LIBSON.
Mr. John N. Schmidt this week moved his family to Berlin where they intend to remain.

Mr. Norman Kuhl has returned from Berlin and will work on his father's farm this coming summer.

A large number of the members of the Evangelical Church met at the home of Mr. John Baltzer on Tuesday evening and presented Mrs. Baltzer, the organist, with a well-filled purse. A pleasant time was spent.

Our local tailor is very busy these days and is looking for another hand.

Mr. John Moser goes to Berlin this week to work in the trunk factory.

A rag bee and party was held at the home of Mr. Conrad Koch on Tuesday.

Mr. Walter Koch has purchased the residence now occupied by Mr. Wm. Becker and will shortly take possession the latter moving into the vacant Schmidt house.

Do Not Crowd the Season.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been hooped up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Jack Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.

HAWKEVILLE.

The concert on Friday night was a grand success. The bad roads prevented some from coming but anyway the hall was full, and all no doubt felt well satisfied with the entertainment.

Mrs. Teipple of Zurich was the guest of Mrs. H. Frey one day last week.

Miss Lottie Wilkinson is visiting friends in Toronto.

Miss Gussie Urbach, who was visiting Mr. Abrams for a few weeks returned to her home in Baden.

Miss Alma Froehlich of Winnipeg who is spending some time at her home in Wellesley was the guest of Miss Vera Ottmann last week.

PHILIPSBURG.

Dr. and Mrs. L. Doering, of Milbury, are visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity at present.

Mrs. Nitzardy, music teacher, is ill at present.

Grandfather Lantz is still very low.

Mr. John L. Forier's saw mill is in full hum again.

Mr. and Mrs. Moll, of Milverton, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Borg.

Tetter, Salt Rheum and Eczema.

These are diseases for which Chamberlain's Salve is especially valuable. It quickly allays the itching and smarting, and soon effects a cure. Price 25 cents. For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.

FIFTH LINE.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Watson, of Chicago, who were visiting Mrs. Watson's sister in Durham, Ont., paid a short visit to relatives on the Fifth and Third lines last week. They have left for home intending to call on relatives in Stratford and Petrolia on the way.

Those who have sugar bushes are laying in a supply of the toothsome syrup these days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly intend spending Easter in Chicago with Mr. and Mrs. Watson and other relatives.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Pleasant and Effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, cold and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. R. Pelham, a merchant of Kirkville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.

EASTER GOWNING.

NO HARD OR FAST STYLES SAYS MRS. OSBORN.

The incongruity of turning Easter into a dress carnival has become so widely recognized as the absurdity of receiving callers on the first day of January, writes Mrs. Osborn, the famous arbiter of styles, in THE DELINEATOR for April.

Easter gowning as a general observance, an annual outburst based on the heels of religion, met its death at the hands of this fine decade of ours, a decade in which every breath is individuality, independence.

Now, while of itself interesting, the change in Easter customs is only a phase of conditions far more significant. For these conditions prove conclusively that woman as a sex is increasingly courageous in matters of dress.

Daily I see evidence of this gratifying development. There is no longer any hard and fast law as to styles for women, and the intelligent are aware of it, indeed are responsible for the new condition.

Let me illustrate: Extravagant dress is possible only to the comparatively few. The average woman is obliged to limit her wardrobe. Now there was a time when the average woman's conformity to the fashions would have made her select her few garments so as to be in keeping with the so-called fashionable. Her clothes were often extreme, and soon tired of.

To-day it is very different. One frequently meets women who appear sincerely dressed and who possess only one costume that may be strictly called "everyday." The smartness of these women is not induced by chance. Rather it is the result of intelligent planning. They realize that because they have only one dress, it must be strictly correct.

Cause of Stomach Troubles.

When a man has trouble with his stomach, more than he should or of some article of food or drink not suited to his age or occupation, or that his bowels are habitually constipated. Take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Labels to regulate the bowels and improve the digestion and you will find the trouble does not reappear. Ask for a free sample. Sold by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

B. F. Crocker, Esq., now 84 years of age, and for twenty years Justice of the Peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good." For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.

A TRIP TO CALIFORNIA.

CONTINUATION OF MR. H. N. HUERN'S LETTER.

On Monday we crossed to San Francisco by ferry and found ourselves in the city so lately ruined by earthquake and fire.

After seeing our baggage safely on its way to the South Pacific depot, two miles from the ferry, our first aim was to look up the Canadian Bank of Commerce and secure a little more gold as it is not comfortable to travel if you run short of the almighty dollar. We then boarded a car for the Cliff House, one of the points of interest about eight miles from the city. It is situated on a high promontory overlooking the Pacific ocean, and the views are splendid. The rocks all about are covered with seals which bark loudly. We next took a car to Golden Gate Park where we engaged a carriage to take us through this great park. Before the earthquake the flowers and shrubbery had been most beautiful but after the disaster 300 homeless people camped in the park destroying much of its beauty. We visited the zoo and artificial lakes where swan and other water birds are in abundance. The park also contains statues of prominent men, among them one of President Garfield, and statues of Goethe and Schiller, which were presented by Germany. From here we took a car back to the ruined portion of the city which covers about fifteen square miles. A large number of temporary business houses have been erected, all one-story frame buildings, and hundreds of men and teams are at work digging cellars for new structures. San Francisco was, in fact, the busiest place we saw on our trip.

Leaving here at eight in the evening we took the coast line for Los Angeles where we changed to the Santa Fe road to reach Upland, 45 miles from the city where we arrived the next evening.

Here we spent almost two weeks with our brother John. The plum, peach and apricot trees were in bloom and it was a pretty sight. We revelled in California sunshine and feasted on oranges fresh from the trees.

Ontario Colony, of which Upland is a part, is prettily situated and surrounded by snow-capped mountains, and is one of the orange and lemon-growing sections of Southern California. It is very progressive and has a splendid electric plant which gets its power from the mountain streams. A great many people use electricity for cooking and heating purposes, and there is a large establishment for the manufacture of heating and cooking stoves and electric flat irons. The Ontario Power Company also supplies some of the electricity for Los Angeles and other near-by towns. Fruit packing forms the chief industry in Upland which has a large

EDITORIAL NOTES

The C. P. R. has issued a list of the Ontario railways it intends to build this year. Among them are the completion of the Guelph-Goderich branch and the construction of the branch from Listowel to Linwood. No mention is made of the line from Stratford to Linwood via Wellesley, which was staked out by the surveyors a year or so ago; in fact a memo was given out that this line would not be considered in the near future. With regard to the trolley line from Berlin the Twin-City Boards of Trade have been informed officially that the building of that line is deferred until the Niagara electric power is developed as far as Berlin. Unless the Grand Trunk spur line scheme from Baden to Wellesley materializes, or the McKenzie-Mann system (to which the Berlin Board of Trade now puts its faith) develops, the prospects for the Wellesley district being served by railway appear at present to be remote. The unexpected removal of Fourth Vice President McGuigan from the G. T. R., who had promised to meet a Wellesley delegation soon, has disconcerted local hopes somewhat, although his successor will, in all probability, carry out the arrangements in this regard.

Last Friday's fire has re-awakened the fire protection agitation that periodically comes to life in Wellesley. The village is happily situated to own a water-pressure system which would cover practically every building in town, at a cost of less than $4,000. To raise this money, with interest, on twenty year debentures would require a special annual assessment of about $300. The decrease of insurance premiums alone would amount to more than that sum. It is a mistake to think the village can not go on with this work without incorporating, as there is a special law governing such cases, and many unincorporated villages have already taken advantage of it. It is up to our new Board of Trade to take hold of this matter.

Stratford's two champion hockey teams have certainly brought a large amount of honors and free advertising to the Classic City, and the presentation and demonstration to be given the boys is as popular as it is well-deserved.

The downfall of the Ayr bank manager the other day is only one more instance of the frailty of humanity. Trusted, honored, believed in thoroughly, sized up as the soul of integrity, a man may go on for years without violating the high confidences placed in him, then all at once fall to pieces ruining the character it took years of honesty to build up. Wellesley had an instance of this kind not long ago, and while many are embittered by the losses they were forced to sustain, yet there was, and still is, real sorrow because "another good man has gone wrong."

Wellesley business men say the winter just passed has been one of the busiest in the history of the village. And this in spite of the mill's idleness and the attractions of the new railway in the north part of the township.

A Berlin hotel keeper was attempting to quell a row in his barroom some time ago, and in order to impress the combatants with the mightiness of his authority he shouted out to them "What I ain't in this house, isn't it?"

Mr. C. Koehler and family spent Sunday with his nephew at Berlet's Corners.

Everything goes cheap at J. Spahr's as he is bound to clear out his stock.

Messrs. Berdix, Woiwade and Kube wish, through the Maple Leaf, to thank the people for their valiant work at the fire.

Mrs. Becker of Preston, is spending a few days the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koehler, in this village.

Mr. Boall representing the Y. M. C. A., visited the Wellesley Public school this week and lectured before the children on the subject of personal purity.

The sacrament of confirmation was administered to fifteen children at the Can. Lutheran church in this village on Sunday, Rev. H. Holm, the pastor, officiating.

In Mr. John Hill's letter, published last week, an error occurred which made the acreage of one of the farms be mentioned as "735" acres instead of 135 as was intended. Mr. Hill writes that he received a letter from Berlin concerning this farm two days after the Maple Leaf was issued.

Paints! Paints! Paints! the largest stock of best colors is at W. Kelterborn's.

A meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade was held on Monday evening when the work of finally revising the by-laws was completed. They will be presented to another general meeting, soon to be held, when the committees will be formed and the Board put in proper working order. The membership is increasing rapidly.

Everything at present indicates an early spring. The warm weather and rains have made the roads execrable; crows and robins abound; the frost is out of the ground to the distance of nearly a foot, and there have been three distinct thunderstorms within the past week. But it isn't safe to let the coal stove "go out," or to discard clothing for a while yet, just the same.

If you are in need of Carpets, Window shades, Curtains, oilcloths and wall paper at a low price call at J. Spahr's.

Mr. Geo. Bercht, painter, is lying dangerously ill at his home in this village, the result of a ruptured blood vessel in his lung. He worked very hard at the fire on Friday but was well on Saturday and worked all day, returning home about dark. At his own gate he was taken with a coughing fit when the bleeding started and the flow of blood could not be stopped until he was completely exhausted. Although slightly improved at this writing he is still in a critical condition.

The Rose millinery opening at Kelterborn's store, drew out an unusually large number of ladies on Saturday last. The display was a pleasing one, the spring styles giving more than usual scope to individual fancy. The prevailing shades are of a drooping mushroom appearance, with trimmings of tulle, chiffons and ribbons intermingled with flowers and grasses. Some feathers and large ornamental pans were noticed, but the laces, heads etc., of other seasons were few. Color fashions seem to be left to the discretion of the buyer as all shades were in evidence. Miss Ellen Murray, of Tavistock, is in charge, and she speaks with equal fluency in English or German. Mr. Kelterborn reports the orders as unusually numerous for so early in the season and he anticipates a large business.

See our large stock of Wall Papers, Window Shades and Lace Curtains. W. Kelterborn.

Tavistock Spring Horse Show will be held on Friday, April 5th.

Just in—a large assortment of spring hats and caps for men at W. Kelterborn's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wellesley, of Tavistock, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Philip Fardex in this village.

It is expected the Wellesley saw mill will start operations next week. Half a million feet of lumber will be turned out this season at this mill.

Among the new companies incorporated last week, announced in the Ontario Gazette on Saturday, were the Helmer Brothers and Company, Wellesley, capital $100,000.

Mrs. Jamieson, who recently resigned her position as teacher of the junior room in the Wellesley school, leaves for her home to-day. The infant classes have made remarkable progress under her tutelage.

A HOT FIRE.

ROYAL HOTEL BARN BURNED.—A CLASS SHAVE FOR THE WOIWADE BLOCK.—HARD FIGHT TO PREVENT FLAMES FROM SPREADING EASTWARD.

At about eleven o'clock last Friday morning, fire was discovered issuing from the roof of the Royal hotel barn in this village. The barn contained several tons of hay so that in a very few minutes the heat became intense and flames were carried by the wind in a very dangerous manner. In less than ten minutes the south end of the Woiwade block, about 20 feet away, had caught fire and for nearly an hour bravery and hard work struggled before victory was gained and the building saved. The breeze carried burning fragments to the northwest, lighting Mr. Thamer's house, woodshed and barn, and other buildings in that direction, but these were quickly extinguished before any damage was done. A smaller barn belonging to the Royal hotel, and one beside it belonging to the Messrs Berdix were both entirely consumed. A large building connecting these barns with the hotel was torn down thus saving the hotel from catching fire. Kube's barn and warehouse were in imminent danger, and at that point the men made a bitter struggle, knowing that if this building burned the hardware store and the residences of Messrs. Klein and Schaub would follow, thus making the fire uncontrollable in its march eastward before the wind. Faces, hands and clothing were burned in the effort to save Mr. Kube's barns and when the danger was past there was a general feeling of relief. Meanwhile the desperate struggle continued at Woiwade's. Everything was removed from the house and the bucket brigade drenched the end of the building next the burning barn and beating down the flames even after it seemed impossible to save the building. Everybody worked—even "father"—and they worked hard. Ladies and older school children worked pumps, carried water and removed goods with the same energy shown by men. When all danger was past, at half past twelve o'clock, the workers were "all in," and dozens were too exhausted to eat their dinners. But they did work as effectively as a steamer could have done it, and saved a conflagration which might have devastated the eastern part of the village.

Mr. P. Berdix estimator his loss upon the buildings and contents at $2400, upon which there was an insurance of $1000. Mr. Woiwade's loss on building and contents was $300. He had no insurance on household goods but the damage to building was adjusted at $160. The Messrs Berdix had no insurance upon their barn, which was valued at about $125.

No one was in the barn at the time the fire started, and there is not the slightest clue as to how it originated.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

(From the Galt Daily Reporter.)
The force of example is seen in the case of Wellesley Village, which is now lined up with Galt, Berlin, Preston, Waterloo, Elmira, and Ayr in forming a Board of Trade, thus making seven such organizations in this county. These boards tell their own story in the development of Waterloo's industrial life. Wellesley has set to secure incorporation as a village, but in most things it is as good as one, having a population approaching the 1000 mark, splendid country stores, and a business element that does it credit. Its Board of Trade will start at once agitating for connection with the Grand Trunk at Baden, an enterprise that has hung fire several years. The Wellesley district is a very fertile and rich one, the farms within its limits having been well worked and containing most substantial houses and barns. Its lack of railway facilities has been a heavy handicap and if it can overcome this Wellesley will soon forge to the front among the urban communities. The C. P. R. Electric Railway, however, for which Berlin was responsible, was a severe blow to the northern village, but it did not dull the enthusiasm nor dismay the Wellesleyites as the formation of their Board of Trade goes to prove. They are entitled to railway connection, and if it cannot be had via Berlin we hope they secure it via Baden. May their Board of Trade flourish and be a power for good in that part of the county.

HERE'S A DANDY

Look at it a minute. It skims the milk from the whole herd in just a few minutes—skims it clean, and just as soon as drawn from the cows. No milk standing around—no skimming by hand—neither pans, crocks nor cans to wash—skim milk ready to feed.

IT'S THE TUBULAR

It's the Sharpley Tubular Cream Separator—and it's a dandy. Notice the waist low supply can and wholly enclosed, self-oiling gears. A dairy Tubular has done 24 years' work without repairs and used only three quarts of oil. All Tubulars are just as durable as that one. Dairy Tubulars are built right—are neat and economical—drip no oil—use the same oil over and over again. We sell the Tubular. It is the leading separator. Everybody like it. Drop in and look at it—and get a catalogue.

The Peter Hamilton cultivator and disc. The Bissell Disc Harrow and land roller.

We have now the agency for the Stratford Pumping and Power Wind Mill. "Sharpley" Cream Separators always in stock. We handle the Binger, New Williams and New Raymond Sowing machines.

A TRIP TO CALIFORNIA.

 number of packing houses equipped with all the latest improvements such as box making machine and brushes. This colony has perhaps one of the finest avenues in America—Eschell Avenue. It extends from Ontario (two miles south of Upland), to the Sierra Madre mountains on the north, a distance of seven miles. It has two wide drives and an electric line and wheel track in the center, and four rows of pepper and grivill trees extending the whole length of the avenue. This colony has several splendid water systems, the water for irrigating the ranches in summer coming from mountain streams and artesian wells. My brother is secretary and treasurer for two of the water companies. Ontario and Upland have a large number of churches almost every sect being represented.

In company with our brother we spent a couple of days in Los Angeles sight-seeing. It is a fine city with splendid stores, hotels and public buildings and beautiful tropical parks. There is a perfect network of our lines extending over the whole city and to all nearby points and beach towns. We visited Santa Monica, Ocean Park and Venice—all popular winter resorts for eastern tourists. Venice is being built on the lines of the real Venice, with canals and waterways where gondolas glide, and there are many places of amusement on the order of Coney Island, New York.

We also visited Pasadena, a few miles east of Los Angeles. It is a city of beautiful homes and the winter resort of many wealthy Easterners. It has several palatial hotels which cater only to wealthy tourist trade and are only open during the winter months. At Pasadena we visited the Cañon ostrich farm where we saw many of these large birds getting their evening meal. We also visited the show rooms where beautiful plumes and articles made from the feathers were on exhibition.

We left Upland on the 11th for El Paso and New Orleans homeward bound but with a good deal of new country still to see.
