COURTESY IN MEXICO.

How a Woman Writer Was Escorted Through the Country.

Hospitality in Mexico is humorously yet gratefully described by Mrs. Tweedie, who relates her experiences in "Mexico as I Saw It."

"Are you Mrs. Alec Tweedie?" he asked. "I am," I answered, with an outward show of courage, although inwardly wondering what offense I had committed.

"I have come to help you at the frontier with your luggage." I sighed with relief, thanked him and after his departure tried to go on with my work of manuscript reading.

"Are you Mrs. Alec Tweedie?" he asked. "I am," I replied, trembling again.

"I come from Mr. Cloete's ranch," he explained, "to look after and welcome you in his name."

"We began chatting about my recent adventures, when a fourth man presented himself.

NOT SO.

A couple of weeks ago we stated, in an article referring to the engagement of the Wellesley Opera House: "It was understood at the time that the Rod and Gun Club were negotiating to lease the building for a term of years and make these improvements, but the terms could not be agreed upon so the scheme fell through." We have since been informed by the trustees that the above paragraph is an error, they not having been approached by anyone with regard to the matter.

TWO SUDDEN DEATHS.

REV. GEO. BROTHMAN.

Last Thursday this entire section was filled with the news that Rev. Father Brothman, Parish Priest at St. Clements, had just died in Berlin. He left St. Clements the previous afternoon for Berlin, apparently in the best of health, intending to spend Thursday attending a church meeting in Guelph. But during the night he was taken ill with an acute kidney trouble and in spite of all that could be done he only lived a few hours. Father Brothman was in his 54th year. He was beloved by all who knew him, and his funeral at St. Clements on Saturday was a most solemn and impressive one.

KASPAR RICHER.

The very sudden death of this well known gentleman at St. Agatha yesterday morning removes one of the very oldest hotel keepers in the county. He had been in business at St. Agatha for over 30 years, and before that he had a hotel and butcher shop on Hesse Straus, just north of Bamberg. Last Tuesday evening about nine o'clock he was stricken with apoplexy, and never recovered consciousness, passing away at 4 o'clock on Wednesday morning.

WHAT IS TEMPERAMENT?

No Wonder This Child's Brains Is All In a Mess.

The half dozen blocks about Dupont circle include the homes of as many scientists of national reputation. These gentlemen of course know each other and meet frequently. Not long ago one of their neighbors began to wonder whether such intimate intercourse among scientists was a good thing, his excitation having had its rise in the following incident:

His little daughter has just reached the age when she asks 200 questions a day. About a month ago her father spoke of some author as lacking the proper "temperament" for writing on history. That word "temperament" apparently took root in the youngster's mind. What was temperament? She asked that question twice an hour for an entire week.

Finally her father gave her a note to Professor and sent her off to find out. That scholar returned with a query as follows: "Temperament is an individual tendency to the rise of a certain mental state." Father and daughter wrestled with that a little while and then applied to a second member of the scientific group for help. No. 2 called temperament the result of physical and mental traits arising from fundamental constitutional differences in individuals. This put the little girl's father completely at sea. So No. 3 was tried. His judgment was that "temperament is the psychic resultant of the whole organic life of the individual." By this time hope was abandoned. But when No. 4 volunteered to make it clear the family spirits revived. "Temperament is a general disposition of the mind," he wrote, "the distinctions of which depend on the dominance of one or the other of the physiological systems."

And now the family dictionary is worn out

ANTISEPTICS.

They Do Not Destroy, It Is Said, but Only Arrest Germ Life.

The Edinburgh Scotsman begins here to correct the erroneous belief that implies that antiseptics can prevent decay. Decay may be arrested without killing the microbes which would produce it. A few drops of a solution of carbolic acid added to four parts will keep it sweet for a certain time, not because the germs in the paste are destroyed, but because these germs are hindered for the time being in their growth and multiplication and because the paste is rendered temporarily an unsuitable soil for the growth of whatever microbes may fall from the air into it.

When the effect of the acid has worn off and disappeared, we see the paste going to the bad as rapidly as if it had not been treated antiseptically at all. Mold will grow in it, and it will decay in the fashion familiar to everybody.

It is in this way cold may act as an antiseptic when it is used to preserve meat and fish. There is no destruction, or only arrest of germ life. If we wish to kill microbes, therefore, we not only have to use a disinfectant, but we must employ it in proper proportions and see that it thoroughly attacks the germs we wish to destroy. It is for this reason that all attempts to kill germs which the air may contain are worse than useless. We cannot "disinfect" the air. If we could do so, we should require to saturate the air with our germs to such an extent that to breathe it would kill us.

We get an excellent example of this fallacy of "disinfecting air" when we reflect that in using burning sulphur to purify a room after a fever case we have to use it in such a way and in such proportion that it is impossible for any person to remain in the room at all.

Hiding Behind Big Words.

A mining expert recently described a lode as traversing "a metamorphic matrix of a somewhat gneissic gneiss composition." This means literally "a changed mass of a somewhat clayey-sandy composition." This in its turn may be translated into plain English as m-u-d.

Why choke a puny fact with murderous polysyllables? Luxley and Darwin, Lyle and Faraday could so write as to be "understanding of the people," and there is a suspicion abroad in these times that the big words so freely used by small men are a device to conceal ignorance and inept thought rather than a proof of superior knowledge.

Test of the Age of Eggs.

There is a sure and simple test of age in an egg. Dissolve six ounces of common kitchen salt in a large glassful of water and drop in your eggs, one at a time. An egg one day old will sink to the bottom, but if older it does not reach the bottom. If three days old, it sinks only just below the surface. If five days and over, it floats; and the older it is the more it protrudes from the water.

Satisfaction in It.

"You know, my dear," said her friend, "wealth does not mean happiness."

"Well," said the young lady who was considering a possible proposal, "it means carte blanche with one's milliner and one's dressmaker."

proved, beyond the possibility of a doubt, by the most Scientific Men of the day, that to Lengthen Life, and to keep in a state of perfect Health, you must destroy the Germs of Disease which are constantly accumulating in the system of every living being, and producing all kinds of disease; and there is nothing in the world, they say, so far discovered, that will do this but to get ELECTRICITY INTO THE SYSTEM. This the

LIQUID ELECTRICITY

Thoroughly does, has immeasurably Prolonging Life, Keeping it Vigorous, Strong, Active and Healthy.

THE NEW WONDER!!!

The Blood is the Life; Electricity Life of the Blood

The most marvellous discovery of modern times is the bringing into use of

Liquid Electricity,

THE

Lightning CURE for all PAINS and DISEASES.

Without an equal! The Great Remedy for Pains—Internal and External. Its use as a Quick Cure for Pain has never been paralleled since the day when the Great Savior of Man was enabled to dispel pain by laying His hand on the afflicted spot. LIQUID ELECTRICITY is the dead shot Cure for Pain. Every Pain immediately relieved by one thorough application. Sprains, Bruises, Stiff Joints, Headache, Toothache, Pain in the Side or Limbs, Contact, ed Muscles, Lame Back, Pain in Chest, Lumbago, Sciatica, are banished like magic. Read every word of the following and find out its surprising Electric influence on the human system.

Rheumatism and Neuralgia:

The Liquid Electricity surpasses all other remedies in the wonderful power it possesses over Paralysis, Neuritis, Rheumatism, Luffness, Palsy, Old Chronic Lameness, Female Diseases, also for Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Stiff Neck, Catarrh, Consumption, Cough, Colds, La Grippe, Pneumonia, Asthma and Bilious Breathing. The most excruciating pain instantly stopped. Allays Inflammation, Whooping Cough, Liphtheria, Measles, Heart Disease, Cures Constipation, whether of the Lungs, Stomach or Bowels, by a few applications, as water quenches fire. Nothing equals it for Burns, Scalds, Eruptions, Chafing, Insect Bites, Frost-bitten Feet or Ears and Sore Feet; Bowel Complaints relieved in a few minutes; Cures Cramps, Spasms, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Summer Complaint, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Wind in Bowels, Cholera Morbus. For Horses and Cattle it is equally good.

We all know that Pain, if long continued, will breed a general demoralization of the nervous system, producing nervous prostration. Not only does the LIQUID ELECTRICITY Cure all pain, but its administration produces most novel effects upon the sensation, something indescribable, a younger and lighter feeling, a buoyancy of spirits, a happiness of body, elastic step, leaping impulses. The morality of feeling makes it incredibly nice. Those who find themselves with wretched strength, melancholy thoughts, restless nights, sorrowing and vainly longing for a renewal of life's glorious prime, here find a means of renewing those golden days, when the fires of life burn with brilliancy. The most delicate sensations permeate the body. The Electrical Force goes through every vein, every nerve, an unknown feeling comes to the surface, renewing vital prostration, pleasant to the palate, makes young again the aged and feeble, and rejuvenates the old and debilitated.

Nothing is stated here but what is absolutely true, all statements being deliberately and honestly made and vouched for by hundreds of testimonials. The mind staggers at the immensity of the discovery and the wide application of its use.

Liquid Electricity Gives at ONCE with its Magical Power. As said in one of the testimonials from the

No family should be without a bottle of this LIQUID ELECTRICITY. It should always be kept in the house. Its use will prove beneficial on all occasions of Pain and Sickness. There is nothing in the world that will stop pain or arrest the progress of disease as quick, no matter how violent or maddening the Pain, the Bedridden, the Rheumatic, Infirm, Crippled, Nervous Neuralgic or prostrated with disease may have suffered.
