MILLBANK.

Intended for last week's issue.

A very successful social was held on Mr. D. Grieco's beautiful lawn last Friday evening (June 30th) under the auspices of the Millbank English church. At about seven o'clock people started to stroll in from all parts of the surrounding country and by nine o'clock the majestic lawn was well filled. The Wellesley Brass Band made its appearance on the ground at seven o'clock. A splendid supper was served to all and the compliments paid to the culinary abilities of the ladies who provided it were numerous and well deserved. A game of foot ball was played in a field near by between Millbank and Liswood,
but it did not attract much attention, both teams showing great lack of skill. The program commenced at about 9.30 with short addresses by the rector, Rev. Mr. Jones, and Rev. Mr. Mackinnon, of Milverton.
There were also solos by Messrs. C.
D. Koehler and C. F. Ottmann, accompanied by Miss Koehler; a fine
duet by two ladies of Millbank whose names we did not catch; a double quartet by members of the band, and a series of brass band selections which were rendered with good taste and highly appreciated. The proceeds at the gate were $104, and at the booth about $115 more, which surely must have left them a handsome surplus towards the construction of their new church which is in progress
now, the corner-stone of which is to be laid on Thursday next, which is to be built out of cement blocks
and will prove a fine up-to-date structure, a credit and blessing to the congregation.

The sympathy of the community
goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Reid in the death of their accomplished daughter, Miss Tillie, which occurred on Monday morning of last week. Deceased was a teacher in a Toronto school until about six months ago when illness compelled her to retire.

WELLESLEY COUNCIL.

The municipal council of the township of Wellesley met in their hall pursuant to adjournment, on Monday, July 3rd, at 10 o'clock, a. m.
All members were present, the reeve in the chair.

Minutes of the June session, and the proceedings of the court of revision were read, found correct and adopted.

On motion by Messrs. Heipel and Dammeler, carried by the reeve, orders were drawn for the following

Thos Burnett, 12½ days running road machine 25 25
It was then moved by H. N.

Huehn, seconded by A. P. Dammeler that by-law No. — to authorize the Reeve and treasurer to borrow money to defray the running expenses during the current year, be now read a first and second time.
—Carried.

The council then went into committee of the whole on by-law No.
562 with R. J. Kerr chairman. After filling in the amount required—$1,500—committee resumed in open council.

Whereupon it was moved by A.
P. Dammeler, seconded by H. N.
Huehn, that by-law No. 562 as now filled in, be read a third time and passed. —Carried.

Finally moved by J. B. Lichty, seconded by A. P. Dammeler, that this council do now adjourn to meet again the first Monday in August at the township hall, Crosshill, at 10 o'clock, a. m.—Carried.

HOW A COLT GROWS.

From Cynicalism He Develops
Grass and Beauty.

The development of a spindly legged colt into a full grown horse is an interesting process to watch. In "Horse Nine" the author describes an instance
in this way:

And an unhandsome colt he was.
His broomstick legs seemed twice the proper length, and so thin you would hardly have believed they could ever carry him. His head, which somehow suggested the lines of a bootjack, was set awkwardly on a ewed neck.
In time the slender legs thickened,
the chest deepened, the barrel filled
out, the head became less ungainly.
As if to make up for these improvements, the colt's markings began to set.
They took the shape of a saddle stripe,
three white stockings and an irregular white blaze covering one side of his face and patching an eye. On chest and belly the molting of the mane rather sharply. On the rest of him was that peculiar blending which gives the blue roan shade, a color unpleasing
to the critical eye and one that lowers
the market value.

The Death of Keith.

The death of Keith, the hero of the mythical story of Scotland, was one of the most remarkable in all history—that is,
if it can consistently be called a historical fact. According to the story, Keith had killed a son and brother of the warlike Fennella. She for revenge sent him to a place where he was to live for a time, to fashion an automatic death dealing machine, a wonderful statue filled with hidden springs, levers, etc. When finished and set up, this
"brass image" was an admirable work of art. In its right hand it held a basin
and in the left an apple of pure gold, both set with diamonds and other precious stones. To touch this apple was to dare death, it being so arranged that one guilty of such vandalism would be immediately riddled by poisoned arrows shot from loopholes in the body of the statue. Keith was invited to come and inspect the wonder, and kinglike and just as Fennella had hoped he tried to pluck the precious imitation fruit. The moment his hand touched the incursed jewel he was filled with poisoned arrows, dying where he fell.

How He Escaped.

Not long ago an English curate surprised his parishioners by marrying a widow considerably older than himself.
The astonishment was still greater when the cause was known. The curate had become engaged to a young and whose frivolous conduct soon led him to regret the step. He offered a settlement for his release, but it was refused. He endeavored in every way to break the engagement, but without success.

"Is there nothing I can do to escape
this?" he exclaimed one day in despair.
"Yes," remarked the girl's mother, who was present and who had been the prime mover in the marriage negotiations, "by marrying me."

The curate decided, if he had to marry one of the two, he preferred the mother and accepted her. The young girl soon married a wealthy stockbroker.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Gold-rich sustained a severe loss last week in the destruction by fire of an elevator containing 250,000 bushels of No. 1 Manitoba wheat.

Toronto is about to sink a tunnel from the mainland to the island with a view of getting an ample supply of water for the city's use.

There were only sixty-four killed in the Fourth of July demonstration in the United States. They should have run the number up to '76 just to be historical.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, Minister of Finance, has brought down his estimates, showing another handsome surplus. The total expenses last year were $62,250,000 and the revenue was $71,250,000.

The "made-in-Canada" exhibition held in Galt last week in aid of the hospital, was a grand success, netting over $2,000. Borin hospital, too, received a handsome surplus last week from a local entertainment given.

Official reports show that the United States last year received nearly a million emigrants of the lower class from the congested countries of lower Europe, and scarcely any at all from the British Isles. Almost the entire British emigration was directed to Canada.

There is a proposition on foot to replace the Toronto general hospital with a modern new structure at a cost of over half a million dollars, the city, the province and voluntary subscriptions to defray the cost. The old hospital is said to be inadequate.

A United States collector named Bumps, at the Charlotte harbor, forced a Canadian coal vessel to lower the British flag because the day was the Fourth of July. He evidently wanted to bring his euphonious name into cheap notoriety, and now he is getting his bumps in the newspapers.

Russia is getting into a very sad plight. Her army is reduced to so miserable a condition that it can scarcely be called an opposition to the Japanese, while at home there are at least half a dozen insurrections on foot, any one of which might be successful but for the dense ignorance of the people. If ever the subjects of the Czar needed a Moses it is now.

People think the Grand Trunk Railway Company is entirely soulless but the people of Brussels don't think that. When they had a big fire in that village recently the Grand Trunk ran special trains from Listowel and Wingham carrying fire engines from those places, and they declined to make any charge for this valuable and much-needed service.

Listowel does not seem so anxious for C. P. R. steam connection. The other day the town refused to submit a bonus by-law on the grounds that the road would not assist their country trade from the east. Main railway "prestige" is not estimated as highly in Listowel as it is in Stratford.

The death of Secretary of State John Hay, last week was a severe loss to the United States. He was perhaps the brainiest man in that country and rendered splendid services. His place has been filled by the appointment of Elihu Root, of New York, who made a name for himself as Secretary of war in President Arthur's administration some years ago.

Nature finds lots of room for vag-aries. A scientist tells us that two sides of a person's face are never alike. In two cases out of five the eyes are out of line, one eye is stronger than seven cases out of ten; the right eye is usually higher than the left, little sounds can be heard better with one ear than both. Even the finger nails do not grow equally, the middle finger growing fastest, and 54 times out of 100 the left is shortest.

Good for Stomach Trouble and Constipation

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done me a great deal of good," says C. Towns, of Rat Portage, Ontario, Canada. "Being a cold, the after effects are not unpleasant, and I can recommend them to all who suffer from stomach disorder. For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley."

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhoea Remedy

A few doses of this remedy will invariably cure an ordinary attack of diarrhoea.

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.

Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.

LOCAL NEWS.

5 dozen 12 1/2 corks for 9 cents each. At J. N. Zinkann's.

Mr. J. Nafziger, of Fulton Co., Ohio, is spending a few weeks with friends hereabouts.

Union Sunday School next Sunday at 10.30 a.m. Preaching service in English at 7 p. m.

Mrs. W. Zellstein and daughter of Waterloo, are at present visiting with friends in the village and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Halls and family, of Baden, and Mr. Bean, of Clifford, were guests of Mr. Jacob Miller's, fifth line, the fore part of last week and Miss Hilda Miller accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meyer, of Johnston county, Iowa, are making a visit to friends in this vicinity. They are natives of Waterloo county, but left for the States nearly forty years ago.

Mr. Harvey McDonald has charge of the Wellesley drug store this week during the absence of the proprietor who is enjoying a short holiday trip. Mr. Saunders is expected back tomorrow or Saturday.

Mr. Milton Zinkann, traveller for the Schierholtz Zinkann Co., Waterloo, accompanied by his sister, Miss Annie, was at the family home here a week ago Sunday. In the following Tuesday "Milt" started on his northwest trip for the firm.

Reeve Kerr and Councillors Hoppel and Lichty were in this village on Tuesday to meet Pathmaster C. Kennel, in minor road division considerable minor repairs are needed. After making a thorough investigation they found that the bridge at the sawmill although quite dilapidated, could at a small cost be repaired to last another year, when a new up-to-date structure can be built; the steel bridge at the roller mill needs replanking at once, and this is to be attended to by Mr. Kennel, who is also to put in several culverts and one or two catch-basins. The point on the bluff just south of the village where the know blockade occurs every winter was inspected, but it is not yet known whether the much needed snow fence will be built or not.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned

The average man does not save to exceed 10 per cent of his earnings. He must spend $9 in living expenses for every dollar he saves. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It will save the farmer in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.

Albirt Doering, Crosshill, sells Raymond Sowing Machines and National Cream Separators. They are in very best. See them.

The heavy, soggy rain which set in on Tuesday night and continued all yesterday will, it is feared do great damage to the hay crop which promised to be a very heavy yield this year. Wheat and other standing grains, too, will be seriously endangered by the wet.

Your choice of prints at 8 cents. J. N. Zinkann.

The booth and numerous waitresses were kept busy all the evening furnishing refreshments until practically every thing was sold out. The proceeds amounted to about $100, of which about $50 was added to the funds of the Library.

Albert Stahle met with a nasty accident while returning with the baker wagon from one of his regular trips last Friday evening. In coming down the steep hill, opposite Mr. John H. Campbell's, Crosshill, some break in the gear let the wagon tongue down and in an instant the heavy rig was overturned on top of young Stahle, the deep ditch into which he fell undoubtedly saving his life as the rig was badly smashed. Although hurt much worse than he knew the lad crawled from under the wreck and pluckily held the team from running away until Mr. Campbell and his son, who saw the accident, quickly arrived, when Stahle fell, almost unconscious, from his bruises. The lad was brought to Wellesley at once by Mr. Campbell, when medical examination showed that no bones were broken or in jury beyond the heavy concussion and a dozen or so bad cuts and bruises. The top of the delivery wagon was completely wrecked.

GARDEN PARTY.

A most enjoyable and successful garden party was held in the beautiful school grounds last Wednesday evening by the Wellesley public library. The weather was just suitable for such an event and the attendance numbered nearly 400 people. The grounds were beautifully lit up with Chinese lanterns, etc., and a splendid time was enjoyed by all. The Wellesley Brass Band gave one of their popular programs from the stand while Mr. Louis Schaub's phonograph was a source of fun and entertainment to all. The Directors wish, through the Maple Leaf, to thank the ladies, the Band, Mr. Schaub and others who helped make the occasion so pleasurable to the public and profitable to the Library.

HAWKESVILLE.

This week's Budget.

The three Sunday Schools from here, having been kindly re-nosed by the three schools of Linwood, to join them in a picnic at the "Hill" at Wallenstein so that the children may have an opportunity of seeing the great engineering work there. The outing was certainly enjoyed by all. Mr. Spies had a booth of refreshments.

The United Brethren held their quarterly service and the Sacrament on Sunday. Rev. J. Robins, the Presiding elder, conducted them.

On account of the U. B. service in the morning the Presbyterians held their service in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hahn from near Linwood and Mr. and Mrs. Shelly spent Sunday at Mr. F. Snyder's, Bloomingdale.

Mr. Huesfners attended the funeral of Mr. Schaefer, of St. Jacobs, last week.

Mrs. L. Armstrong is very sick at present. Her daughter, who lives in Toronto, has been sent for and will be here to-night.

Master Lester Shelly has returned after spending a week in Bloomington.

The 1st of July is over and all the visitors have left and the village has settled down to its old routine of life.

THIRD LINE.

Mr. Noah Lels has the material on hand for his new brick residence.

Many from here are taking in the "Glorious Twelfth of July" at Stratford today.

Misses Sarah and Lizzie Hammond, of Elora, are home on their vacation.

Mr. Charles Pommer and daughter

ter Louisa have returned from Chesley where they were visiting his brother.

The teachers and scholars of Zion church Sunday School held a successful picnic in Mr. Will Shair's grove last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Andrew Riddell, of Atwood, will occupy Rev. Mr. McKinnon's pulpit during the latter's absence.

Miss Jean Robertson is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Robertson.

HAMPSTEAD.

The worst piece of road in the township is said to be right south of this place. Of course after this hint the council will have it repaired at once.

We are sorry to report that Isaac, son of Mr. Chas. Wilhelm, is quite seriously ill.

The balance of our Christmas Toys will be sold below cost from Saturday on. J. N. Zinkann.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Covey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This Remedy is for sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.

100 dozen Crown fruit jars at cost. J. M. Zinkann. Spruce your trees and vines with Bordeaux. For sale at Wm. Kelborn's.

Heifer Lost.

About the latter part of May, from my farm, lost a black and white Friesian heifer, red with star in face. Finder will be suitably rewarded.

Buy It Now
Now is the time to buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is certain to be needed sooner or later and when that time comes you will need it badly—you will need it quickly. It may save life. For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist.

Found—On April 23rd, on the road just east of the village, a ladies' fur collar. The owner can recover it by calling at my place.

In Touch with the World

Covering the earth like a spider's web the cable winds its sinuous way under seas, over mountains and plains, across continents to every country and clime on the globe.

So when King Edward opens Parliament, when Emperor William leads the band, when Mad Mullah breaks out, or a volcano in the East Indies does the same, when South Africa seethes in war or Venezuela defies the powers, when rain breaks the Australian drouth or the plague breaks out in India, when the Empress of China suppresses the Boxers or Japan negotiates a loan, —the news is instantly flashed around the globe, across oceans and continents right into the Toronto Daily Star office. The Star's direct special cable service is better than any other paper's in Ontario.

And you get all this cable news along with your own local paper for $2.20. Think of it—a single word sent to you personally might cost more than the price of the Star, with its hundreds of columns of cable news, for a whole year.

Subscribe direct to the Star or through the office of this paper. Both the Daily Star and this paper for $2.20 for a year.
