CROSSHILL.

November 11th, 1901.
Mr. and Mrs. Heipel, Wellesley, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Frame on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Winn, of Hawkesville, were visiting at Mr. M. Rutherford's on Sunday.

Mr. Ed. Baker and Misses Cathcart and Baker, of Linwood, Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. J. Hilborn, of Tilsonburg, called on friends here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Campbell and Mrs. J. Coleman were visiting at Newton on Sunday.

Mr. Glaister, of Chicago, attended the funeral of his mother on Saturday and returned on Monday.

Mr. T. Schneider has finished his cheese making this season and returned to his home here for the winter.

Ed. Petch spent a few days in the Twin-city last week.

Our enterprising merchant, Mr. H. Bickle, is renewing his store and residence.

Mr. P. Petch, of Wingham, called on friends here last Saturday.

Miss A. Mehm is on the sick list.

Alex. Hasting has erected a fine slaughter house, and has commenced his butchering business.

Mrs. W. Coutts, who has been here for some time, intends returning to Manitoba this week.

Three of Crosshill's boys secured the three highest prizes at the recent plowing match. Well done, boys!

A dark gloom has fallen over the neighborhood, caused by the death of Mary Jane Petch, wife of Mr. Hugh Frame, who passed away on Thursday morning, aged 57 years, five months and seven days. Deceased has been suffering from cancer for some time past, and was only relieved from her pain when death came to claim her. Ever a true friend to those in trouble and sickness she will be much missed by a wide circle of friends. She leaves a husband and three children: Mrs. Wm. Coutts, Manitoba; Samuel Glaister, Chicago, and Wallace, of Waterloo, to mourn the loss of a wife and mother. Rev. Mr. Haig, her pastor, delivered a sermon at the house and also referred to the deceased on Sunday. A large concourse of friends and relatives followed the remains to Rush's cemetery where they were interred. The bereaved family has the sincere sympathy of their many friends.

ST. AGATHA.

(Intended for last week.)
Mr. Joseph Jantzi, of Adrain, Minn., is visiting his aged father, Mr. Michael Jantzi, on Erb's road.
Mr. John Fischer, of Waterloo, paid our village a short visit on Sunday last.

Miss Marie Jantzi, after a three months visit here, has left for her home in Detroit. During her stay here she made many friends.

Mrs. Mattell, from Berlin, visited her children in the orphan's home.

Mr. Joseph Neysen has sold his farm to T. Fritz, of Erbsville, for the sum of three thousand dollars.

Mrs. George Sehl and children were visiting at the Travellers' home for a few days recently.

Miss Kate Hunsperger, who has been staying at the Farmers' Inn, has left. She will be much missed by her many friends around here.

Mrs. Henry Dietrich, of the Twin City, was visiting at Mr. Gregory Dietrich's, here.

Mr. John Hartmann and family, from Dashwood, are visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood. After spending some time here they will leave for their new home, which will be in Alberta, N. W. T.

ST. CLEMENTS.

(Intended for last week's issue.)
Mr. Simon Dietrich, of Aytton, visited friends here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Horrgott, of Breslau, spent Sunday with friends and relatives here.

Mr. Wm. S. Rau and a friend gave our town a call on Sunday.

Mr. Frank H. Schummer, Berlin, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Quite a number of collegians from St. Jerome's, Berlin, spent Friday last in town.

Hallowe'en passed off in a comparatively quiet manner in this town, only the usual trifling pranks of the small boy having been indulged in. Nothing serious was reported to the police.

Quite a stir was caused one day recently on the town square, when a horseless carriage stopped here for some time. This was the first of its kind ever seen here, and it caused no little admiration.

Word from F. Frank Boegel and Joseph Fohrenkopf was received last week. They intend to stay in Canada's great Northwest for the winter. They are greatly missed by the boys, as they were quite popular here.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Louhard, Jr., was buried here on Monday.

LINWOOD.

November 11th, 1901.
Mr. Fred Heimbuch, of Berlin High School, spent Sunday at the home of his parents here.

Rev. McKinnon, of Glenallan, preached a missionary sermon in the Presbyterian church here yesterday.

Mr. Voegtle visited his sister, Mrs. Heimbuch, last week.

Miss Harding gave an afternoon party to her lady friends at the home of Miss Harrow last Saturday.

Representatives of the township council were in the village today in connection with a drainage matter.

Eight members of the rifle corps from Linwood went to Glenallan on the King's birthday to shoot against an equal number of members of that district. Five shots each were fired at two ranges—200 yards and 500 yards, which is certainly a creditable showing considering the fact that some of Glenallan's boys are considered expert shooters. Those of our boys whose standing is particularly worthy of mention are: Ziegler, Blach, Parsill, Henry, Dr. McEachern and Huber.

Linwood Library's big concert will take place on the evening of the 22nd Nov. An excellent program is in preparation and several outside artists will participate. Reserved seats are on sale at Dr. McEachern's drug store. The general admission is fifteen cents while good reserved seats can be had for only 25 cents. See bills for particulars.

AMULREE.

(Intended for last week.)
Nov. 4.—Mr. Valentine Daub, of this place, visited friends in the township of Ellice on Saturday, and reports things in a flourishing state over there.

Mr. Daub, of Nebraska, spent a few days last week the guest of his uncle, our village blacksmith.

Miss Jessie McGregor is spending a few days visiting her aunt, Mrs. McTavish, of Paris.

W. D. McTavish, of Stratford, paid a flying visit to his many friends in the village on Friday night.

Mrs. V. Daub is home again after visiting her numerous friends in and around Baden.

Mr. Alex. Fraser, the well-known auctioneer, of New Hamburg, called to see his friends here one day last week, and although Sandy limps a little from the effects of his late accident it is gratifying to know that no serious lameness is likely to continue as a result of the injuries.

The annual shooting match, that was held in the village last week, terminated to the entire satisfaction of the promoters of the scheme. Judging by the unearthly noise escaping from the lungs of some of the lads in attendance it is safe to say that something stronger than ordinary water must have had access to the stomachs of the would-be play-actors.

We have had beautiful fall weather and as a natural consequence fall plowing is well advanced. Roots of all kinds are gathered in, and although in some places the turnips were somewhat injured, still, on the whole the farmers have enough and in some instances—to spare.

Sunday being such a fine day and the roads almost perfection, the wheelmen were out in great numbers.

Mr. J. B. Berg is increasing his house accommodation by the addition of a large kitchen and woodshed. Messrs. Hyffman and Baker are looking after the mechanical part of the building.

HUBERSVILLE.

Nov. 11th, 1901.
Mrs. Morrow, Sr., is very ill.

Mrs. John Fetter and family moved to Hawkesville last week.

The many friends of S. J. Miller are glad to see him home again. Sam is looking a little thin after his trip.

Meessrs. O. Bundy and Aaron Schnarr called on Mr. S. J. Miller on Sunday last.

The Misses Kate and Maggie and Mr. Ruordnung, of Arthur, spent Sunday at J. W. Hayes'.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Playford, of Crosshill, spent Sunday at Mr. A. Miller's.

TOPPING.

Nov. 11th, 1901.
Farmers here have about finished their fall plowing for this year.

The house cleaning season is on. Miss Margaret Freeborn, of the third line, spent a couple of days visiting at her brother's, here.

Messrs. Tom Sage and Ben Omandrove to Zion church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Freeborn spent the 5th of November at Mr. Wm. Freeborn's, third line.

Hallowe'en passed off quietly here, very little mischief being done.

Mr. James Dougherty, of "Quality Hill," west of Wellesley, intends holding a sale on the 19th of this month. A number of cattle, horses, implements, etc., are to be sold. Jim contemplates going to the city to live, and his many friends will miss him very much.

M. John Freeborn finished his milk route on Friday. Jack says the job suits all right "when a fellow is thorough."

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wendland drove to Rostock church on Sunday.

WELLESLEY COUNCIL.

The Wellesley township council met at Cross-hill on Monday, Nov. 4th. All members present; the 4th in the chair. Minutes of previous meeting read and adopted. Communications, bills and accounts were read and dealt with as follows:

Moved by J. B. Lichty, seconded by Geo. Forwell, that the following accounts be paid and that the receive issue his orders for the same:

[We are compelled, for lack of space, to hold the list of accounts passed over until next issue.—Ed.]

Moved by H. N. Huehn, seconded by W. J. Beggs, that the sum of $5.33 be paid to B. Petch as compensation for one sheep killed by a dog or dogs, and that the receive issue his order for the same.—Carried.

Moved by J. B. Lichty, seconded by H. N. Huehn, that the sum of $3 be paid to Peter Dietrich as compensation for one lamb killed by a dog or dogs, and that the receive issue his order for same.—Carried.

Moved by H. N. Huehn, seconded by W. J. Beggs, that all persons having accounts against the Wellesley township council are required to send them to the clerk, receive, or any of the councillors, not later than the 2nd day of Dec.—Carried.

Orders were issued to the selectors of Jurors as follows: Thomas Short, $4; Albt. Knight, $4; John Lenhard, $4; J. P. Petch, $4; Peter F. Schummer, clerk, $6.

The council held an intermediate meeting at the clerk's office, in St. Clements, on the 30th ult. Mr. Rowan, of the firm of Rowan & Elliot, builders of the abutments to the Riser bridge, also was present. The committee appointed by the council to measure said abutments recommended the payment of say 316 2/3 c. yds or $1800, which amts. were acceptable to the council, and finally accepted in full by Mr. Rowan, who threw off 9 1/2 cubic yards on his measurements.

Moved by Geo. Forwell, seconded by W. J. Beggs, that this council do now adjourn to meet again at the township hall, Cross-hill, the first Monday in December, at the hour of 10 a. m.—Carried.

PETER F. SCHUMMER, Clerk.
Clerk's office, St. Clements, Nov. 7th, 1901.

THIRD LINE.

Wellesley, Nov. 12th, 1901.

Mrs. Wm. Thompson, of Nithburg, was visiting on the third on Monday last.

The Orangemen of L. O. L. No. 430 held their annual ball in remembrance of the Gunpowder Plot in their hall on the evening of Nov. 5th. The music was furnished by Messrs. Hamilton, Birmingham and Freeborn, while Messrs. Hammond, Frame and Thompson acted in the capacity of floor managers.

Mr. Alex. Hammond was visiting friends in Maryboro last week.

The masons have finished plastering Mr. Thos. Dewar's house.

Miss Murray, of Newton, who has taught S. S. No. 8 for the past three years, has been re-engaged for another year.

James McTavish had a very suc-

FIFTH LINE.

Wellesley, Nov. 11th, 1901.
Shooting is now the order of the day.

Mrs. Alex. Watson and son, Stanley, of Chicago, who have been visiting friends in this vicinity for the past few months, left on Friday for their home in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly entertained a number of their friends on Thursday evening last. All report having spent a very enjoyable evening.

Miss Smith has resigned her position as teacher in this school.

Quite a number from this vicinity took in the plowing match on the 7th line last week.

Mr. John K. Hammond lost a valuable cow through milk fever the other day.

Quite a number of the youth and beauty from this vicinity attended the party at Wm. Freeborn's, on the third line, and report having had an excellent time.

Mr. Edward Frank wheeled to Linwood on Sunday last and visited friends there.

(From another correspondent.)

Mr. Dan Erb has been breaking in a handsome team of bronchos this week.

We wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Lehold. It's a boy.

King Edward VII. . . . .50
Total . . . . . $4.50

ALL FOR $1.75

This is the greatest combination offer ever made by any Canadian journal, and we are anxious to secure the exclusive privilege for this district. The Daily Herald is one of Canada's great papers. Established in 1861, it has long been the leading liberal paper of Eastern Canada. It is now a great family newspaper, each day giving full news of the world, and also devoting much space to matters of peculiar interest to the family. Its commercial intelligence is complete and reliable.

THE KING'S PORTRAIT is the best ever published in Canada, and will make a handsome addition to the walls of any library. It is produced by a new process, and is not one of the flimsy colored portraits so common.

As the regular price of The Herald is $3.00 a year, the liberality of our offer is self-evident.

LOCAL NEWS.

Order a goose at Harry Keller's this week.

Horse Hides Wanted—by F. Berdax & Son. Cash paid.

Mr. Streicher's auction sale on Tuesday, Nov. 26. See advertisement and posters.

The public school children are practising for their concert, to be held about Christmas.

"The Peerless" is our new cigar which is taking like wildfire. Try it. Knapp Bros.

F. Berdax & Son have a nice lot of young cattle on hand and are rushing them off by the quarter cheap. Order quick.

Detective Klippert telephoned from Berlin last week, in trying to get track of the pedlar who was fined in Wellesley on last Thursday.

Messes. Jacob Duench, of Atrica, N. Y., and Wm. of Linwood, were the guests of their brother, Henry, here, one day this week.

Go to the Opera House to-morrow (Friday) evening, to enjoy a splendid program; to win the easy chair; to encourage a very deserving Brass Band. Only 10c.

Mr. Chr. Jantzi, of Wilmont, Min. came home to attend the funeral of his son, Mr. M. S. Zehr, of Elletts, Mich., brother-in-law of deceased, was also present.

We are called upon to record the death of an old and highly respected resident of the Section Line in the person of Mr. John Erb, who passed away on Monday last.

Mr. Louis Koehler dropped into this office on Monday and said: "that advertisement of mine has just sold another sewing machine for me." Good. Maple Leaf ads always reach the spot!

Joint stock sale at the Albion hotel, Wellesley, on the afternoon of Friday, Nov. 22nd. About 25 head of cattle of various kinds, besides horses, pigs, implements, etc. See bills.

We end space for fourteen newsy letters from the Maple Leaf's wide-awake writers in this issue. Read it all. There isn't a dry line in it. We had to omit good Baden and Nithburg letters, and part of the council proceedings.

An interesting meeting was held in Mayer's hall yesterday afternoon to discuss the sugar beet question. A full report will appear next week. On the last page we give the exact contract that farmers will be asked to sign. It is worth reading before the agent calls on you.

The funeral of the late Michael Jantzi was one of the largest ever held in this section, there being over 160 teams in the procession. Rev. Eli Fry, of Ohio, and Rev. John Gascho preached on the occasion. The remains were interred in the Mennonite cemetery, third line.

"VANTAGE OUT."

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO THE YOUNG LADIES OF THE WELLESLEY TENNIS CLUB.

One is to be the summer girl. The summer girl is to be the summer girl. And the summer girl is to be the summer girl. And the summer girl is to be the summer girl.

"O spirit, so dear, when thou wert here, 'Tis in the stars did shine." The winter blast turned mildly warm. "For a vintage thou."

"The troops of mighty Nile Are but outnumbered by the swains, Whose sought of 'tis a smile."

"Yet thou art with those who quote the say To those that love the summer days, Which says where singleness is bliss 'Tis folly to be wises."

"Close up, thou fading summer girl, And smile, but close again. With thou that takes things as they come, Thy smile is set in vain."

"Tis thou, the athletic tennis girl, With such an winter smile, Nor will the summer girl count With and and later tears."

"What though through many a 'loving day' And many a hard was met, Thy partner say should be too Close contact with thy feet."

"Tis now the time for inner-courts, Where absent love never ceases; For summer's heat brings largesse, While winter sharpens at the heels."

"Tis, haste to change thy tactics, And start the game afresh; But cover close thy racket, lest He see through every mesh."

"By winter's cool heart's stone, And many a hard was met, The smiles that givest fast and free Are sure of swift returns."

"And when he stays, for sundry tea, Thy services must be beyond Of every girl's ability."

"And so the rich and hot, 'No fault' in this successful game Can ever be found a part."

"For, lose in mid, man's stomach LIES TRY next his heart."

Wellesley, Nov. 13, 1901. CHRYSTALLS

Don't let them fool you with any cigar but the G. and B. and be sure the first letter is a "G."

The cold snap of yesterday is said to have threatened to cause a rush on furs. It is said several young men in this vicinity purpose buying fur capes to prevent their young lady friends' shoulders from getting cold. It might be possible to make too much haste in a matter of this kind, boys. There may be worse things than a cold shoulder. Think of a hot temper, and a fiery tongue!

DOERING'S CORNERS.

November 12th, 1901. A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Peter Heise last Thursday at two o'clock, when his sister, Catherine, was united in wedlock to Mr. David Hammer, of Berlet's Corner. Rev. Mr. Langholtz, of Phillipsburg, performed the ceremony. The young couple will move onto the place of the late Henry Reibling, now owned by Mr. Louis Hammer, and which the groom has rented for a term of five years.

Mr. Geo. Hammer is sinking a well.

Mr. Andrew Axt made his usual round as tax collector last week.

Mr. Henry Ritter is hauling lumber to remodel his house in the near future.

Messes. Milton Schmidt and Will Ruby, and Misses Edna Schmidt and Ida May Cook were visitors in Tavistock over Sunday.

The people around here are deeply interested in the sugar beet raising question.

We are sorry to report the death of Mrs. Conrad Hoerle, sen, which occurred at the home of her son, Mr. Henry Hoerle, on Monday morning last, in her 87th year. Her husband died about ten years ago. She was one of our oldest settlers, having helped her husband in buying their home out of the original forest. The remains are to be interred in the Phillipsburg cemetery on Thursday.

TOPPING.

Nov. 11th, 1901. Mrs. Hy Elbert and daughter, of Port Elgin, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Dietrich, of Listowel, are visiting at Mr. Henry Fink's.

Miss Lizzie Fink, of Stratford, is spending her holidays under the parental roof.

Mr. Peter Montoux has the bricklayers at work veneering his house with red brick.

Some Wellesley and Hamburg sportsmen spent the King's birthday in our burg.

Mr. Geo. W. Fink spent Sunday in Gadshill.

Mr. Menno Schultz bought a new threshing machine last week.

Mr. George Sloan has returned from Manitoba.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roegel, of Gadshill, visited at Mr. Frank Aikens on Sunday.

HAMPSTEAD.

November 12th, 1901.

Mr. Geo. Hoffman, of this village, is reported to have bought a 50-acre farm in Hay township, with the intention of taking possession about New Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ziebach, of Sebringville, is visiting at Geo. Neeb's at present.

Mr. Henry Neeb is absent this week in Midland, Mich., enjoying a visit with his two sons there.

The Messrs. Beer and Alvin Yost, of Poole, and James Hyde and Mrs. Berlet, near Shakespeare, spent last Sunday at Mr. Geo. Stueck's here.

Misses Maggie and Addie Stueck, of Stratford, were home for a few days of last week and this.

Mr. John Kuntze has Mr. Albert Stueck engaged to do his plowing.

In the spring of 1900, Mr. George Stueck procured from a well known Toronto seed firm a sample of potatoes called "Early Rose of the North," from which he raised 1 1/2 bags. These he planted last spring and this fall they turned out 20 bags of firm, medium sized, mealy-cooking potatoes. These Mr. Stueck offers for sale at $1 per bushel as long as the quantity lasts.

MILLBANK.

Nov. 9th, 1901.

Mr. J. Hastings, of Crosshill, spent Sunday the guest of Mr. Hall of this place.

Mr. David Hannon, accompanied by his sisters, spent last Friday evening at the home of Mr. Alex. Smith, fifth line, Wellesley.

Mr. Watson and Miss Webster, of Stratford, were the guests of Miss C. Leggett last Sunday.

L. Stauffer, manager of the Waterloo Fire Insurance Co., paid his usual trip to this place last Tuesday, and the in-coming of the rate-payers caused quite a stir in town.

Wellington Smith had the misfortune to have his pure bred bulldog poisoned on Monday last. The animal was a valuable watch dog, and as Mr. Smith intends purchasing another, anyone having one of this breed would do well to communicate with Mr. Smith.

The Wellesley public library has just received another splendid selection of new books.

Henry Lantz and wife were upset from their buggy and somewhat injured, near Lisbon Saturday night.

THE CONTRACT.

As hundreds of farmers who subscribe for THE MAPLE LEAF will, within the next few months, be asked to promise to raise beets for the Baden Refinery, we give below the exact contract form which the Company's authorized Agents will ask them to sign.

This Contract has been approved by the Minister of Agriculture.

CONTRACT.

This Agreement, IN DUPLICATE, made this ..... day of ....., between ....., hereinafter called the Party of the First Part, and the CANADA BEET SUGAR COMPANY, Limited, of the Second Part,

WITNESSETH,—That the said ..... party of the first part, hereby covenants and agrees with the said party of the second part; that ..... will plant, cultivate and harvest during the seasons of 1902, 1903 and 1904 ..... acres of sugar beets on the following described land, to wit, Lot ....., Concession ....., Township of ..... County of ..... Province of Ontario, that ..... will properly prepare the said land, as far as possible, in the autumn of 1901, and each succeeding autumn during the continuance of this contract; that ..... will plant not less than sixteen pounds of sugar-beet seed to the acre, said seed to be procured from the said party of the second part; that ..... will not dispose of any of said seed so received by ..... under this contract to other persons without the consent of the said party of the second part; that ..... will use no other seed than that so procured; that ..... will thin out, cultivate and harvest the sugar-beet crop grown on said land in a husbandlike manner and to the best of his ability and in said preparation of the land, planting of the seed, cultivation and harvesting of the said crop, ..... will follow as far as possible the suggestions and instructions given by the said Company or its agents; that ..... will report to the said Company on or before the first day of August of each year during the continuance of this contract the number of acres of sugar beets ..... will have for harvesting in the ensuing autumn as aforesaid; that in harvesting the said beets ..... will cut off the tops clean and square at the base thereof, so that no part of the stem shall be left thereon; that ..... will deliver all beets raised as aforesaid at the said Company's factory in Baden at such time or times and in such quantities as the said Company may direct, in a good and marketable condition and as free as possible from dirt or stones; and that ..... will place in pits or silos and properly protect from the weather all beets not delivered to the said Company prior to October fifteenth of each year as above, until such time as they may be required by the said Company.

And this agreement further witnesseth: That the CANADA BEET SUGAR COMPANY, Limited, party of the second part, hereby covenants and agrees with the said party of the first part, that it will supply during each year of the continuance of this contract, to the said party of the first part a quantity of the best that can be obtained by it for producing sugar beets, at a price not exceeding fifteen cents per pound, and that payment for the same may be deducted from the first payment due the said party of the first part for beets delivered to the said Company under this contract; that it will for its own interest have from time to time an agent visit the field or fields of the said party of the first part; that it will accept all sugar beets grown and delivered as aforesaid; that it will pay for the said beets so grown and delivered at its factory during the first year's operation, at the rate of $4.00 per ton, payment for the same to be made on the fifteenth day of the month following the delivery of the beets; that for the beets grown and delivered as aforesaid during the second and third year's operations it will pay at the rate of thirty-three and one-third cents per ton for every one per cent. of sugar which such beets contain; and that it will unload the said beets free of charge when delivered at its factory in Baden in car-load lots;

And it is further agreed by and between the parties hereto, that the said Company may cancel this contract by giving written notice to the said party of the first part on or before the first day of April, 1902, or on or before the first day of April, 1903.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seal this ..... day of ..... in the year nineteen hundred and .....
