Mr. Geo. Ruppert raised a new hen stable recently.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Gabel attended the Pan-Am. last week.

Christ. Grody had a successful bee hauling dirt to fill around his stable.

Mr. Dan Jacob was in Stratford Saturday on business.

MILLBANK.
Oct. 5th, 1901.
The "toot-toot" of the threshing engine is again heard in this vicinity.

Mr. H. McClellan, who has been visiting at the home of Alex. Smith, returned to his home in Detroit.

We are sorry to learn that our young friend Mr. Melville Gillespie was attacked on Tuesday last by an affliction of the brain. His many friends extend their deep sympathy and hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. Ralph and Miss Ella Smith attended the wedding of their uncle, Mr. Will Tanner, to Miss Clara Lang recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Smith are at present spending a few days with friends in Drayton, Moorefield and Listowel.

James Tanner moved into the residence lately occupied by John Smith, of this place.

Mr. Arthur Smith, of the fifth of Wellesley, spent an evening last week at the home of a friend in Wellesley village. Go again Art, but don't let it get out next time.

HAWKESVILLE.
(Intended for last week.)
The citizens of our town have been busy the past week repairing old and building some new sidewalks.

Rev. McEwen, Baptist minister, of Berlin, preached in the Methodist church here last Friday evening.

A successful union review was held in the Methodist church last Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Ratz and Mr. Frey, of Elmira, spent Sunday at M. T. Bechtel's.

Jacob Bricker and Thomas Cunningham, who have been away to the west for about two months, have returned home, and by the expressions on their faces, are glad to be back again.

Quite a number from our village took in the Elmira fair last Thursday.

Mr. G. A. Black is a business visitor to Guelph this week.

Michael Meyer and Henry Schifely drove up to Mount Forest on a business trip last week.

Miss Nettie Schelly, of Elmira, spent Sunday at her home here.

Miss Rose Eidt, of Berlin, is at present visiting at Mr. Fred Spies'.

A very interesting song service was held in the U. B. church Sunday evening, with a good attendance.

BOUNDARY LINE, WEST.
(Intended for last week.)
We are sorry to report that Mr. James Dougherty is again on the sick list.

Kasper Hoffmiller brought home a fine lot of steers from the West one day last week.

Conrad Cook is erecting a new kitchen and woodshed.

Ed Hoffmiller put up about 120 rods of Gen. wire fence for Mr. Geo. Smith last week. Ed is really a hustler at fence building.

Nearly everybody in this vicinity attended the Wellesley fair.

LINWOOD.
Oct. 7th, 1901.
A telegram last Wednesday morning called Rev. and Mrs. Monsinger to the bedside of Mrs. Monsinger's mother, at Smithville. The rev. gentleman returned Saturday and reports that hopes are now held out for her recovery.

Ten of our base ball boys journeyed to Newton last Friday to try conclusions, on Newton's diamond, with the boys of that burg. At the end of five innings the score was marked 13 to 7 in favor of our boys. The teams were well matched, and will play a close game here next Saturday, when the Newton boys purpose coming over. The game will be played in the afternoon. At Newton Linwood's battery were Henry and Ziegler; Newron's, Huber and Ed Hawke. Umpire, Dr. McEachern.

Master Fred Heinbuch, of Berlin high school, came home on Saturday and wheeled back yesterday.

Mr. J. Walters is moving this week to the farm recently purchased by him near Macton.

Mr. C. Ziegler has moved his barber shop into the building belonging to C. Heinbuch, next to Flachs' stove and tinware establishment.

Mrs. Beggs and her daughter, Mrs. Hackett, returned from Michigan last Friday.

Following is the report of Linwood public school for the month of September: Pupil standing highest in Sr. department, Irena Berlet; ditto in Jr. department, Tena Deckert; ditto in each class,—Jr. II. Tena Deckert, sr. II. B. Heinbuch, jr. III. Edie Spahr, sr. III. F. Glebe, jr. IV. Irena Berlet.

Following is the standing of each pupil: Jr. II.—Possible marks 385; T. Deckert 309, Harold Parr 218, Ruby Goetz 199, Bartley Rafferty 169, Freddy Friedmann 135, Phoebe Sutter 132, Milton Hilker 115, Norman Ament 91, John Peller 44.

Sr. II.—Total 610; T. Koebel 112, M. Crosby 303, B. Heinbuch 308, H. Karley 281, P. Friedmann 296, C. Hackett, 101; L. Goetz, 197.

Jr. III.—Total 610; G. Strome, 94; R. Boggs 277; E. Spahr 436; M. Berlett 377; M. Deckert 307; L. Voll 147.

Sr. III.—F. Glebe 431; W. Williams 342, E. Goetz 215; C. Baker 94; O. Oakley 88.

Jr. IV.—Total 610; I. Berlet 452; V. Parsill 400; W. Cathcart 231; L. Sutter 228; T. Rafferty 66; A. Baker 87.

While in Linwood the other day we had the pleasure of inspecting the magnificent new brick business block which is being erected by Mr. R. Y. Fish, the prominent merchant of that lively village. The expensive structure is being built upon the most modern plans and is a credit, not only to Mr. Fish's great business energy, but to Linwood as well. Just now while the building is in process of erection the streets are somewhat blocked and the grading slightly disturbed, but when finished and the roadway restored there will be little, if any, grounds for the complaints which have occasionally been heard lately after a heavy rain.

LISBON.
Oct. 7th, 1901.
Mangolds are pretty near all housed and potatoes are fast disappearing. Both yield good crops this year.

Mr. Henry Alles and family and Miss Barbara Knapp, of Berlin, spent Sunday the guests of Mr. C. Knapp.

Mr. E. Henning and family, from near Milverton, were visiting at C. Becker's on Sunday.

Mrs. John Mosser returned on Sunday from a couple of days visit with friends in New Hamburg.

Miss Eda Schmidt, of New Hamburg, is under the parental roof for her holidays.

Mrs. Witzel spent Sunday afternoon in New Hamburg.

Mr. John Baltzer has returned from Manitoba looking hale and hearty.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Riehl, which took place last Friday was largely attended.

ELEVENTH LINE, EAST.
Sept. 30th, 1901.
A number of people from this vicinity attended Wellesley show last week.

Miss Clemmy and her uncle, Mr. W. Clemmy, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ballard on Monday.

Oct. 7th.
Miss L. Coote spent Sunday at Crosshill.

A gloom has been cast over our community by the death of one of our young ladies, Miss Carrie Petsch. She had been ailing for over a year, and has borne her intense suffering with marked patience and cheerfulness. Her remains were interred in Hawkesville cemetery on Saturday. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the family in their sad bereavement.

"Do your object to my smoking?"
"No," she replied, "if it is one of those delicious flavored G. and B."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Sir Thomas arrived with his yacht
And put up a race that was hacht;
He had plenty of pluck,
But brought with him no luck,
So a drubbing was all that he cacht.

And still the Boers are fighting.
Not long ago they were being captured in such large numbers that one would have thought that the Quebec enumerators were after them; but this week they bob up serenely with two or three battle victories and an invasion of Natal to their credit. It begins to look as if the South African war was being prolonged with the consent of the British for some concealed reason.

This is the time of year when the stovepipe question asserts itself.
Not politics, not religion, not even the European war-cloud is of any consequence to the man who is called upon to remove the kitchen stove to its winter quarters and arrange the heaters for the cold season. Who is the embryo millionaire that will invent a patent stove-pipe contractor and expander? Suffering humanity is waiting, with suspended cuss words, for him! He will have honors heaped upon him which will make the triumphs of the Duke and Duchess seem insignificant.

Czolgosz, the slayer of McKinley, is to be executed on the 23rd of this month. His trial was brief and his punishment will be swift and terrible. As a matter of retribution, or vengeance, he pays dearly for his act, but it is extremely doubtful if any pseudo assassin will be deterred by the contemplation of his fate from committing a similar offense should the opportunity arise. The quiet mode of his execution, however, is a vast improvement on the hanging of President Garfield's murderer, who, after an extremely sensational trial which lasted for weeks, was allowed to jump from the gallows shouting 'Glory!' as the rope tightened on his throat.

President McKinley's will was read the other day. It is said that the estate totals $250,000, including life insurance of $67,000. Aside from this insurance the estate consists of real estate and deposits in Washington banks. The President left nearly all to his wife.

The report of the Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes for Ontario is always of a valuable and interesting character on account of the amount of practical information embodied in the papers and discus-

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. John Kaufmann took in the fair at Elmira last week.

Try the fresh "Wiener" sausage at H. Kelterborn's butcher shop.

Mrs. J. W. Green and son, Carl, were visitors to Tavistock on Saturday last.

The Directors of the Wellesley Fall Show hold a meeting at the Queen's hotel today.

Don't let them fool you with any cigar but the G. and B., and be sure the first letter is a "G."

Mr. Wettlaufer, of Woodstock, took charge last week in Mr. Harry K. Forler's barber shop, here.

Misses Maggie Walton and Ella Cleghorn have returned home from a visit to friends in Guelph, Hespeler and Galt.

Potato digging is now being actively attended to by our village gardeners. The crop is said to be a very good one, and so far there are no evidences of rot.

Mr. Christian J. Fleischhauer, of Reed City, Mich., spent a couple of days last week visiting his brothers, Messrs. John, Louis and Otto Fleischhauer, of this place.

Mrs. Froehlich's residence and the one occupied by Mr. Henry Roeder are each receiving an application of steel siding this week, which will much improve their appearance.

The little son of Mr. Moses Schultz, of New Prussia, who was accidentally shot in the leg at the Wellesley Fall Show, is said to be playing around and is almost as well as usual. The bullet remains in his leg.

Mr. Grehm, liveryman, has rented the large stable formerly used by Harry E. Ratz. Since opening his business here it has grown wonderfully, and although he now keeps from eight to twelve horses, it is necessary to order several days in advance to make sure of a rig.

DEATH OF MRS. GREENWOOD.

It is our painful duty this week to record the death of the wife of Mr. John Greenwood, V. S., which occurred on Tuesday morning from diabetes. Although afflicted with this disease for some time she was able to be about as usual until Saturday evening last when she became much worse and was compelled to take to her bed, gradually sinking until the end came. Mrs. Greenwood was born in this township 47 years ago and has resided here ever since. When 19 years of age she was united in marriage to Mr. Greenwood, the couple moving to Wellesley village about seven years ago. She leaves, besides her husband, a family of four children, three others having died of diphtheria about eight years ago. The profound sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved ones. The funeral will take place at two o'clock tomorrow (Friday) afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelterborn spent Sunday in St. Jacobs.

Ed. and Al. Reiner took in the opera "The Mountebank" at Berlin last night.

Union Sunday School next Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock. English preaching service at 3.00 p. m.

Messrs. Ernest and Peter Bellinger, of Toronto, were the guests of their brother, Mr. George Bellinger, here, over Sunday last.

Presiding Elder Wing, of the Evangelical church, preached a powerful sermon in English at the Union church last Sunday evening to a large congregation.

Mr. N. M. Schmidt's sale last Thursday drew out a large crowd. The farm was knocked down to Mr. Adam Doering, of Philipsburg, at the handsome price of $5,900. The balance of the stock, etc. sold realized almost $1,000.

The choir of St. Paul's Lutheran church, under the leadership of Mr. Chas. Ottmann, took part in the services at P. o. last Sunday. They report having enjoyed an excellent time although the drive home was rather a cold one.

Mrs. Taylor, teacher in the public school here, was called to her home at Burlington this week by the dangerous illness of her sister. The classes in her department have been divided amongst the other rooms during Miss Taylor's absence.

DROPPED DEAD.

(Special to the Maple Leaf.)
Linwood, Oct. 8th.—Our village was shocked today by the sudden death of John Rowe, a laboring man who has lived in Linwood for a great many years. Deceased, who was between 65 and 70 years of age, was to all appearances in his usual health until the moment he so suddenly expired. He was walking about town and had called in Ziegler's wagon shop for a chat. After sitting on the bench for a short time he fell suddenly to the floor and expired immediately. Deceased was a brother of Mr. Robert Rowe, retired farmer, of this place.

ONE BETTER EVERY TIME.

It seems to matter not what other newspapers may offer as premiums, the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, can always go them one better, and this year they have again clearly outclassed all competitors. Subscribers to that great family paper will this season receive the biggest value ever offered. In addition to a very much improved paper, each subscriber will receive no less than three valuable and seasonable premium pictures. The pictures are large portraits of our new King, Edward VII., and the beautiful Queen Alexandra, each 18x24 inches, on beautiful paper, making a lovely pair of pictures ready for framing, and which should be found in every Canadian home. The third picture is a grand surprise. We have all heard of the renowned Gainsborough picture, the Duchess of Devonshire, the picture stolen and recovered and recovered after 25 years and recently purchased by J. Pierpont Morgan for $75,000 cash. The publishers of the Family Herald are giving each subscriber this season a beautiful copy of this historical picture (22x28 inches) in ten rich colors, same as the original, along with the pictures of the King and Queen. All three pictures and a year's subscription to the best Family paper on the continent for one dollar is certainly a big dollar's worth. The plates of the King and Queen will be a surprise. No such plates were ever given with a newspaper.

ANNIVERSARY.

THE PRESBYTERIANS OF CROSSHILL HOLD A SPLENDID CELEBRATION.

The anniversary services and tea meeting in the Presbyterian church at Crosshill drew out immense crowds last Sunday and Monday. Rev. Mr. McCulloch, B. A., the talented young pastor of the Presbyterian church at Tavistock, preached eloquent sermons on Sunday morning and evening to full house-

es. On Monday evening THE TEA MEETING

drew out an immense concourse from all parts of Wellesley, while some of the adjoining townships were also represented. Shortly after six o'clock the guests began to gather round the supper tables and from then until eight o'clock the ladies who had charge of the tea had the gratification of seeing the dainty edibles appreciated by the throngs of visitors who constantly lined the tables.

After supper the pastor, Rev. Mr. Haig, took the chair in the auditorium of the church and presided in a very happy manner over the excellent program that had been prepared. After a neat introductory address he called upon Mr. and Mrs. Grosch, of Milverton, who sang "Dona pro nobis" as a duet in really excellent manner. This gentleman and lady—baritone and soprano—many times during the evening delighted the audience with their fine music, Mr. G. singing "The Mighty Deep" and "Peace, be Still," Mrs. Grosch giving "Why am I so Sad and Lonely," and the two in "In the Starlight." Miss White, of Milverton, acted as their accompanist with much taste. A duet by Misses Libbie Webster and Maggie Ferris, of Crosshill, with Miss Flora McL. Boyd as accompanist, was also one of the appreciated treats of the evening.

Rev. Mr. Cunningham, a gifted young minister from Hawkesville with a strong Scotch brogue delighted the audience with his only too short but pithy address.

Mr. McBride, barrister, of Waterloo, gave a recitative monologue in his inimitable manner and was compelled to respond to the applause, which he did with a witty speech.

J. L. Breithaupt, M. P. P., followed, giving an interesting description of a voyage he took to the British Isles some time ago.

Rev. Mr. McCulloch, instead of an address, recited "The Charcoal Man" in a delightful manner, and for which he was heartily encored by the audience.

Rev. Mr. Cameron, of North Easthope, spoke upon the subject "Producing Fruit," in a powerful manner. His earnest words fitted appropriately into the program and created a profound impression.

Mr. George Barbour, seconded by Mr. Ward, moved a well-versed vote of thanks to the speakers, the musicians and the ladies, which was vociferously carried, when the program was brought to a close. A pleasant social time followed, in converse and a visit to the basement, where plenty of provisions were still to be found, and it was nearly midnight before the last of the guests departed.

Nearly $60 was netted from the collections and the tea meeting.

A few Wellesleyites went to Millbank on Sunday to attend the confirmation services in the English church there. Eight candidates were confirmed and Bishop Baldwin preached a powerful sermon on the occasion.

PHILIPSBURG.

Oct. 7th, 1901.

Mr. and Mrs. Rocky, of New Hamburg, visited at Conrad Lanz's on Sunday.

Mrs. E. Hoffman, of Waterloo, is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. Wiederholt.

Herman Wagner left for Brantford on Monday where he intends to work in a carriage shop.

Rev. Messrs. Petchke and Loel preached at the festival in the Lutheran church here on Sunday.

A number of boys and girls attended the birthday party at David Hartung's on Sunday.

The C. O. F. meeting was held on Tuesday night.

BORN.

On Sept. 28th, to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bast, Wilmet, a son.

On Oct. 4th, to Mr. and Mrs. Val. Knechtel, North Easthope, a daughter.

J. G. REINER

WELLESLEY, ONT.

Herald.—An amusing story is being told at the expense of a Stratford gentleman, who is spending a few months in the wild and woolly west. He was out hunting the other day and got in a weedy place where he thought it would be better to dispense with his nether garments, to save them from getting wet and torn. This he did, and deposited them in his buggy with a watch and other valuables. Then he set off to make his record shoot. When he returned he found that the place did not look the same as before. Something was lacking in the landscape. It struck him suddenly that there was only a vacant space where horse and rig had been standing. What was he to do? He dared not re-enter civilization in his primitive garb, which was also becoming uncomfortably cool. Fortunately a good Samaritan was near by and vouchsafed his aid in recovering the lost apparel. Three miles away the outfit was found, and at length the Stratford man was enabled to return to his anxious friends. He does not now allude to the circumstance in public.
