This is the greatest combination offer ever made by any Canadian journal, and we are fortunate in securing the exclusive privilege for this district. The Daily Herald is one of Canada's great papers. Established in 1868, it has long been the leading Liberal paper of Eastern Canada. It is now a great family newspaper, each day giving full news of the world, and also devoting much space to matters of peculiar interest to the family. Its commercial intelligence is complete and reliable. THE KING'S PORTRAIT is the best ever published in Canada, and will make a handsome addition to the walls of any library. It is produced by a new process, and is not one of the flimsy colored portraits so common. At the regular price of The Herald is $3.00 a year, the liberality of our offer is self-evident.

LINWOOD. ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION TO REV. MR. MONSINGER.

On Thursday evening, June 25th, a large and appreciative gathering of the members and adherents of the Methodist church of the Linwood circuit, as well as a few from a distance—Waterloo, Millbank and other places being represented—met at the Parsonage, in Linwood, in order to say farewell to their pastor, who has labored so successfully in their midst during the past four years.

In the course of the evening, after two freezers of ice-cream had been emptied of their contents, Mr. R. B. Hamilton was called to the chair. He gave a short account of the progress made by the circuit during Mr. Monsinger's pastorate, showing that four years ago there were three churches forming a mission that received aid from the Mission Board to the amount of about two hundred dollars, and two Sabbath schools, whereas now there four churches, forming a circuit that is self-sustaining, and also has four flourishing Sabbath schools.

Mr. Hamilton then called upon Mr. Lytle to read an address, and Mr. S. Crookshanks, Mr. Geo. W. Wray, Mrs. Winn and Miss M. Schnurr, representing the four appointments, in turn made the following presentations: To Mr. Monsinger, a gold watch and chain and purse of money, and to Mrs. Monsinger a carving set, Bohemian fruit dish and purse of money.

Mr. Monsinger, on behalf of himself and Mrs. Monsinger, thanked his co-workers in very feeling terms. Lunch was then served and the gathering dispersed. The following is the address:—

DEAR PASTOR,—We, the members and adherents of the Methodist churches of Linwood circuit, take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of your work among us pastor. For four years you have gone in and out among us breaking unto us the "Bread of Eternal Life." We recall, with gratitude, the many pleasant and profitable hours spent in God's sanctuary as you unfolded the Scriptures. In the Sunday services, in the prayer meeting and in the Epworth League meeting, you have received blessings untold; you have been faithful in the discharge of your duties as pastor, and have labored with untiring zeal and left behind an influence that shall not soon be forgotten, but shall go on into ever widening circles. We know that love to our Heavenly Father has been the one great prompter of all your efforts, having never lost sight of the higher object for which we are created, namely, to glorify God.

There are several characteristics of your pastorate particularly worthy of mention—one, namely, your conscientiousness. The sick, the aged, and the infirm, you have not been unmindful of. To the stranger within our gates you have extended a cordial welcome. In the young people's work, especially, you have been ever ready to give counsel and extend a helping hand.

And you, Mrs. Monsinger, we have felt that you have shown a deep interest in our spiritual welfare, and we gratefully recognize the fact that you have made many sacrifices in order to successfully carry out the musical part, particularly of all services in connection with the various churches. We know that by you we have been remembered at the Throne of Grace, and the results have been such as only a praying pastor and his wife can have with his people. We deeply regret that the ties which have bound us so closely are about to be severed; we ask you, Mr. Monsinger, to accept this gold watch and chain and purse, and you, Mrs. Monsinger, this carving set and Bohemian fruit dish and purse, the latter—dish and purse—given especially by the Zion appointment in recognition of your services as organizer during revival services, all as a token of the esteem in which you both are held by us all, and we earnestly pray that God's richest blessing may rest upon you and yours, wherever your lot may be cast, and that you may continue to be a power for good in leading souls to the Master, and when life's day is ended, our earthly activities cease, our opportunities to compass our range of duties, and all are fixed in the solemn stillness of eternity, may we all meet in that land where no sorrow shall ever enter and where there shall be no more parting.

Signed on behalf of the Circuit, Simon Crookshanks, Geo. W. Wray, Jr., Mrs. Winn, Miss M. Schnurr.

June 26th, 1902. Mrs. R. J. Kerr returned last Friday from a week's tour to Mount Forest, Gorrie and other points. Her niece, Miss Ruby McFarlane, accompanied her home and will spend the holidays here.

Sharpe is expected to arrive Wednesday and take charge of the services next Sunday.

SANDFORD RESCUED.

BURIED FOR FOUR DAYS IN A WELL 65 FEET BELOW THE SURFACE.—HEROIC WORK OF HIS RESCUERS.

The most exciting bit of Canadian history which has ever thrilled the public heart was that enacted a few miles east of Paris last week. A young man named Joshua Sandford, 30 years of age, whose home is at Branchton, was deepening a well on a farm, and had gone to the bottom, on Tuesday, June 24th, to make some repairs to the boring apparatus. Noticing that the old brick curb was giving way he signalled at once to be drawn up. Those above started to do so, but while Sandford was still about 60 feet below the surface the well caved in and the young fellow was entombed. A short time after this horrible event those standing around the top of the well heard a tapping on the iron pipe which extended from the top to the bottom of the well encasing the drilling apparatus. They thus discovered that Sandford was still alive, and soon the country side was wild with excitement and all sorts of schemes for rescuing him were proposed.—Meantime communication was kept up with the entombed man and acting on his advice a second well was sunk, the workmen straining every nerve and working no less than 40 feet down the first day. Owing to quicksand the work had to be very carefully done, but finally the depth necessary was attained, when a second cave-in occurred and all work was stopped as it was thought the poor fellow was surely crushed to death, and the risk of recovering his body was too great. But one of the rescuers would not give up and after three hours he heard Sandford again faintly calling. Work was at once resumed with redoubled energy and on Friday the prisoner was reached, only to find that his legs were almost hopelessly pinioned in the debris, and to remove which would cause a final cave-in which would mean death for both the poor man and his heroic rescuers. Sandford was given food and fresh air, however, which much revived him. Another tunnel was carefully dug between the two wells a couple of feet lower down, and bit by bit the debris was removed until, just before six o'clock on Saturday evening he was released and landed to the surface. No bones were broken and the doctors say he will be fully recovered in a few days.

Sandford showed the most indomitable courage, directing the rescuers often as copy as though he was standing in a place of safety instead of within a hairbreadth of a terrible death.

Bulletins of this frightful affair were sent out hourly and eagerly read all over Canada, and the glad news of his rescue was known and joyfully repeated in every hamlet, within a couple of hours of the event.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Toronto street-car strike lasted just three days; but the plumb-ers are at it now.

There are no less than five expedi-tions out in search for the north pole this summer. It will almost require the vote at that "pole" to decide the recent Ontario elections.

There comes a wail of lament from the Muskoka summer resorts and from the city ice dealers over this spell of weather.

The recovery of King Edward VII is joyful news to all parts of the British Empire, and the joy is re-echoed by the entire world. Stricken apparently unto death at the very apex of his glory his fate seemed a sad one, but the skill of his physician, together with the strength of his constitution and the prayers of all Christianity have borne him safely past the crisis and he is now happily on the road to full recovery.

The political situation in Ontario, says the Montreal Daily Herald of Saturday last, is still painfully un-certain to both parties. Several constituencies hang in the balance. Lennox will probably go to the Con-servatives when the ballot contest is closed, and North Gray to the Lib-erals. This would leave the parties as follows:—Liberals, 50, including North Renfrew, which is vacant, and Conservatives, 48. Already sev-eral protests have been entered. Hon. E. J. Davis, in North York, will have to fight a petition, and so will Hugh Clark, Conservative, North Bruce, and Dr. Pyne, Conser-vative, East Toronto. Both Hamil-tons, held by Conservatives, will also soon be protested. David Dav-ison, Liberal, Centre Simcoe, will likely have a similar experience. The recount in Muskoka is now in the High Court. A. A. Mahaffy, the Conservative member elect, who a majority was reduced to 35 by the recount, asks that certain 177 votes be not counted for Dr. Bridgeland, while the latter con-tends that 83 ballots were incor-rectly taken from him and not counted. Other protests have been entered, and there are now more to follow. With such a situation in the fore-ground no man can prophesy what will be the complexion of the Legis-lature when it meets next winter.

NEW POSTAL RATES.

A marked change in Canadian postal rates came into effect on July 1st. The Postmaster-General has issued his ultimatum, which will be found below. Ordinary letter and newspaper postage of course re-mains unchanged, but on almost every other line there is an increase. For instance: Legal forms and other blank papers raised from one cent for two ounces to two cents for one ounce. Manuscript raised from one cent for two ounces to two cents for all under four ounces. Printed matter other than news-papers raised from one cent for two ounces to one cent for two ounces,

An Odd Habit Among Rooks.
Among the odd habits of rooks is the way that members of the same rookery have of intermarrying generation after generation. The males always choose their wives from among their near neighbors, and if one should be so bold as to bring home to his rookery a bride from a distance the other rooks will invariably refuse to receive her and will force the pair to build some way off. In the neighborhood of big rookeries outlying nests of this kind may always be found.

Fresh Paint Stains.
A fresh paint stain on woollen goods will disappear if rubbed against other woollen goods. For instance, if the stain is on the sleeve of a coat take that garment off and rub the paint against the other sleeve. It will disappear and leave no sign. This is easier than applying turpentine and exactly as efficacious, but it must be done while the paint is still wet.

The Foresters' picnic at Crosshill last Thursday was a delightful success. The weather was fine and the full program was carried out. Wellesley easily won the base ball game, having Newton as their opponents, but the football contest was very even and keen, between Crosshill and Shakespeare. At the end the score stood 1 goal each, and in the extra time played Crosshill put the winning goal through.

FROM MASCOT, PA.

Mr. J. B. Schwartzentruber, a former Wellesley boy, but now at Mascot, Pa., writes under the date of June 16th, enclosing subscription for a friend, and adds the following interesting items: Weather very hot; 100 in the shade last Friday. Hay will be poor but other crops fair. Cherries are ripe, and we are using new potatoes. People are busy planting their tobacco. Mr. Sam'l Nafziger, and his son, Nicholas, of Topping, paid us a flying visit last Friday. This is a fine country, but I still think Ontario stands at the head.
