KILLED IN ACTION

Over the North Sea

August 3rd, 1943

ST. PETER'S LUTHERAN CHURCH, LINWOOD, ONT.

Sunday, April 23rd, 1944

■ INVOCATION.

■ HYMN 412 C. S. B. - "Come, Ye Disconsolate".

Come, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish;
Come to the mercy-seat, fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish;
Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.

Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure!
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
"Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot cure."

Here see the Bread of Life; see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
Come to the feast of love; come ever knowing
Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

■ PSALM 46.

God is our Refuge and Strength: a very present help in trouble.

Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed: and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled: though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the City of God: the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: He uttered His voice, the earth melted.

The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our Refuge.

Come, behold the works of the Lord: what desolation He hath made in the earth!

He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth: He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder, He burneth the chariot in the fire.

Be still and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our Refuge.

■ GLORIA PATRI.

■ EPISTLE LESSON - Romans 8: 31-39.

■ GOSPEL LESSON - John 15: 5-13.

■ HYMN 207 C. S. B. - "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me"

Jesus; Saviour, pilot me,
Over life's tempestuous sea;
Unknown waves before me roll
Hiding rock and treacherous shoal;
Chart and compass come from Thee;
Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

As a mother stills her child,
Thou canst hush the ocean wild:
Boistrous waves obey Thy will:
When Thou say'st to them "be still!"
Wondrous Sovereign of the sea,
Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

When at last I near the shore,
And the fearful breakers roar
'Twixt me and the peaceful rest,
Then, while leaning on Thy breast,
May I hear Thee say to me,
"Fear not, I will pilot thee!"

Linwood Soldier Invasion Victim

By Record Correspondent

LINWOOD, June 27. — Believed to be the first Linwood casualty of the invasion, Pte. Clayton W. Wilker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wilker, it is reported officially wounded in action. It is presumed he was with the invasion forces.

Information received in the telegram received yesterday, is as follows: "Sincerely regret to inform you Pte. C. W. Wilker has been officially reported injured in action. Date not yet available. Injuries are described as head injuries. When addressing mail, address words, in hospital, in bold letters after name of unit for quick delivery. If any further word becomes available it will be forwarded as soon as received. Director of Records, Ottawa."

Just before the wire came yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Wilker received a letter from Clayton, dated May 24, in which he mentioned that he was crossing by boat. He did not mention his destination, and the postmark was not legible. As it was not the usual English postmark, his parents believe it possible he may have been in France prior to the arrival of the invasion forces.

THE DIONNE QUINTUPLETS

Near the little town of Callander,
In the region of North Bay,
The Dionne Quintuplets were born
On the twenty-eighth of May.
The odds seemed all against them,
In this farm-house, bleak and bare,

But to spend twenty years together,
These babies God did spare;
Cecile, Annette, Yvonne, Emilie
And the smallest one, Marie.

Ten pounds was the total weight
Of this famous five.

No wonder science marvelled,
How these babies were kept alive.
All credit for their survival

Went to Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe,
Under whose constant supervision
They started out to grow;
Cecile, Annette, Yvonne, Marie
And the second smallest, Emilie.

The Quintuplets throughout childhood

Were guarded with utmost care.
Canada was proud to claim,

A birth that was so rare,
These five babies quickly gained
World interest and renown,
Tourists flocked from everywhere
To this northern Ontario town;
Annette, Cecile, Yvonne to see,
Also Marie and Emilie.

As through the nursery windows
They saw these five at play,
They were completely captivated;
Their hearts were won straightway.

The little girls were as much alike,
As five little peas in a pod.
Such a miraculous birth as theirs,
Could only be wrought by God;
Emilie, Annette, Cecile, Marie
And Yvonne with the same identity.

The Quintuplets lived in harmony
For almost twenty years.

Marie's departure to a convent
Brought the first parting tears.
Tragedy quickly followed

This break in their routine,
And over one of their number,
The Shadow of Death was seen.
Cecile, Annette, Yvonne, Marie
Now mourn for sister Emilie.

To think Emilie has been taken
Fills our hearts with pain,
Because of the Dionne Quintuplets,
Now only four remain.
God who brought them together
Before they were seen by man,
Knows where each name fits into
The workings of His intricate plan;

Cecile, Annette, Yvonne, Marie
And in God's keeping, Emilie.

TWO NEWTON YOUNG MEN LOSE LIVES WHEN CANOE CAPSIZES

LORNE DOUGLAS ELLIGSON, SON OF MR. AND MRS. CHARLES ELLIGSON, OF NEWTON, AND ANDREW DELFORD SCOTT, TWIN SON OF MR. AND MRS. VERNAL SCOTT, OF NEWTON, LOSE LIVES WHEN CANOE UPSETS IN VICTORIA LAKE, STRATFORD—HAD GONE FOR BOAT RIDE WHILE ATTENDING CHEESEMAKERS' PICNIC—BOTH WERE EMPLOYED AT THE DONEGAL CHEESE FACTORY—ENTIRE COMMUNITY DEEPLY GRIEVED OVER TRAGEDY.

LORNE ELLIGSON

DELDFORD SCOTT

Victims of a double-drowning tragedy at Stratford's downtown Victoria Lake are shown above. Both non-swimmers, they lost their lives when a canoe hired at the lake boathouse overturned about 150 yards from the dock.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elligson, of Newton, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernal Scott (Margaret Kerr), also of Newton, but formerly of the Mornington-Elma boundary, whose sons, Lorne Douglas Elligson, and Andrew Delford Scott, lost their lives on Friday night when the canoe they rented for an hour, capsized.

Both were employees of the Donegal cheese factory and they had gone to Stratford for the annual Cheesemakers' Picnic. There was a lull in the proceedings at the picnic shortly after supper and apparently the two youths decided to go for a canoe ride while others went to the ball game. For this reason they were not missed and a number returned to their homes from the picnic, not being aware that the dragging operations in the river were for the bodies of the two young men.

The first intimation that anything was wrong was when Herbert Locke, temporary lifeguard, was putting his boat away for the night, he thought he heard a faint cry as if someone was in distress. Lorne Bridges, boat house keeper, also heard the outcry as did some of the residents of the north bank of the river. Mr. Locke immediately got into his canoe and paddled along the river until he came upon the upturned canoe, behind the shell band stand. He saw no signs of life and no one answered his calls so he returned to the boathouse, had the fire department summoned, and returned to the scene in a motor equipped row boat. Delford Scott's body was found first, about 25 to 35 yards behind the bandshell in six feet of water around 1.30 a.m. The lifeguard returned to the area and brought up Lorne Elligson's body about ten minutes later. For awhile no one was sure who were in the boat but when a car parked on the river drive was found to be owned by Elligson as the license number was traced his identity was established. The name of the second victim was not definitely known until his body was brought to the surface.

Investigation later revealed that they had rented a canoe at 8.40 from the boathouse and said they would be back at 9.40 so that it would appear they were on their way back when the accident occurred. Unfortunately neither of the young men could swim.

Lorne Douglas Elligson, who was in his 21st year, was born in Newton, on October 23rd, 1928, being the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elligson (Louise Caroline Horn). Besides his parents he is survived by four brothers, Carl, of Milverton; Edward, Lloyd and Clarence, all at home; and two sisters, (Evelyn) Mrs. Sid Pond, of Elmira; and (Audrey) Mrs. Roy Hewitt, of Millbank. He attended Edgecombe School after which he was employed in the Carthage and Millbank Cheese factories and since April at the Donegal Cheese factory. He attended St. Peter's Lutheran Church, in Milverton.

Andrew Delford Scott, who was in his 18th year, was born on the Mornington-Elma boundary on Jan. 23rd, 1932, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernal Scott (Margaret Kerr). Besides his parents he is survived by three brothers, Delmere, his twin brother, Ray and Jack, all at home, and two sisters, Ruby and Margarete at home, and (Marjorie) Mrs. E. Arnold, of Elora. He attended Edgecombe School after which he worked in the Newton mill for a short time and of late had been employed at the Donegal cheese factory. He attended Burns Presbyterian Church, in Milverton.

The two young men, whose homes are just across the road from each other in Newton, were constant companions and were highly regarded by everyone who knew them.

The funeral of Andrew Delford Scott was largely attended in Burns Presbyterian Church at two o'clock Monday afternoon. Rev. H. A. Pritchard, of Atwood, assisted by Rev. W. Huddleston, of St. Paul's United Church, Milverton, officiated. Mrs. Willoet Kelterborn and Miss Margaret Orr sang "Over in Glory" during the service. Miss Orr was a former teacher of the deceased. The pallbearers were Ross Diehl, Orval Diehl, Angus Matheson, Percy Graul, Ellis Attridge and Eldon Attridge. The many beautiful flowers were carried by Mrs. Jean Bedwell, Rosette White, Helen Smith, Betty Smith, Mrs. A. Dallner, Mrs. Ellis Attridge, Laurene Matheson and Jacqueline Westman. Members of both families, relatives and friends attended the service in Greenwood Cemetery, Milverton. Those attending were present from Niagara Falls, Hamilton, Windsor, Detroit, Kitchener, Stratford, Galt, London, Sebringville, Mildmay, Mitchell, Fergus and the district surrounding.

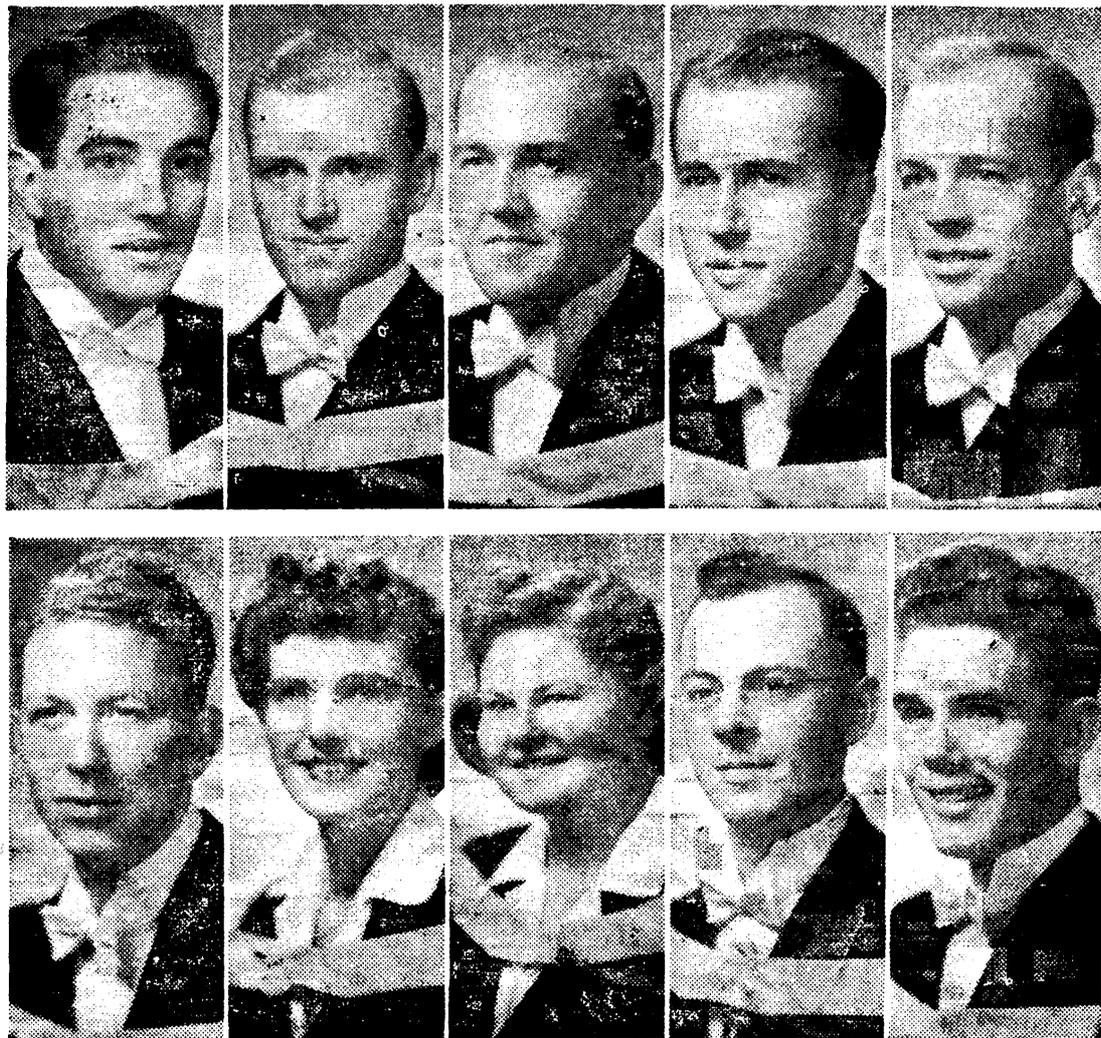

Following the service of Andrew Delford Scott, service was held for Lorne Douglas Elligson at three o'clock in St. Peter's Lutheran Church with many attending. The pastor, Rev. M. J. Stockman, officiated. The pallbearers were Maurice and William Yost, Milverton, Jacob Schmidt and Wilfred Waddell, Newton, Melvin Hewitt, Guelph, and John Gamble, Carthage. A large number of floral tributes were received. The flowerbearers were Donnie Pond, Louise and Jackie Elligson, Karen Pond and Billie and Alvin Gamble. Interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery, Milverton, near that of his chum who was laid to rest shortly before him. Relatives and friends attended from Hespeler, Hamilton, London, Stratford, Monkton, Brodhagen, Mitchell and the surrounding district.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernal Scott and family wish to thank all their friends, neighbors and relatives for their kind expression of sympathy in the recent loss through the death of their son and brother, Delford. They wish to thank all who sent floral offerings, the loan of cars or assisted in any other way at the funeral. A special thank you to Rev. H. A. Pritchard, Rev. W. Huddleston, Miss Margaret Orr and Mrs. Willoet Kelterborn.
