Miss C. Hayes was unfortunate in having a runaway on Main St on Friday. Her horse got frightened at a traction engine. The buggy was broken but no one was badly hurt.

Rev. Mr. Edmunds called on his son, the teacher, last week.

Mr. R. Rowe has been kept at home the past week by a heavy cold.

Miss C. Boomer has returned from a visit to Toronto.

Mrs. G. G. Manser.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaffe spent Sun-teacher's convention in Berlin Thursday and Friday of last week.

He reports a good attendance. The teachers were all sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mr. Pearce the Inspector.

Storm doors and windows are very much in evidence now. Everything has the appearance of winter.

Sacramental services are announced in the Methodist church for a week from Sunday.

MILLBA'K.
Last Friday evening the rectory of Grace Church, Millbank, was taken possession of by the congregations. After the company had assembled Mr. Alex. Harron, of Wellesley township, came to the room where Rev. Mr. Armstrong and his wife and son were and requested their presence in the parlor where the wardens and their wives stood by a table which had been nicely arranged with a beautiful breakfast, dinner and tea set of dishes. Then the following address was read:
To the Rev. T. L. Armstrong, Rector of Grace Church, Millbank: Rev. Sir.—We cannot permit you to take your departure from our midst without placing on record our high appreciation of your valued services during the past four years as incumbent of Grace church, your unremitting attention to the Spiritual welfare of the congregation, your indefatigable labors both in and out of the pulpit, as a fearless exponent of Divine Truth, your manly bearing as a citizen, and general interest taken in the welfare of the community, have done much in cementing those warm ties of friendship which exist between you as pastor, and us as a people. Mrs. Armstrong has been to you a very able helpmeet, in the truest and highest sense of that term, her exemplary character has been of such a kind as to stimulate the congregation for a more earnest work for the Master.
Please accept this gold watch as a slight recognition of the esteem in which you are held by the congregation; this dinner set for your wife, also this rocking chair and writing desk for you two little children. May these gifts serve to keep green in the memory your many warm admirers in Millbank.
Wishing you and your family that success which is ever the result of duty well and faithfully done.
Signed on behalf of the congregation.
SAMUEL S. SCOTT,
JOHN J. STONG,
Wardens.

RESCUED A CHILD.
The following exhibition of Canadian pluck is taken from the Buffalo evening times of Oct., 20th.
The Mr. Croll referred to is a brother-in-law of the editor of the "Leaf". He was born in Clinton, Ont., is a graduate of the Toronto University, and an ex-teacher of the Perth Collegiate Institute.
The passengers on a Falconer trolley car, Jamestown, at eleven o'clock this morning witnessed a daring and sensational rescue of a four-year-old child who fell in the Chadackon River, at a point near the trolley line. The rescuer is J. A.
Croll, of 41 Waverly street, Buffalo, who was a passenger on the trolley. Mr. Croll saw a woman running frantically along the bank, and grasping the situation, he jumped from the car, pulling off his coat and vest as he ran towards the stream, jumped in without hesitation and seized the child as it swept by with the current, regaining the bank in safety. Mr. Croll, evading the thanks of the mother, composely disappeared to procure dry clothing. A large crowd witnessed the rescue from the banks of the stream and cheered the rescuer as he swam ashore.

A WORD TO BOYS.
You are made to be kind, boys, generous, magnanimous.
If there is a boy in school who has a clubfoot don't let him know you ever saw it.
If there is a boy with ragged clothes don't talk about rags in his hearing.
If there is a lame boy assign him some part in the game that doesn't require running.

If there is a hungry one give him part of your dinner.
If there is a dull one help him learn his lessons.
If there is a bright one be not envious of him, for if one boy is proud of his talents and another is envious of them there are two great wrongs and no more talent than before.
If a larger or stronger boy has injured you and is sorry for it, forgive him. All the school will show by their countenances how much better it is to have a great fuss.—Horace Mann.

This is the greatest combination offer ever made by any Canadian journal, and we are fortunate in securing the exclusive privilege for this district. The Daily Herald is one of the best papers published in Canada. It has long been the leading Liberal paper of Eastern Canada. It is now a great family newspaper giving full news of the world, and also devoting much space to matters of peculiar interest to the family. Its commercial intelligence is complete and reliable.
THE KING'S PORTRAIT is the best ever published in Canada, and will make a handsome addition to the walls of any library. It is produced by a new process, and is not one of the faded colored portraits so common.
And the regular price of "The Herald" is 5c per copy, the liberality of our offer is self-evident.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Soo and Muskoka thought it was time for a change, so they each voted for the other fellow.

The Alaska boundary arbitration is ended and Canada got the worst of it. From the first Canada objected to the composition of the Board which comprised two Canadians, one Englishman and three prejudiced Americans. But the Canadians finally accepted the juggled commission, and our own representatives had decidedly the best of the argument all through the debate. But the Englishman fopped and the Yankees opened their eyes in astonishment when the award gave them much more than they had even contended for.

Uncle Sam is so elated over his Alaskan success that he has given up the idea of annexing Canada. He is now thinking of arbitrating for the balance of the Dominion.

The Stratton-Gamey episode got another airing the past week to intensify the interest in the bye elections. The Crossin Piano Company furnished the music this time.

What is needed to purify Canadian politics is to throw the old deck entirely away and deal out new cards all round. Then take the number off the ballot, equalize the registering, give an independent audit, decentralize official appointments, and there will be a chance for square poker.

The latest flying railway rumor is a corker. It comes from St. Clements way, and is to the effect that the Guelph-Goderich extension is to drop its Elmira route because of topographical difficulties, and come a much easier route through the southern parts of Woolwich and Wellesley, and pass along westward via Gads Hill. This line would run near enough to Stratford to enable the C. P. R. to hold the threat of entering Stratford over its rival the G. T. R., and would at the same time give Guelph the gratification—and profit—of cutting the heart out of Berlin's northern trade. It would also be a vastly cheaper road to build. If this rumor proves true—and it easily may—won't the Twin City be sorry it monkeyed so long and so "economically" with the Preston-Berlin road!

The Fergus Canadian has been absorbed by the News-Record of that village. Mr. Mills has made it splendid paper and we shall miss it from our exchange list.

The Toronto World gives a terse history of the ups and downs of Ontario politics since the general elections in May, 1902, when the results showed: Liberals 51, Conservatives 47. Then Munro died and Carscallon got the Lennox seat on the recount which made: Lib. 49, Con. 48. Then came election trials and the famous "three Norths" bye elections which left: Lib. 51, Con. 46. Next came the resigning of Davis and the unseating of Clark, which reduced each side by one, only to be raised again when these two were re-elected. Then came the supposed Gamey flop, and the unseating of Miscampbell and the supposed standing was: Lib. 52, Con. 44. When the House met Charlton was elected speaker and Gamey fopped back, and the score stood: Lib. 50, Con. 45. Then the death of Dr. Bridgland reduced the Liberal majority by one with the three vacancies, two of which were filled this week, and the members now stand: Lib. 50, Con. 46, with North Renfrew still open. The above record shows that Ross has needed a professional scorer to tell him where he was at.

Two bye elections were held on Tuesday. Saul St. Marie was opened by the unseating of Mr. Miscampbell, and Muskoka by the death of Dr. Bridgland. The contest of the speakers in each constituency was very bitter and the corruption cry had full swing. All sorts of influences were brought to bear as victory in these conflicts meant a great deal. The returns, which are not yet complete, show that the Conservatives have carried Muskoka, while the Soo went Reform, each thus changing its political complexion from what they were before the vacancies.

 Toronto's Best Daily
 Everybody Says So!

THOSE who do not take it do not know for themselves what all its readers say, that it is the brightest and most up-to-date of Toronto's dailies. Its circulation is growing rapidly. Only one thing prevents still more rapid growth; the fact that people who do not see it do not know what they are missing. To make the acquaintance, therefore, of thousands of new subscribers, THE STAR is giving away this beautiful portrait of KING EDWARD.

The Toronto Star's Portrait of King Edward
 IN NINE COLORS

THE TORONTO STAR'S portrait of King Edward VII. reaches the highest standard of lithography attainable on this continent. It shows His Majesty in official uniform, with his decorations in their proper colors. As a piece of portraiture, it is the best obtainable—better than a photograph, as all oil paintings by competent artists must be. The artistic value is heightened by a rich background, which increases in the print the effect of an oil painting. The gold of the uniform stands out upon the picture with striking richness. The picture is 18 inches by 24 inches, a convenient size for framing. The paper is of the finest and heaviest quality. No expense has been spared in the work. According to the price charged for some other pictures of King Edward which have been displayed in shop windows, this one is easily worth $1.00.

A copy of this picture was sent to His Majesty, and a letter received from the Lord Chamberlain's office expresses appreciation of its cleverness, and states that the picture was seen by His Majesty.
