EDITORIAL NOTES.

The political atmosphere in Toronto still has a gamey odor. In fact it begins to fairly smell to heaven.

The Commissioners' report on the Stratton investigation has been laid before the Provincial Parliament and the discussion upon it is occupying the attention of the members this week. The House Committee, too, has been whacking away at the charges against one of the Departments of corruption in a timber limit deal in which the famous "Cap" Sullivan made a moderate fortune, and one of the departmental clerks has been suspended for sharing in the boodle. If Ontario's reputation keeps pace like this with Tammany in this stage of the race we ought almost to be able to flag those New York crooks in the home stretch.

The rain came to this section just in time. There was great danger of a stunted growth of the various grains and hay when the none too copious showers of this week relieved the situation, so that, barring some unusual frost or untoward weather, the Wellesley district bids fair to have another record-breaking agricultural season.

This the time of year when reports of the peach and crops being ruined by frost should be being sent broadcast. The raisers of these products have only a short time left in which to boom prices by sending out this annual scare.

The road machine is working in Wellesley this week. The road from "Paris" to town has been nicely rounded up and the traffic of the next week or so will put it in excellent shape. The council made a popular investment when they purchased this machine.

The question of imperial protection is now one of the great problems in England where free trade has been dominant so long. Mr. Chamberlain's pronounced views and great speeches have made him the man of the hour.

A FARMER CURED OF RHEUMATISM.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by A. J. Saunders, Wellesley.

Main's circus drew a large crowd to Berlin last Thursday.

The Mennonite camp meeting commenced yesterday, June 10th, at Schneider's grove, near Berlin.

North Perth Farmers' Institute held its annual meeting at Milverton last Friday.

Stratford lost its last two games of football, both Tavistock and Milverton winning from the Classic City last week.

An accidental fire destroyed a fine bank barn belonging to Wm. Hammond, Elms, on the 3rd inst. Loss very heavy.

The Preston-Berlin street railway will be wired for electricity in about three weeks. Meantime pony locomotives are being used.

LOCAL NEWS.

A new wood pump for sale. Enquire at this office.

Mr. Andrew Zehr, of Tavistock, is spending a few days with friends here at present.

Mrs. John Landreth, of Tavistock, is the guest of her sisters, the Misses Bordon, in this village.

The Misses Karn, of Mitchell, were the guests of their sister, Mrs. Fred Debus, in this village, part of last week and this.

The death of Miss Louisa Bivour, sister of Mr. F. Bivour, of this village, occurred at her home in Petersburg on Tuesday. Funeral on Friday at 2 p. m.

An exciting game of tennis was played here on Monday afternoon between Dr. Schnarr, of Berlin, and Principal Kerr, the latter winning by a score of 6-4, 6-2, 6-3. Wellesley always wins.

A carolee-load of ladies from this village attended the annual meeting of the Women's Institute held at Winterbourne last Saturday. The drive was a pleasant one and an excellent time was enjoyed.

A private letter from a Manitoba friend informs us that Mr. Ashton Fish, a former Linwood boy and South African volunteer, but now of Souris, Man., is captain of the football club of that place and his team has won its two first games. Another Linwood boy, Charles Parrill, is captain of the famous Toronto Scots.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berscht, of Midway, are spending a week or two with his parents here, prior to their departure for Didsbury, Alta., where he intends to go into the shoe business. "Jack" is a member of the champion Midway football team and he went to Brussels to play in the semi-final game on Tuesday.

County council meets in Berlin next Tuesday. Wellesley village should send a delegation to urge the Board to take prompt action, as there is possibility of a hitch occurring over the plans for repairing too bad strip of road at Graham's Flats. The poor condition of this road has been a heavy damage to Wellesley village for years past, and now that arrangements to repair it are in sight our village should make every effort to prevent a fiasco.

OBITUARY.

We are called upon this week to record the death of Catherine Weber, widow of the late John Miller, which occurred at her home in this village on Sunday evening last, aged 75 years, 11 months and one day. Along with her husband, who died in October last, she has been a resident of this village for very many years, and is sincerely mourned by a large number of relatives and friends. The old lady has been blind for the past few years, and since her husband's demise last October she has been gradually falling so that the end was not unexpected. The funeral occurred yesterday afternoon, the remains being laid away to rest in the cemetery of the Miss. Lutheran Church, of which she had been a member since it was organized. A vast assemblage listened to the impressive funeral sermon delivered by Rev. Mr. Lochner on the occasion.

CHARTER GRANTED.
The charter for the Wellesley railway was granted yesterday by the Dominion government. The terminus is Goderich, via Glenora. Now for business.

FOOT-BALL.

Tavistock won the district championship by defeating Stratford 2-0 on Wednesday evening of last week. On Tuesday evening Tavistock played a semi-final game in St. George, the score being a tie, 2-2. Next Monday evening the return match will be played between these clubs in Tavistock.

CLOSE TO THE GRAVE.

MR. ECK. REINER CRITICALLY ILL WITH APPENDICITIS.

A week ago yesterday Mr. Eckhardt Reiner, junior member of the firm of Reiner Bros. & Co., was taken ill with an attack of appendicitis. He progressed favourably towards recovery until Monday afternoon when he rapidly became worse, his condition growing extremely dangerous. An operation was performed by Drs. Glaister, Fraser (Stratford), and Mary (New Hamburg), at 1 o'clock that evening. Eckhardt's life has been hanging by a thread, and a deep gloom settled upon the community, news from the sick room being received with bated breath, until Wednesday morning, when the reports indicated a slight improvement which is being maintained up to this writing.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

THE ANNUAL MEETING AT WINTERBOURNE.

The North Waterloo Farmers' Institute and Women's Institute, held their annual meeting in a beautiful grove just across the river from Winterbourne on Saturday last. The weather was beautiful and the attendance was large, every local society in the riding being represented.

The retiring President, Mr. J. G. Hurst, of Conestoga, reviewed the work of the past year, suggesting some improvements and congratulating the Institute on its increase and success.

The auditors' report showed an encouraging condition, the balance on hand being $208.52.

The secretary's report showed a successful year's operations, with good attendances, Wellesley heading the list for attendance and membership.

The following officers were elected:

Pres.—H G Lackner, Hawkesville.
1st Vice-Pres.—Menno E Snyder, Bloomingdale.
2nd Vice-Pres.—A B Snyder, Elmira.
Sec.—Treas.—A Shantz, Waterloo.
Directors (from Wellesley township)—Messrs Hill, Hostetter, Martinson, Seip, Doering, Lackner and Fenton.

A lecture on fattening cattle, by Mr. Anderson was quite interesting and called forth a lot of questioning.

Miss Smith, lecturer, gave an address to the ladies.

The ladies of the winterbourne Institute spread a splendid dinner under the trees, which was highly appreciated by all the visitors.

FARMERS' ATTENTION!

If you want to see the best machinery in town call on me at the new shop, opposite the veterinary barn. M. THIERS AT HOME.

The Peculiar Habits of the Historian's Daily Life.

The daily life of Thiers was very peculiar. He rose always at a very early hour, about 5 o'clock in the morning, seldom later. After a cup of coffee and a light repast he would work steadily for many hours. Then he usually took a walk or would perhaps play a game of tennis before breakfast, which meal was served at the usual French hour. Then he would speak to his friends and go out for a drive, sometimes pay visits and return a little after 4. When he went regularly to bed and slept till it was time to get ready for dinner. For some extraordinary reason his dinner hour was 7.50, and he was very punctual. After dinner he always slept for twenty minutes or half an hour and then would remain up chatting and talking to a late hour. His brightest moment was always subsequent to his after dinner sleep. No one could be more agreeable in conversation, more easy or natural or more ready to impart information without being prolix. He was a true Provencal in all his tastes and habits. He loved the bright sun of his native Provence. He thoroughly appreciated the peculiar charm of the coast near Marseilles, the beauty of the gray olive groves and the smile of the Mediterranean. He preferred the dishes of Provence to almost any others. He used to mix oil liberally with his food, and I remember at a dinner at the Duchesse de Nemours a fair sized bottle of oil was specially placed next his plate and he consumed it all.

Puzzled the Professors.

An amusing joke was practiced upon the examiners at Cambridge, says a London paper. It had been said that the examination in mathematics had been becoming far too difficult, and very real complaints had arisen from tutors. To the astonishment of the university, all the eighteen or so solutions appeared on the day before the examination in the Granta, "worked out," as we believe, by our office boy. How the miracle was performed remained a secret until it had been sufficiently wondered at. The editor of the Granta had secured the services of a number of recent senior wranglers, who in privacy had deliberately set to work to master the problems which the university dons had been concocting for months past. The task had to be accomplished within twenty-four hours, and the printers were up all night setting the solutions in type. Naturally the Granta sold by the thousand that week.

How He Got It.

A good story is told about a former member of the Missouri legislature. Before his election he was chronically "broke." When he returned from Jefferson City, he exhibited $500 in good, crisp greenbacks. Some of his friends "jollied" him about his prosperity. "You didn't have a cent when you went to the legislature, did you, Jones?" said one of them. "Not a blamed cent," said Jones. "As a matter of fact I lent you half your railroad fare, didn't I?" "I believe you did." "Well, you were down in Jefferson City about forty days. You got $5 a day. Now, what the gang wants to know is how you managed to save $500 out of a total income of $200." "Come closer," whispered Jones, "and I'll tell you how I did it. I had my washing done at home."

Remarkable Luck.

In Gold Hill, Nev., in 1877, one of the mining bosses—Tole by name—had trouble with some of the laborers in his mine. One night three of them attacked him in a barroom. Two of them pinned him down, while a third stood over him with a revolver. The muzzle almost touched his stomach. Once, twice, thrice, a fourth and a fifth time the weapon snapped. Tole closed his eyes. Each moment he expected to be his last. The disgusted ruffian threw his disappointing weapon on the floor, with an oath, and, joined by his aids, left the place. Tole wiped the cold sweat from his brow, mechanically picked up the discarded weapon, went to the door and fired off every charge, remarking that it was just his luck.

European and American Oysters.

The oysters of America and Europe differ greatly. European oysters are smaller and have a coppery taste. Our southern oysters are larger than the northern. They are dredged along the coast and transferred to oyster beds in creeks close to shore, where they fatten. In London oyster salesmen sometimes keep oysters for a few days in water to which oatmeal has been added, for the purpose of rendering them more delicate and of better flavor. When out of season—during spawning time—the oyster is soft and milky and not fit to be eaten.

The Cook Stays.
