THIRD LINE.

Aug. 12th, 1901.

Mr. Wm. Freeborn had a successful flax bee on Tuesday of last week.

Miss Janet Robertson intends leaving tomorrow to visit her brother, Alex., in Manitoba.

Messrs. Andrew Freeborn and Wm. Dahms and Misses Sarah Freeborn and Susie Dahms attended a flax bee at Jno. K. Hammond's, fifth line, on Saturday evening last.

[Note.—We had about come to the conclusion that our regular third line correspondent had died, but the writer of the above items informs us that there has not been an L.O.L. funeral during the last couple of weeks.]

Mr. Henry Doella, our genial merchant, has purchased a new survey.

Mr. Jacob K. Schmidt has sold his hotel here to Mr. John Fricker, of Weissenburg, giving possession at the end of this month. Mr. Schmidt has made many friends here and we are sorry to lose him from the village. He has not yet decided as to his next business, but we wish him well wherever he may go.

Messrs. John Everett, Peter Kolbrunner and Jacob Winkler of Bamberg were out here on a horse drive on Saturday evening. It was a little late at night and the mistaker farmer, not being used to horse traders at that time of the evening, suspected his visitors as being horse thieves and gave them a good send off.

For bargains in buggies see Schlabbach & Co., Petersburg. A farewell dance will be held at the Petersburg hotel on the evening of Monday, Aug. 26th. Excellent music and a good time. All are invited. Bill Zeig.

FIFTH LINE.

Wellesley, Aug. 2nd, 1901.
Mr. Fred Bivort had a successful flax bee on Tuesday evening of last week.

Mr. Wm. Martin's barn was successfully raised last week. Messrs. Dan Erb and Simon Lebold were the only unfortunates, both getting some of their fingers squeezed.

The Song Service in the Presbyterian church was very largely attended, the church being full. The choir was ably assisted by Mr. Love and (Rev.) Mr. Cunningham, of Hawkesville. Mr. Love also sang two solos which were very much appreciated. The entire service was a rare treat.

(From Another Correspondent.)

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Linwood Methodist church at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning, Aug. 7th, when Mr. Charles H. Landenbeck, of the town of George, Iowa, and Miss Augusta Sioux Maxwell, of Kanabanza, Minn., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the impressive ceremony being performed by Rev. H. Monsinger. The bride, always charming, looked radiantly so in her becoming and elegant attire of Lorraine Isatier, wearing the traditional veil and wreath of blossoms. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present, among whom were the bride's sister, Mrs. Dr. Hackett, of Rock Rapids, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Campbell, Crosshill; Mr. and Mrs. Hackett, Dr. and Mrs. Manser, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hackett. Amidst showers of rice, and the gracious smiles of "Old Sol" beaming his best wishes upon them, the happy couple left for Berlin, where they boarded the train en route to Toronto and Niagara, also taking in the Pan American, after which they will return to their home at Sheldon, Iowa.

Mr. Joseph McMillan, our worthy mail carrier, met with a very severe accident the other day. After returning home from his regular trip he went to Mr. Alex. Forrest's bush to cut some firewood, when he made a misstep and fell, breaking his leg. Dr. Glaister attended his injuries and we are glad to learn the young man is now doing well. Some of our more energetic farmers have already finished harvesting and are actively engaged in fall plowing.

Miss Tena McLaren went to Manitoba last week, where she will visit for some time at her brother's. Mr. Geo. Card, from near Stratford, paid a flying visit to Mr. J. G. Stueck, our postmaster, a day or two ago.

Miss Maggie Stueck is home at present visiting for a couple of weeks.

MILLBANK.

One of the largest funerals in the history of this village took place here yesterday, when the remains of Mr. Thomas Miller, of the 9th line, Wellesley, were laid to rest. Deceased was in his 57th year, and had not had the best of health for some time. An operation was unsuccessful in restoring his health, as he died about 24 hours afterwards. The masons are rushing the brickwork of Mr. McCollum's house along in great style, and the walls are already nearing completion.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stone was the scene of a very enjoyable farewell party in honor of their son, Henry, who is about to leave for the west.

Quite a number of the young people of the village and vicinity met and a very pleasant time was spent after which a lunch and ice cream were served. All departed to their homes sorry to lose Harry, but in hopes to soon see him back again.

Mrs. Henry Frey and son, Edgar, who had been visiting in Berlin last week returned home Friday.

LOCAL NEWS.

Summer corsets—nice, cool, cheap. at Kelterborn's.

Dr. Hiltz and Mr. Wm. Cole spent Sunday last in Stratford.

Miss Sinclair, of Harriston, was a visitor at Dr. Glaister's part of last week.

Mrs. Samuel Rudy, of Berlin, visited her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Dingwall, here recently.

Don't let them fool you with any cigar but the G. and B., And be sure the first letter is a "G."

Mr. J. W. Fleischhauer has purchased a fine driver from a Breslan man, paying a handsome price.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hunko and family, of Tavistock, were guests at Mr. Peter Schmidt's here last Sunday.

The Misses Anna and Emma Zinkaan left this week for an extended visit to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

Mr. John Landreth, of the Commercial hotel, Tavistock, accompanied by his family, were guests of Wellesley friends last Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Dingwall, of Haysville was in the village on Sunday, Aug. 4th. His two daughters, who had been spending a couple of weeks with relatives here, returned home with him.

Mr. John F. Roth, of New Hamburg, accompanied by a son who is in poor health at present, is a guest at Mr. Jos. Kennel's, near the village while visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. Adolph Renfer, a former resident of Wellesley, but who has been living at Peoria, Ill., for several years past, is here at present enjoying a holiday visit amongst his boyhood friends.

Reiner's factory is working overtime these days on account of the great demand for the popular goods manufactured here. We are informed that the orders already aggregated almost $20,000 in advance of the work and are still pouring in.

We are pained to report that Dr. Hiltz is again seriously ill with appendicitis. He had recovered from his attack of two weeks ago and was at his office as usual until he was again attacked and is now in a serious condition. His mother, Mrs. Hiltz, of Stratford, is again at his bedside and everything possible is being done for him. His hosts of friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Grain is nearly all harvested in this neighborhood. Wheat shows an excellent yield. Oats is somewhat light but otherwise excellent. The other crops give a very satisfactory showing. There was, and still is, the usual rush for an early threshing for barn-room, which will, we believe, continue until the the gasoline engine or some other cheap power makes threshing a simpler process.

Mr. Ed. Schepler, baker, has left town.

English services on Sunday at 3 p. m.

Will Wellesley have a civic holiday this year?

Union Sunday School will be held at 1.45 p. m.

Miss Ethel Livingstone, of Baden, is visiting at Mr. Wm. Hogg's, here.

If that's one of Knapp Bros.' cigars you're smoking it's sure to be a good one.

Mrs. Sproule and son, Fred, are spending a couple of weeks with her brother, J. Greenwood, V. S.

Miss Lillian Ransom, of Berlin, is at present visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Greenwood, V. S.

Mrs. Louis Fleischhauer spent a week or two recently visiting friends in Stratford, Tavistock and other places.

The early closing of the stores here suits the public much better than was expected and the business houses will not likely go back to the all-day-and-all-night system again.

School begins next Monday. The teachers in the Wellesley school are the same as before the holidays except that Miss Eva Stretton takes her sister's place while the latter is attending Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berscht, of Midway, were visiting at the home of his parents in this village for several days of last week.

The tax collectors for the current year were appointed at the last regular Wellesley township council meeting. See report on another page.

Miss Lottie Hogg, daughter of Mr. Wm. Hogg, of this place, of the Stratford Coll. Institute, was among the successful candidates in the recent examinations, coming well up in the list.

Mr. John Mayer, at the Albion, has been entertaining his three sisters the past week. They are all stout ladies and Mr. Mayer induced them, along with Mrs. Mayer, to get weighed, when the four ladies "tipped the beam" at 980 pounds, Miss Phene Mayer accompanied the ladies to Milverton where they will visit for a week or so.

A number of Wellesley young men drove to Tavistock on Tuesday evening to witness the football match between Milverton and Tavistock. These clubs have played no less than four tie games during the past two seasons, but on this occasion Tavistock won out easily by the score of 3 goals to 1. We understand these clubs will again meet in Milverton next Wednesday evening.

The Wellesley township voters' list has been issued. It contains the names of 1418 voters. Part I has 1206; part II 145, and part III 67. On a basis of 200 voters to a subdivision this township is entitled to another polling booth, and a new distribution would be popular, especially with those who have long distances to go to cast their ballot. There are 682 persons in the township qualified to serve as jurors this year. Wellesley village (No. 6) is the largest division, with 297 voters, and Bumberg (No. 1) is smallest, with 168.

Mr. Geo. B. Miller, who has been visiting his many friends here for the past few weeks, evidently had another object in view, in coming down from Manitoba, besides mere visiting. Last Thursday he was united in marriage to Miss Lucy, daughter of Mr. Harry Stutor, at her father's home near Sebringville. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives only. The happy couple started on their wedding trip, taking in Buffalo and other places, and are expected in Wellesley in a few days. They intend to make their home in Gretna, Man., where the groom is engaged in business.

CROSSHILL.

The Children's Day at the Methodist church, south of here, was a gratifying success.

BOUNDARY LINE WEST.

Aug. 12th, 1901.

What might have resulted in a serious accident occurred last Thursday at Mr. J. Omand's. They were unloading peas with a hay fork and it seems when the fork struck the carriage with a load, it fell back again. This gave the rope with the horses on a terrible jerk while Miss Edith Omand was just in the act of picking it up. The doubletrees struck her on the side of the head, leaving some ugly wounds.

We are glad to report that Mr. James Doherty is slowly recovering from his four or five weeks' illness.

Quite an exciting runaway occurred on the boundary last Friday. Dr. Glaister, of Wellesley, tied his horse to Mr. J. Doherty's fence. It broke loose in some way while he was in the house and went up the road at a high speed. It was caught about half a mile west of Topping. The buggy was considerably smashed.

Mr. Joel Jantzi had a very successful stooking bee on Thursday evening. The boys report having had a good time.

Mr. H. Roth made a general call to most farmers in this vicinity with his new threshing outfit. It don't take Harry long about a farmer's place to fill up his barnyard with straw so that he can't get into his stables. It is said that he put through a thousand bushels of wheat on Saturday, for Mr. D. McMillan.

Mr. J. Doherty has engaged Messrs. H. Fleischhauer and B. Doherty to cut his crops.
