The Maple Leaf

ONE YEAR for $1.00

The Montreal
Daily Herald $1.00
And a Splendid Picture of King Edward VII. .50
Total $1.50

ALL FOR $1.75

This is the latest combination offer ever made by any Canadian journal, and we are proud to secure the exclusive privilege for this district. The Daily Herald is one of Canada's great papers. Established in 1868, it has long been the leading Liberal paper of Western Canada. It is now a great family newspaper, each day giving full news of the world, and also devoting much space to matters of peculiar interest to the family. Its commercial section is complete and reliable.
THE KING'S PICTURE is the best ever published in Canada, and will make a handsome display to the walls of any library. It is the only one of a new piece, and is not one of the cheap colored portraits in common.
As for the regular price of The Herald to those year, the liberality of our offer is self-evident.

HAMPSTEAD.

Nov. 16th, 1903.
The Literary Society held an old-fashioned spelling match last Friday evening. There was a good attendance and a good interest was shown. A debate has been arranged for the evening of the 27th inst., on the subject "Resolved, that the American system of government is superior to the Canadian." The affirmative will be presented by Messrs. James Stewart and Peter McDonald, while the negative will be upheld by Messrs.
Hornby and Alex. McGillivray. A good program is also expected.

Mr. Manson, of Stratford model school, is visiting at Mr. Stewart's.
Our teachers have decided to sever their connection with the school at Christmas.

It is rumored that Mr. William Thompson, of Newburg, has secured the mail contract.
Mr. Stueck has one of the best ploughed fields in this vicinity.
Even the children cannot pass by without gazing at the straight and neat furrows.

HAWKESVILLE.

Nov. 16th, 1903.
Mr. Harvey Gingerich, of St.
Jacobs, and Miss Gingerich, of Southampton, visited friends here.
Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Winn are visiting friends in Strasburg.
The Misses Moyer, of St. Jacobs, spent Sunday at Mr. Levi Bricker's.
Dr. More, who has been taking holidays for the past two months, has returned home accompanied by his mother who has been visiting her son, Robert, in Toronto. It is a pleasure to report that the Dr. is very much improved in health.

Mrs. G. Luckner is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs.
Robt. More, in Toronto.
Mr. McAllister attended the funeral of his sister-in-law in Toronto the other day.

Mr. Erno Ward, who has been a clerk for Mr. Jas. Hall for the past three years, has left for Stratford where he has secured a good position.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trenton, of Conestoga, spent Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ottmann spent Sunday in Linwood.

Mrs. Stull and her daughter, Edith, and Miss Ida Frey, spent Sunday with the latter's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Ruggie, of Floralde, and Mr. and Mrs. Powell, of Wallenstein, visited at Mr. Mc-Culloch's on Sunday.

The annual meeting of the Bible Society was held on Thursday evening in the Methodist church. As there was no outside agent present Rev. Mr. Cunningham very ably took his place. The subject of his discourse was "The Book of Books" and was so interesting that someone proposed to have his remarks put in print.

Printers soon recognized the advantage of steam power. In 1814 the first press was driven by steam.
In the same year the London Times put in a press, the pieces of which were introduced by stealth into an adjoining building, owing to the avowed hostility of the workmen.
At six o'clock, while the pressmen were waiting for the forms, Mr.
Walter entered the press room and astonished its occupants by telling them that the Times was already printed by steam, and that if they attended violence he had adequate force to suppress it, but if they were peaceable they would be retained. The speed was 1,100 an hour!—From the Special Number of the Scientific American on

DEATH OF MRS. LEIS.

The death of Mrs. Leis, widow of the late Joseph Leis, occurred at the home of her son-in-law, Mr.
Chr. J. Lichty, just east of Cross-hill, on Thursday last, aged 76 years and four months. Deceased was one of the very earliest of residents of this section, coming here with her father, Mr. Kennel, who settled on the eastern border of Wellesley when she was a mere child. Since that time she has always lived here, and throughout her long and useful life she retained the highest respect of all. Beside a large number of descendants and relatives, Mrs. Leis leaves a family of thirteen children: Noah, John, Magdolene (Mrs. P. Jantzi), Christos, David, Daniel, Catherine (Mrs.
C. J. Lichty), Menno, Barbara (Mrs.
C. Gingerich), Jacob, Phronica (Mrs.
N. Roth), and Solomon. Those children are all living and settled in this neighborhood, and all of them attended the large funeral which occurred on Sunday last at the Mennonite Church, 3rd. line.

LINWOOD.

Nov. 16th, 1903.
Mr. F. Hilker and Miss Carrie Hilker, of Berlin, spent Sunday under the parental roof.
Mr. Bert Fish and wife are visiting his father Mr. R. Y. Fish on Main St.
Miss Annie Goetz entertained a number of her friends with a very enjoyable "Flinch" party on Friday evening at her home on St. Michael street.

A number from here attended the tea meeting at Glenora on the night of Nov. 18th. The program was long and contained many especially interesting numbers.

Mrs. Concoy, who has been quite sick lately, is slowly recovering.

The Epworth League was announced for Monday night this week to allow some of the young people to go down to the Millbank concert on Tuesday night.

Mr. A. Booner is preparing to move into his new residence on Main street east.

Mrs. Dr. Mc. Eachern left Saturday morning for Listowel to visit her mother, who is ill.

Mrs. A. Mc. Leod, of Priceville, is visiting at Mr. Wm. Harrow's on Main St.

Mr. Jacob Smitzer, Jun., has returned to spend the winter at home after spending three years in different parts of the United States.

Rev. Mr. Sharpe has closed a very successful series of revival services at the Bethlehem appointment.

A meeting of the railway committee was held on Tuesday night Nov. 10th. to gather statistics regarding the usual amount of trade which Linwood could guarantee to the C. P. R. It was found that an average of a car a day either out or coming in could be guaranteed outside of live-stock shipments, small freight and passenger traffic.

Peter Metzler and son are busy getting the chopping apparatus ready for work in Mr. R. Y. Fish's mill. They expect to begin chopping this week.

The annual meeting of the Bible Society, held on the 10th, was a pronounced success. It was a record meeting for Linwood. Rev. Mr.
Cunningham, of Hawkesville, was the speaker of the evening. He delivered a very appropriate address. Officers were elected as follows:

Pres.—F. B. Edmunds.
Sec. Treas.—Mrs. (Dr.) McEach-ern.
Depository—John Schnurr.

Collectors—For the town, Misses Goetz and Daly; east section, Mrs.
Ballard and Miss Patterson; west section, Misses E. and A. Beggs.

We are sorry to report that Mr.
J. W. McKinley has had to leave for the Guelph General Hospital to have a dangerous operation performed. His hosts of friends hope that this will be very successful and that Mr. McKinley will soon be with us again.

SILVER WEDDING.

Gadshill, Nov. 16th, 1903.
The home of Mr. John E. Ratz, in Gadshill, was the scene of a brilliant and happy gathering yesterday the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of that respected couple. The assemblage was in the nature of a surprise and most admirably it succeeded. Mr. and Mrs. Ratz were lured away from home for an hour or two and on their return they drove up to the house to find nearly one hundred of their relatives gathered on their porch to greet them. On entering they found the dinner tables spread and the magnificent display of presents neatly arranged.
Among the visitors were all of Mr.
Ratz' brothers and sisters, except one, while Mrs. Ratz' family were as also fully represented. Messrs. and Mesdames Ed. E. Ratz, John Hill, Otto, Louis and John Fleischhauer, of Wellesley village were among the number present. The silver wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Ely. The wedding march being played by Miss Anna Kalmisch of Tavistock and then the large company gathered around the loaded tables, eight or ten miles, dressed in white, acting as waitresses. Then came the address of congratulation and affection, accompanied by the presentation of a splendid Berlin piano, a magnificent silver service, a marble clock, etc. Mr. Ratz replied to the address in a touching manner. An enjoyable program of vocal and instrumental music followed which was taken part in by the Misses McDonald, of Berlin, Messrs. Wet-lanter, of Stratford, and others.
The day was most enjoyably spent and the gathering broke up at dusk, although some of the brothers and sisters who had come from Michigan and distant points in Ontario remained over for a day or two to continue their visit.

From 1896 to 1898 the Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine was published monthly, establishing itself as the only national agricultural paper in the country. Since January 1st, 1899, nearly eleven years ago, it has been issued semi-monthly. Still in the lead, keeping abreast of the times, and awake to the growing demands of its readers, the publishers now announce that, beginning with the 1st of January, 1904, the Farmer's Advocate will be issued every week. The splendid record of the past thirty-eight years is a sufficient assurance of the increased practical service which its readers may expect. We congratulate the Advocate upon its enterprise, and advise our readers to send at once for a free sample copy to

EDITORIAL NOTES

Plattsville is now nervously awake to its need of railway connection. A little of this activity on the part of Plattsville displaced a couple of years ago would have helped the possibilities of a road through that village from Galt through Plattsville and through New Hamburg and north through Wilmot.

The Berlin Beet Sugar Company is wise in its methods of advertising. It has invited the grocers of Ontario to come to the factory and see the process under which the sugar they sell is manufactured. Hundreds of retailers have accepted the invitation and low rates have been issued to carry them to and from Berlin. "Made in Canada," "Absolutely Pure," and "The Best There Is" are good placards to send home with these visiting grocers.

The Stratford Daily Herald is holding its place in the forefront of provincial dailies. Recently it installed a fine new fast press to meet the needs of its growing circulation. In appearance the Herald is much changed and until the readers get accustomed to the new form the improvement may not be generally popular, but the paper is as newsy and bright as ever while its capabilities are much increased. Success to you, Herald.

On Saturday last the Toronto World gave its readers the following horrifying news: "Charles Morrell, alias Mickey Hyde, went back to Woodstock yesterday on a charge of embezzlement of money charge of Chief Zeats. He is supposed to have been working the small towns in thievery in London." Either the trip-hammer bell of the type-setting machine ran off or there should be a lynching in Woodstock.

A whole week has passed with out any fresh affidavits on the Stratton-Gamey scandal. Is interest in this matter dying out? Call again, Callaghan.

No less than eighty municipalities in Ontario are under no liquor license laws. This is partly the result of local option and partly because the Commissioners refused to grant licenses.

COW FOR SALE.

The late Bill Nye is credited with having written the following advertisement: "Owing to my ill-health I will sell at my residence, lot 16 concession 6, one raspberry cow, aged eight years. She is a good milkier, and is not afraid of cars or anything else. She is of undoubted courage and gives milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her present home by means of a stay chain, but she will be sold to any one who will agree to treat her right. She is one-fourth shorthorn and three-fourths hysen. I will also throw in a double-barrel shot gun, which goes with her. In May she usually goes away for a week or two and returns with a tattered calf with wobbly legs. Her name is Rose. I would rather sell her to a non-resident."

Good general servant wanted. Small family. All modern conveniences in home. Apply to Mrs J. H. Landreth, Berlin. Care of Customs.

"Superior" drills and discs can be bought at L. Schaub's, Wellesley. Anniversary services are to be held in Zion church, Wellesley, on Nov. 29.

FARMERS, ATTENTION!

If you want to see the best machinery in town call on me at the new shop, opposite the veterinary barn. McCormack harvest machinery, wire corn planters, and cultivators, hay slings, Elmira hay loaders, also the celebrated Cock-shutt plows. Kangaroo, two-furrow and Flexor, plows, made at Aurora. My prices are the lowest. MIKE G. EMB, Wellesley.

CANADA'S GREAT ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

In keeping with the progress of the age, CANADA'S GREAT NATIONAL HOME NEWSPAPER, THE WEEKLY GLOBE, will be very materially improved for 1904. Numerous important changes are in contemplation, but the leading feature will be the introduction of an EIGHT-PAGE ILLUSTRATED SUPPLEMENT ON CALENDERED PAPER. This will undoubtedly make it the most popular weekly offered to the people of the Dominion. For particulars see advertisement in another column of this issue.

Teacher Wanted.

TEACHER Wanted for School Section No. 12, Crosshill. Duties to commence Jan. 1st, 1904. State certificate and salary wanted. Personal applications preferred. JOHN H. CAMPBELL, Secretary, Crosshill.

The immense beet sheds at the Berlin sugar factory are packed with beets and hauling had to be stopped for a time.

Messrs. Moses Lichty and Solomon Gerber left on Monday for Wilmet, Minn., where they expect to remain for a year or so.

It cost some youthful sports of Waterloo a heavy fine for shooting chickens belonging to a farmer near that town the other day.

A joint stock sale will be held at 1c Albion hotel in this village on Friday, Nov. 27th, commencing at 2 p. m. The list comprises horses, cattle, vehicles, etc. David Rudy auctioneer. Make your entries with the clerk, Chris. Kennel.

Mr. Wm. Beilstein, of the 5th. line, has moved his family to Waterloo where he will take his place in the new upholstery business, of which he is a shareholder. He made many friends here where he was a successful farmer, and we but echo the wish of all that prosperity may continue to follow Mr. Beilstein and family in their new home.

Mrs. Chris. Lichty, of Travers City, Michigan, who with her children arrived a week or so ago to visit at the home of her father, Mr. John Fleischauer, in this village, received a telegram on Sunday announcing that her husband had suddenly taken ill and was dying. Before she started on Monday morning word was received here that Mr. Lichty was somewhat improved. Her brother, Mr. John W. Fleischauer, accompanied her to Travers City, where he will remain for a few days.

Mr. R. C. Bablitt, of Oshawa, Inspector of the Western Bank of Canada, was in town Tuesday on official business, and expressed himself as pleased with the work here. He was accompanied to the village by Mr. C. J. Fox, the popular manager of the New Hamburg Bank. The Western is rapidly taking a front position among Canadian banking institutions. It is reported that one of the larger banks recently offered to buy all the stock of the Western at a premium of 100 per cent. and the offer was refused. This speaks volumes for the soundness of the financial position of the Western Bank and should please the people who are depositors with the Wellesley branch. An institution that can command 100 p. c. premium on its stock and is paying 7 p. c. dividends to its shareholders yearly may well rank among the best financial institutions in the Dominion.

If you want your hens to lay, try Pratt's Food. At W. Kelterborn's.

Mr. John Reibling is absent at present on a weeks visit to his son and daughter in Brantford.

The pleasure boats and canoes were taken from the pond this week and stored away for the winter.

During the heavy winstorm last week the flax mill property in this village was considerably damaged.

Mr. E. G. West, wholesale druggist, of Toronto, was the guest of his brother, Mr. W. B. West, here, over Tuesday last.

A largely attended and interesting meeting of the Womens' Institute was held at the home of Mrs. El. E. Ratz on Thursday afternoon last.

Milverson Sun: The intelligence of the death of Mr. W. B. Chalmers on Tuesday, came as a shock to the people of Milverson and Poole, where Mr. Chalmers has been known since birth. He had been suffering from genital obstruction of the bowels but of late years his condition had become intolerable and he decided to have an operation performed. With this purpose in view he left on Thursday last with his wife for Detroit, but was unable to survive the operation, having died upon the operating table. Mrs. Chalmers and the other relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. John S. Zehr, of the Wellesley machine works, reports a very busy season in repairing. Several threshers have been overhauled and put in first-class condition and others are contracted for. There are complaints from owners of traction engines because they are unable to run their machines to the repair shops on account of the unsafe condition of the bridge leading to the shop. This condition of affairs should be remedied. It is of serious importance to farmers and threshers that machinery be quickly repaired, and since Mr. Zehr has established this much-needed and expensive business the municipalities should see to it that the bridge is replaced at once by a solid iron or cement structure. The bridge at Ratz & Fleischauer planing mill is also rapidly becoming dangerous for traffic.

The following is the program for the foot-ball concert in the Opera House tomorrow (Friday) evening:

Cider Making closes for the season on Dec. 4th.

Their Cheapness is About Their One Redeeming Feature.

Chinese Inns are without register or clerks. On riding through the gateway your horse is seized by a dirty boy, who helps you to dismount slouching loudly meanwhile for the proprietor, who presently looms up through the wilderness of carts and mules. Proprietor and boy then hold a parley as to what rooms are eligible, and then a door is pushed open and the traveler is shown to his apartment. It is usually about twelve feet square. The walls and floor are of hard mud, and so are the beds, which extend entirely across the side of the room, with only space enough between them for a small table and one chair. The room is lighted by one window, in which paper takes the place of glass.

The first duty of the proprietor in making a patron comfortable is to stop up the holes in the paper window pane. He never tears the paper off entirely and replaces it with a new one, because the sheet of paper is worth about one-tenth of a cent, and the luncheon is not wasteful. Indeed he pastes little slips of paper over the holes until all the light that filters through it is of a mottled blue.

At one end of the mule shed in the kitchen of the inn. It is here that the meals for all the patrons are prepared, to be eaten in the rooms. The menu is not elaborate. It consists only of bowls of rice and tea. Should the traveler desire a greater variety of food, he can buy it himself in the market, and his own servant can cook it in the kitchen of the inn. To sleep on the bed of a Chinese inn would be for a foreigner an impossibility were it not that he is always so exhausted at the end of each day's journey that he finds it difficult to remain awake ten minutes after alighting from his pony. He lies down on the mat that covers the hard heap of mud and surprises himself at the soundness of his slumber.

The one redeeming thing about the inn is its cheapness. Just as the traveler is about to depart in the morning the proprietor tells him the amount of his bill. Everything is charged on the "European plan." Every cup of tea, every rushlight candle, the paper window pane, are all itemized in the long list which the proprietor reels off in singsong, but the total is surprisingly low. The cost of food and lodging for one night for a traveler and two servants, with stabling and fodder for his ponies and cart mules, is about 60 cents.

Boasted Too Soon.

The rear end of a Fordham car was congested the other afternoon. There wasn't even "standing room only." A jocular commuter said, "Beware of pickpockets!"

Everybody laughed.

A gentlemanly looking fellow said:

"No man need be afraid of pickpockets if he does as I did. I have a self patented scheme. I have a buttonhole in my vest pocket. I run my chain through it and attach the other end in the usual way. They can't draw that watch through that buttonhole. No pickpockets in mine, and don't you forget it."

The crowd thinned out.

At Wenderover avenue the "patentee" said startlingly:

"My watch is gone!"

Somebody had clipped the chain, drawn it through the other way and abstracted the watch.

A Story of Two Necklaces.

When General Weyler was sent by Spain as governor general to Manila, Don Carlos Palanca, the wealthy Spaniard Chinaman, determined to send Mrs. Weyler a gift, the customary way of obtaining the good will of the Spanish officials. He found at a jeweler's two necklaces, each costing $20,000 and both being so beautiful that he could not choose between them. So he sent them both to Mrs. Weyler with the message that she should make her choice. He received a warm letter of thanks from her, stating that the necklaces were so beautiful that she could not decide between them and hence would keep both, which she did.

Theories About Drowned Bodies.

It was a popular theory in days gone by that the body of a drowned man would float the ninth day. Sir Thomas Browne alludes to it as believed in his time, and in his "Pseudo-doxia Eptidemia" there is a discussion on this fanciful notion. It was also believed that the spirits of those drowned at sea were doomed to wander for a hundred years owing to the rites of burial having never been properly bestowed upon their bodies.

A Martyr.

"She is the most sacrificed woman for miles around."
"In what way?"
"Well, whenever they get up a lawn fete or sumpen like for the church in which the expenses are more's the proceeds the committee always sends her up to acquaint the pastor with the result."

A True Philosopher.

The greatest thing we ever saw in the way of a philosopher was a one armed man in a manure establishment who gloated because he got his work done for half price.
