight token of our love and esteem for you. We know we will sorely miss your kind advice and example, but feel that our loss will be someone else's gain.

Our sincere wish is that you may long be spared to carry on the good work in your new field of labor, and that at last we may all meet to join our voices in Heaven above.

Sad Death of Mrs. Albert Wray.

After about a year's illness following an operation, Ella Crawford, beloved wife of Albert Wray passed away at her home on the 13th line of Wellesley, on Tuesday, Jan. 19th. She was born in Wellesley Township about 42 years ago and attended Fernbank school and Fernbank Sunday School where she was organist. She was up to the time of her marriage actively connected with Grace Church, Millbank. She was married fourteen years ago and is survived by her sorrowing husband and a family of six children, five sons and one daughter between the ages of three and thirteen, who have the sympathy of the whole community in their deep bereavement. She is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crawford, a sister, Mrs. W. Hauksbee of Fordwich, and a brother, John, at home. She was a very amiable and kind-hearted woman and her early demise has cast a gloom over the neighborhood. The funeral took place this (Thursday) afternoon from the family residence to the United Church cemetery at Linwood where burial will take place. The services will be conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. M. F. Stewart. The following were pall bearers: Messrs. Wm. Milner, Albert Hackett, John Henderson, Alex. Crawford, Wm. Crawford and Gideon Roth.
