The Montreal Daily Herald 3.00
And a Splendid Picture of King Edward VII. .50
Total $4.50

ALL FOR $1.75
This is the greatest combination offer ever made by any Canadian journal, and we are fortunate in securing the exclusive privilege for this district. The Daily Herald is one of Canada's great papers. Published in 1902 it has long been the leading journal of Eastern Canada. It is now a first class newspaper, each day bringing full news of the world, and also devoting much space to matters of peculiar interest to the family. Its commercial intelligence is complete and reliable.
THE KING'S PORTRAIT is the best ever published in Canada, and will make a handsome addition to the walls of any library. It is produced by a new process, and is not one of the faded color portraits so common.
At the special price of The Herald is $1.00 a year, the liberality of our offer is self-evident.

LINWOOD, Nov. 21, 1902.
Mr. Ed. Berlet, of Hamilton, and Miss Lizzie Berlet, of Berlin High School, spent Sunday with their parents here.
Mr. C. P. R. returned last week after spending the summer in Toronto.
Messrs. D. and R. Pollock spent a part of last week in Toronto on business.
Rev. Mr. Sharpe and Mr. A. Schnarr went to Guelph today on business.
An 'old boys' reunion' took place last Wednesday evening Mrs. G. S. Manser gave the Tennis Club a ping pong party. A most enjoyable evening was spent and all went home satisfied that Mrs. Manser knows how to entertain.

On Thursday evening, Mr. R. B. Hamilton's Sabbath school class met at Mr. Schnarr's, and remembered his services and kindnesses by a fine presentation. Rev. Sharpe gave an address, and Miss Goetz on behalf of the class made the presentation.
Miss Edythe Boomer returned on Friday for an extended trip.
The last make of cheese has been sold at 12cts. This is an unusually high price and our salesman is to be congratulated on the success of his sales during the whole season.

CROSSHILL
The annual plowing match of the Wellesley Ploughing Society was held on the farm of Hastings Bros. on Tuesday last. Owing to the unfavorable weather the crowd of spectators was not as large as it might have been, although a great many people were present in spite of the muddy state of the roads, which showed the great interest taken in good ploughing by the farmers of this vicinity. In the afternoon despite mist which continued to fall, the field was lighted up by the presence of young ladies, which proved that the young men have the sympathy of the young ladies in the desire to improve. Ten teams in all were lined up in the different classes which were filled and won as follows:
Class 1. (Open to the Province) Jas Birmingham, W. L. Campbell, and W. Freeborn.
Class 2. (Open to the township, and those who have not taken first in second)—Geo. Gibson, Selby Ferris, and J. B. Campbell.
Class 3. (Open to the township, and those who have not taken first in this class) Joe Hammond, Moses Shantz, Jas. Gibson.
Boys class. Lorne Kennie.
The two special prizes, one given for the best crown in the field, and one for the best finish were won by W. T. Campbell, Crosshill.
The judges were: A. Deering, C. Campbell and H. Koller.
Miss Maggie Ferris is away on an extended holiday visit to Palmers, ton and Trade.
Miss Ada Petch is absent for a few weeks visiting with Toronto friends.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell, of Maryboro, spent a few days in the vicinity. Mrs. J. Coleman accompanied them home and will remain for a time holidaying.
Messrs. M. Shantz and John T. Hammond made a business trip to Berlin on Saturday.

Subscribers to the Mail and Empire are offered two peculiarly handsome premium pictures "The Doctor," and "Contentment." They are by famous painters, while the faithful reproduction and the delicate coloring makes them the equal in appearance, of the finest oil paintings. These lovely pictures, and the well-known worth of the Weekly Mail and Empire as a family and farm journal, should secure a large number of new subscribers. NITHBURG.
Four weeks ago Mr. Eli. Gable, of Nithburg, went on an exploring trip through New Ontario, with the view of discovering a location for a future home. He was delighted with the new country: fine farming land, covered with valuable timber of various kinds, beautiful streams of clear water, swarming with fish. It would induce any one to be an... The unsettled wilderness is well stocked with valuable game; such as bears, wolves, deer, elks, and other fur bearing animals. The new settlers are prosperous and well pleased with their future prospects. Mr. G. was through nearly every part of New Ontario, and thinks it is a desirable place for those accustomed to bush life. The roads are the great hindrance to progress. People brought up and accustomed to the good roads in Old Ontario, where buglies and carriages are driven with pleasure parties, would not like to humble down to drive an ox-team and cart ten or fifteen miles through a new cut bush road to get to church or nearest market. Many of the new settlers are twenty to forty miles from the railroad, and have to do all their teaming principally in winter.

Smoke "Conductor Punch" when you want a steady, reliable, hand-made, 5c. cigar. It has been a favorite for 17 years.
For International Stork Food—3 feeds for 1 cent—see M. J. Schlabach, Petersburg.

Convicts of Abyssinia.
In Abyssinian political offenders and obstructionists are arrested, chained and placed on the small tableland of Abba Salema, a high, rocky and precipitous mountain about thirty miles from Adowa. So sheer and steep are its sides that the prisoners are drawn up by ropes. Their chance of escaping is impossible, unless they run the risk of dashing themselves into eternity on the rocks below. On this lonely height there is soil on which they may grow grain, and there are wells with good water. There is no speaker to keep order, and they may, if they choose, abuse the prime ministers and crowned heads to their hearts' content, but they return no more to the ways of the world.

Roman Candles.
In making Roman candles a cylindrical case is taken and packed with a lot of stars. At the bottom of the case they put some of the composition they put in rockets, and on top of each star is some more of it. By mixing certain chemicals green and red lights are produced. Green lights like those used in death scenes on the stage at the theater are made by mixing a great quantity of nitrate of barytes with small quantities of sulphur, chlorate of potash, charcoal pulverized and arsenic.

An Ancient French Custom.
Anciently in many parts of France when a sale of land took place it was the custom to have twelve adult witnesses accompanied by twelve little boys, and when the price of the land was paid and its surrender took place the ears of the boys were pulled, and they were beaten severely, so that the pain thus inflicted should make an impression upon their memory, and, if required afterward, they might bear witness to the sale.

All Theater.
Heater—The theater is a world of enchantment. Nothing is what it seems to be.
Elith—That's so. Fred and I were at the theater 'other night, and Fred, after looking about the house, said it was all paper, and it looked like woodwork and fresco painting.

Wrong Was Right.
Biggs—You say Brown is enjoying very poor health. Don't you know that is incorrect?
Hoggs—Not in this case. Brown is never happy unless he has something to complain about.

Two Breaks.
"You needn't hide that letter you're writing. That's impolite. I wasn't looking at it."
"You shouldn't have noticed that I was trying to hide it. That wasn't polite either."
The first shell was used in warfare by the sultan of Gujerat, India, in 1480.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Voting on the Ontario Prohibition plebiscite will take place next Thursday, Dec. 4th.

Notwithstanding the wide-spread impression that it "won't amount to much," there is considerable anxiety felt amongst both the prohibitionists and antis over the result. The former wish to make as strong an impression as they possibly can by the immensity of their vote, while the latter are working hard to avoid the possibility of the measure carrying. Political party-ists, too, are looking on with much interest, for the success of the plebiscite means much to both Reformers, and will for a long time be a thorn in the flesh to the party in power and their opponents as well.

Premier Ross has made a record for himself in the introduction of this plebiscite. While he spoke his mind in a plain and manly way to the prohibitionists who urged the matter before him, yet now that it is to be submitted to a vote he announces his intention to support it with his ballot.

But the question as it should appeal to the honest elector is now as to how it will affect any class or party politically, but rather will it do good? Will it produce a condition of real prohibition? Is the public sentiment behind it strongly enough to have it properly enforced? Are the provisions of the Bill reasonable enough to be proper and fair enough to do justice? The placing of a summary law of this kind on the statute books is a most serious matter and should be considered by the electors in a spirit "way above Partisanship." A man can "swear off" himself without interfering with any other man's rights, but when he demands that his neighbor shall do so he is tackling a difficult proposition and one which should be dealt with very carefully.

There are few who have the hardihood to dispute the fact that Ontario—or the world for that matter—would be much better off if relieved from the present drinking customs, yet there are many people honestly dubious as to whether the carrying of this plebiscite, under the present temper and habits of the people, would bring about a state of prohibition which would be acceptable and beneficial to the province.

The real abolishment of the eat and injurious drink habit must involve a slow process, so slow that if it began now this generation would only see the beginning of the benefits it would produce for the next. Such a law, in order to be popular with all classes (and no kind of law can hope to be popular with all classes) and be successfully enforced must embody a just and equitable compensation; it must provide a way for those older people who have been accustomed to an occasional glass fill their lives to be able to obtain it and still abolish the "treating" system which is the sting of the serpent and which is perpetuating the drink habit. There is no way to accomplish such a measure except for the government to own the manufactories and furnish the individuals with liquor the same as they now furnish them with postage stamps. When licenses have been abolished so that no one can make profits out of the sale of liquor, when the drinkers of this generation have passed away or stopped drinking because all its social habits have been removed, then there will be no demand for it and the drink iniquity will have died a natural death.

Mr. Ziegler, Berlin's shoe man was distributing bills hereabouts this week. While in the village he called at the Maple Leaf office and planted an advertisement where it will do him the most good.

Messrs. J. G. Reiner, John Hill and Ed. Ratz took a trip to Durham last week to inspect the immense cement works plant which has just been started. They also visited the knechtel cement factory at Hanover while away.

LEG BROKEN.

Mr. Win. Klein met with a serious accident last Tuesday evening which will confine him to his room for many weeks to come. After tea he was walking in his yard when he accidentally slipped and fell, breaking his leg just above the ankle. He was taken to the house and the injured member properly attended to. His friends of friends extend their sympathies and hope he will not be permanently lame by his injury.

FELL OFF A TRAIN.

Mr. Conrad Hammer, a young man who lives with his mother just west of Berlet's Corners, had an experience while taking his first ride on a railway last Saturday morning which will fix the occasion in his memory for all time to come. He had been having somewhat poor health and under medical advice he was taking a vacation from work. After visiting a sister in Berlin for a time he decided to enjoy the novelty of a ride on the train to Breslau where another sister, Mrs. Ziegler, lives. He had never before been on a train and the motion of the cars made him feel ill so he walked to the platform to get the fresh air. When the train was slackening up for Breslau station he was not prepared for the peculiar motion so fell off the coach platform to the side of the track. He was picked up unconscious and remained in that condition for nearly an hour. He was taken to his sister's home and medical help called. When it was found that his leg was broken in two places and one of his legs was also broken, while he had sustained many severe bruises. Notwithstanding his injuries it is expected he will fully recover.

CROSSHILL

Mr. John and Miss E. McCallum, and Miss E. and Petch, spent Sunday with friends in Wellesley. That would be poetess' seems to have lapsed into silence. The style was suggestive of Shakespeare but was cut off a little too short. No doubt like many another who have tried to imitate, she reached the end of her resources, but the admiring public would like to hear more from the pen of this clever unknown.

NITHBURG.

Mr. C. Grody attended the Stratford market last Saturday.

Messrs. Dan. Wagner and John Hart were in Waterloo, Berlin and Seidegeport last Saturday. They went through the beet sugar factory, which they say is a great concern.

Messrs. George and Ed. Ruppert took a trip to Preston, Berlin and some other places last Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Alex. Hart has bought about sixty hogs which he intends to fatten with his surplus grain.

Some misguided persons took advantage of a dark night recently to unhinge a farmer's front gate and throw it down the bank beside the river, and smash his milk stand. Shame!

THIRD LINE.

Mr. James Froehorn has moved into his house, which he has recently had thoroughly renovated.

Miss B. Weir, of Millbank, returned home on Saturday after a two weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. A. Hammond.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hammond were visiting relatives in Shakes last week.

BROKEN LANGUAGE.

We Understand It Much Better Than Do the Europeans.

One is astonished that the London man and the Berlin cannot understand any one who speaks his language brokenly. Where would we who are of Anglo-Saxon stock be if we were like that? We must understand many sorts of English not "as she is spoken," but "English as she is broken" by half a dozen sorts of wreckers of our tongue. We must understand "foreign" English, peasant dialect and bootblack's English, the pidgin English of the laundries and the truly awful muddle of those who start with a potpourri called "Yiddish" and end by massacring English with it.

In Paris if you merely shift the emphasis from the last syllable, where it is always placed in French, to the first syllable, even the most familiar French words fall like so much Greek upon the unyielding French ears. In London if you say, "I'll come back at noon," they declare you "a foreigner" because you did not say "midday," but if you took any real liberty with their tongue and should say, "I'll lack me by dinner time come," you might as well ask the average Englishman to understand Chaldean. It is the same in Berlin. You must go to Bombay, Port Said or Shanghai if you want to find English made elastic as it is in our American cities.

Right Side Wears Out First.
"The journals in street car trucks always wear out on the right side first," said an expert in traction mechanics the other day. "That's because the majority of people are right handed. This sounds funny, but it's a fact. Right handed people involuntarily choose a seat on the right hand side of the car, and most people standing up reach for a strap on the right. Any conductor will tell you that the right hand seats always fill up before the seats on the left, and if you make it a point to count the number of persons occupying seats in a crowded car you'll almost invariably find that there are more people squeezed into the right hand seats than in the left. This, with the majority of standing passengers holding on to the right hand straps, throws most of the weight on the right wheels, and the extra friction grinds the right side journals down before those on the left are much worn."

A Matter of Spelling.
Those who love to study human nature often derive as much pleasure from watching the people who visit picture galleries as they receive from the pictures themselves. It is not every day, however, which produces so amusing an incident as one which an English paper reports:

Two ladies were looking at a picture by Mr. Paed in the Royal Academy entitled "His Only Pair." The artist has depicted a poor boy sitting up in bed while his hardworking mother mends his only pair of shoes. The boy, although obliged to stay in bed while the repairs are under way, is contentedly eating an orange.

One of the visitors looked at the picture with searching gaze and then remarked to her companion: "His Only Pair." I don't call that a pair at all! It's an orange that he is eating!"

Ancient Superstitions.
The ancients peopled all distant lands with monsters and all distant seas with horrors. Unknown and distant countries were, to their superstition, peopled with "gorgons, hydras and chimeras dire." The distant seas were filled with monstrous dragons and serpents, of which the sea serpent is today perhaps a survival. The unknown oceans were filled with whirlpools that sucked in mariners who were superstitious enough to approach them to an awful death.

Carvings on Easter Island.
The hard volcanic rock of Easter Island is covered with carvings intended to represent human faces, birds, fishes and stylized animals. Fishes and turtles appear common among these sculptures, but the most common figure is a mythical animal, half human in form, with bowed back and long, clawlike legs and arms. According to the natives, this symbol was intended to represent the god "Meke-Meke," the great spirit of the sea.

The Soft Answer.
Mr. Editor (he wrote):
You will very kindly note there's a poem and a stamp inclosed within. If the poem stands no show, please the stamp to let me know, but I'll be a post yet, you bet.
J. FLINN.

Then the editor wrote back:
Although worth it doesn't lack, yet such poetic rhymes as yours are seldom read. Here's $1 for your letter, which is infinitely better than your poem, which you'll find inclosed.
—Smart Set.

proved, beyond the possibility of a doubt, by the most learned Scientific Men of the day, that to Lengthen Life, and to keep in a state of perfect Health, you must destroy the Germs of Disease which are constantly accumulating in the system of every living being, and producing all kinds of disease; and there is nothing in the world, they say, so far discovered, that will do this but to get ELECTRICITY INTO THE SYSTEM. THE

Lightning CURE for all PAINS and DISEASES.

Without an equal! The Great Remedy for Pains—Internal and External. Its use as a Quick Cure for Pain has never been paralleled since the day when the Great Savior of Man was enabled to dispel pain by laying His hand on the afflicted spot. LIQUID ELECTRICITY is the dead shot Cure for Pain. Every Pain immediately relieved by one thorough application. Sprains, Bruises, Stiff Joints, Headache, Toothache, Pain in the Side or Limbs, Contracted Muscles, Lame Back, Pain in Chest, Lumbago, Sciatica, are banished like magic. Read every word of the following and find out its surprising Electric influence on the human system.

Rheumatism and Neuralgia:

The Liquid Electricity surpasses all other remedies in the wonderful power it possesses over Paralysis, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Fevers, Old Chronic Lumbago, Female Disorders, also for Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Stiff Neck, Catarrh, Consumption, Coughs, Colic, La Grippe, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Asthma and Difficult Breathing. The most excruciating pain instantly stopped. Always inflammation, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, Measles, Heart Disease, Cures Constipation, whether of the Lungs, Stomach or Bowels, by a few applications, as water quenches fire. Nothing equals it for Burns, Scalds, Eruptions, Chafing, Insect Bites, Frost-bet Feet or Ears and Sore Feet; Howel's Complaints relieved in a few minutes; Cures Cramps, Spasms, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Summer Complaint, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Wind in Bowels, Cholera Morbus, For Hoarseness and Cattle it is equally good.

It is the best medicine on earth for Aches, Pains, and a General Remedy, and no family should be without it in the house in cases of emergency. Life is too short to suffer pain. We have enough trouble in this world—no use to add pain to our ills: THE LIQUID ELECTRICITY is the Lightning Cure for Pain. It is the greatest cure for Pain, whether internal or external, ever discovered.

We all know that Pain, if long continued, will beset a general demoralization of the nervous system, producing nervous prostration. Not only does the LIQUID ELECTRICITY cure all pain, but its administration produces most novel effects upon the sensations, something indescribable, a younger and lighter feeling, a buoyancy of spirits, a happiness of body, elastic step, leaping impulses. The anxiety of feeling makes it incredulously nice. Those who find themselves with wasted strength, melancholy thoughts, restless nights, sorrowing and vainly longing for a renewal of life's glorious prime, here find the fires of life burn with brilliancy. The most delicious sensations permeate the body. The Electrical Force goes through every vein, every nerve, an unknown feeling comes to the soul, renewing vital prostration, pleasant to the palate, makes young again in the age and feeble, and rejuvenates the old and debilitated.

Nothing is stated here but what is absolutely true, all statements being deliberately and honestly made and vouched for by hundreds of testimonials. The mind staggered at the immensity of the discovery and the wide application of its use.

Liquid Electricity

Gives at once with its Magical Power.

As said in one of the testimonials from the

No family should be without a bottle of this LIQUID ELECTRICITY. It should always be kept in the house. Its use will prove beneficial on all occasions of Pain and Sickness. There is nothing in the world that will stop pain or arrest the progress of disease as quick, no matter how violent or maddening the Pain, the Bedridden, the Rheumatic, Infirm, Crippled, Nervous Neuralgic or prostrated with disease may have suffered.
