FIFTH LINE.

Sept. 30th, 1901.

Mr. H. McLellan, a former teacher here, spent a few days in the vicinity.

Ralph Smith, H. McLellan and Miss Jennie Hostettler were visitors at the school on Thursday.

Miss Nellie Mason, of Listowel, is visiting Miss Janet Kyle.

Mr. Hostettler has purchased eighteen head of cattle in the neighborhood of monkton. They are a fine lot.

David McRae is laid up with a sprained back at the time of writing.

Mr. M. Birmingham is busy putting in cement floors for the section Campbells. He is a good hand at the work.

Mr. Daniel Erb purchased a fine Indian pony at a sale in Tavistock recently. It may seem laughable to some but Dan knows his own business as well as any body else.

Mr. Jos. Gerber is cementing the stables in his fine new barn at present.

Messrs. John Lichty and Fred Bivour, accompanied by their wives, made a visit to their old friend and neighbor, Adam Berlet, one Sunday recently.

Henry McFaddin attended Moorefield fair last week.

Adam Berlet, of North Easthope, called on friends here last week.

Jno. B. Leis purchased a new plow of Albert Mickus and seemingly is well pleased with its work.

Fred Hammond was seen taking his usual trip back north on Sunday evening last.

Silo filling is the order of the day.

J. J. Strong has just finished filling Mr. H. Kelley's silo with his new Massey-Harris Blizzard cutter.

Wm. Hammond the local M. H. agent from Listowel was there and reported everything in good working condition.

Dan Erb has completed his new driving shed.

Thomas Hammond, accompanied by a friend, attended the harvest home in the English church at Millbank and reports it a great success.

G. Smith, from Strathroy, has been visiting friends in this vicinity.

AMULREE.

(Intended for last week.)

Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, of Rostock, were visitors at the Amulree House last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoffman and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daub the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Quehl, of Wellesley township, made their numerous friends in and around Amulree a pleasant call on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McFarlane, of Iowa, are spending a few weeks calling on their old friends and acquaintances in North Easthope and other parts of the county.

Quite a number of the leading sports here are making a desperate effort to extinguish the Coon fraternity.

W. D. McIntosh, of Stratford, spent a few days last week the guest of his aunt, Mrs. McGregor, of Amulree.

"The Peerless" is our new 5¢ cigar which is taking like wild fire. Try it. Knapp Bros.

In renewing your subscription ask to see the Maple Leaf clubbing list.

"Do your object to my smoking?" "No," she replied, "if it is one of those delicious flavored G. and B's."

LOCAL NEWS.

Through an unfortunate fluke we are compelled to issue the Maple Leaf in half sheet form this week. But it's full of news from one end to the other.

Miss Annie Smith left on Monday for Berlin.

Try the fresh "Wiener" sausage at H. Kelterborn's butcher shop.

Miss Buckel, of New Hamburg, is a guest at the Albion this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koehler spent Sunday visiting friends in New Hamburg.

Miss Diebel, of Waterloo, spent a few days recently with the Misses Bellinger, here.

The teachers of Wellesley public school enjoyed a drive to Stratford on Saturday last.

Mr. H. H. Ziegler, made a trip to the "Pan" last week, calling at Niagara Falls and other points.

Dr. and Miss Addie Greenwood and Miss E. Everalt took in the Milverton show last Friday.

Don't let them fool you with any cigar but the G. and B., and be sure the first letter is a "G."

Miss A. Boothe, Galt, is spending a couple of weeks visiting her cousin, Mrs. Henry Kelly, fifth line.

You will find all the home news in the Maple Leaf. Our busy correspondents are hustlers indeed.

Mr. Peter L. Hogg, of Brussels, arrived in Wellesley last week to spend a few holidays at the home of his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Zinkann had as guests on Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zinkann and children and Miss Clara Tafel, of Berlin.

Quite a number from here took in the Milverton fall show last Friday. There was magnificent weather and a big turn-out.

Mrs. Hy Duenech left on Thursday for Yale, Mich., intending to remain a couple of weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. James O'Donnell.

A selection of about $50 worth of books was made this week by the Directors of the public library of this village. The books are expected here shortly.

Miss Emma Everalt, of Elmira, returned home last Saturday after spending a few days with her cousins, the Misses Greenwood and taking in the Wellesley fair.

Mr. Caspar Meyer, engineer at the woolen mill, is away in Indiana on a well earned two weeks holiday trip. There is a mournful sob in the factory whistle since he left.

Joint stock sale at Kreutzwieser's hotel, Wellesley, next Thursday. If you have a horse, cow or other animal to sell make your entry as early as possible. The entry prices are: horses, 50c.; cattle, 25c.; other articles in proportion to their value. One per cent. charged on all articles sold. Posters will be out tomorrow.

Miss Emma Toletz, of Waterloo, was visiting Miss Annie Smith for a week or so, returning to her home on Tuesday, when she was accompanied by her friend, Miss Smith.

Union Sunday School at 10.30 a. m. next Sunday. Rev. M. L. Wing, Presiding Elder of the West District of the Evangelical Association, will preach in the English language at 7 o'clock p. m.

John Kennell, of O'Neil, Nebraska, and his wife and sister, Mrs. Ernst, who have been visiting relatives and friends hereabouts for some time past, started for their far-away home on Tuesday.

His Lordship, Bishop Baldwin, of the Diocese of Huron, will hold confirmation services in Grace church, Millbank, next Sunday, Oct. 6, at 11 a. m. The English church services at Crosshill will be withdrawn for the day.

Mr. John Berg, Amulree, is rapidly coming to the front as a stock breeder. His herd at the show here was a fine one. He captured first prizes for bull, 2-yr-old and yearling, besides the sweepstakes for Durham herd.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. (widow) Riehl, 8th concession, North Easthope, which occurred shortly before noon yesterday after a short attack of inflammation. She was in her 49th year. The funeral occurs at one o'clock p. m., to-morrow, Friday, at the Evangelical cemetery just south of Lisbon, after which services will be held in the church.

FIRE.—A small fire occurred at Mr. John Stuhle's last Friday afternoon under peculiar circumstances. The family was away at the time except a 7-year-old lad who was playing in the yard close to the smokehouse and had concluded to send up a hot-air balloon as he had seen Prof. Cassel do a few days previously. He got a large paper bag, inverted it over a box, lighted a fire under it and was having lots of fun till the smoke house caught fire. The boy's cries and the clouds quickly drew enough people to the scene to extinguish the flames before any damage was done.
