SOMEBODY.

(J. R. Clements in Alexander Hymn Book)

Somebody did a golden deed. Proving himself a friend in need. Somebody sang a cheerful song. Brightening the alms the whole day long.

Was that "Somebody"—You?

Somebody thought 'twas sweet to live. Bravely he lived to shield the right.

Was that "Somebody"—You?

Somebody made a loving gift. Somebody tried to lead to light.

Somebody told the love of Christ. Told how His will was sacrificed.

Was that "Somebody"—You?

Somebody killed all the hours. Carelessly crushed life's fairest flowers.

Somebody made life loss—not gain. Thoughtlessly seemed to live in vain.

Was that "Somebody"—You?

Somebody filled the day with light. Constantly chased away the night.

Somebody's work bore joy and gladness. Surely his life shall never cease.

Was that "Somebody"—You?

NOT GLANDERS.

A fine team of grey working horses belonging to Mr. Peter L. Hogg have been standing in the Albion hotel stable the past week or so.

At U. J. Steins, Heidelberg, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 3, 10 and 11th.

At the Rose Millinery Co., (W. Koltorborn), on Saturday, April 7th.

At the T. Ruggie Co., Linwood, on April 11th and 12th.

The millinery openings are to the ladies what auction sales are to the men. The Maple Leaf has some exceedingly interesting advertising matter on this subject to which the attention of the ladies is invited.

The Co-operative Cigar Co. of Berlin, have on sale in Wellesley their famous "Lansig" Co. and "Cobalt" 10c cigars. Have you tried them. They're great.

DAMAGED LINEN

SALE

THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

This Sale is in a class by itself. The linen is such crisp, clean, inviting stuff to handle, and people are so eager to buy it, that the Linen Sale is all pleasure. And then, too, this Linen Sale is a fine advertisement for the Store. Good Linens are so durable—last so long—that all over this part of the Country you will find women who take pride in showing to their friends good table cloths and explaining, "Yes, it's a good cloth and I got it for about half price at Ryan's four years ago—I hope they will soon hold another Sale."

We would like to have a Linen Sale every year. But Damaged Linens are not made to order—just by accident—so we have to watch our chance. Two years ago we had a good sale. Last year we could not get enough. This year we have been successful in securing immense supplies of Linens of the most attractive nature.

And now we announce our

GREATEST LINEN SALE

Table Cloths, Linens by the yard, Tweeds, Towellings, Napkins, Linen Remnants and Linen Handkerchiefs, which will be here in the greatest abundance. The display Table at the front of the store and half way down the aisle, will be loaded with Linens.

THE FOLLOWING AWAITS YOU:

Unbleached Table Linens.

From 25c. a yard up.

Fine Bleached Table Linen.

From 40c a yd up to $1.65.

Fine Table Cloths.

Woven with pattern border all around in all sizes from 2 yds to 4 yds long.

Prices from 90c to $6.00 a cloth.

Table Napkins.

Some in straight dozens, hundreds of single Napkins. All at very low prices.

Towels.

About 50 doz Linen Towels fringed, hemmed and hemstitched at from 10c to 45c each.

Towelling.

About 35 rolls of Linen Towelling tea, hand and roller towelling to be sold at from 5c to 12½c a yd.

Remnants of Table Linens.

These are marked at next to nothing prices during the sale.

THE DAMAGES

The Towels, Towellings and Unbleached Linens are perfect linens, bought job special for this sale. The Bleached Table Linens, Cloths and Napkins are what are called "damaged," but really the imperfections are so few and small that in many instances it will be a hard task to find them. THE COLORED STRING indicates where the damage lies in the cloth.

HANDKERCHIEFS

A very large lot of all pure Linen plain and hemstitched have also been bought at a job price that are selling decidedly cheap.

LOCAL NEWS.

April 13th is Good Friday.

Mr. J. G. Reiner, was in Berlin on business Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Homer Bellinger, of Cross hill, visited relatives here on Tuesday of this week.

Miss Beatrice McGinnis, of Berlin, is spending a week at Mr. Wm. Klein's.

Mr. Alex Dingwall, of Galt, was visiting his relatives and friends here this week.

Mr. Chas. Fleischhauer, of the hardware department of Reiner Bros. and Co.'s store, is on the sick list this week.

Misses Lizne and Minnie Berdux left on Wednesday for Waterloo, where they will visit friends until a few Easter.

Mr. John McTavish, whose illness was reported in last week's Maple Leaf, died yesterday, (Wednesday) morning.

That the Maple Leaf is sustaining its popularity is evidenced by the fact that 800 copies are now required to supply the demand.

Mr. Elwin Klein has been added to the staff of the Western bank, Wellesley, and his place in Spahr's store has been taken by Mr. Fred Schwalm of Midway.

The Brenner drain petition was not presented to the council last Monday on account of the unavoidable absence of the petitioner. The matter will be brought up at the May meeting.

Mrs. J. W. Green was in Stratford and Tavistock last week visiting friends and had the pleasure of hearing Madame Albani at the latter place on Wednesday evening last.

The Woman's Institute meeting of Wellesley, has been postponed a week later this month on account of the holiday and will be held the third Thursday, April 19th, at the home of Mrs. Edward Ratz, at 2, 30 o'clock.

Rev. Mr. Lochner, formerly of Wellesley, underwent an operation last Friday week at the Lutheran Hospital Fort Wayne, Ind., and is doing as well as can be expected, and there is a fair chance of his recovery. His daughter, Paula, was only slightly ill and not seriously so, as was reported in Wellesley.

Joe G. Freeman, son of Mr. Jno. Freeman, sr., near the stone church, met with an accident while cutting wood in the bush on his farm, last week. While he was helping to lift a log it fell, crushing him beneath. He was fortunate in escaping with nothing worse than a severe bruising.

Joseph Ginzgrich, a pupil of the Wellesley public school, about a month ago brought to the school a cocoon which he had cut from the limb of a tree. It was put in a glass jar and on Thursday last a large beautiful butterfly, measuring 6 1/2 inches across the wings, came out in an Easter costume, to greet the spring.

Miss Catharine (Maud) Berdux, eldest daughter of Mr. Casper Berdux, of Wellesley was married in New Hamburg, Wednesday, April, 4th, to Mr. David Hostetler, of Milk Creek, Lapeer Co., Ind., and a cousin of Mr. E. V. Hostetler, 5th line. The relatives and near friends attended a wedding supper given in honor of the bride on Tuesday evening at the home of the Misses Berdux. The best wishes of their friends follow the young couple to their home in Indiana.

How would you like to save a few dollars? You can do it. Let us explain. We are now settled at the rear of our shoe store and Sovereign Bank, and have put in stock some wonderful values in all lines of clothing, such as $2 pants for $1.49, and $3.50 fine worsted pants for $2.49; $8 suits for $5.98 or $12 suits for $8.98; $4.50 boys suits for $3.48, -two or three pieces, all beautiful new goods. Come and let us show you how you can save money. A. Weesche & Co, next to the post office, Berlin.

Read O. J. Steiss' large three-column advertisement in this issue. This enterprising young Heidelberg merchant is a model business man.

Mrs. Mansor and Miss O'Connor, of Linwood, were the guests of Miss Greenwood on Saturday last.

A little five-year old nephew of post-master Bellinger, was accidentally killed in Toronto on Tuesday afternoon of this week. The little fellow was crushed beneath the wheels of a delivery wagon. Yesterday's Globe gives the particulars of the accident.

The funeral of Luvinia, the thirteen year old daughter of Mr. Chas. F. Ottmann, last Saturday afternoon was very largely attended. Relatives were present from Palmerston, Warton, Waterloo Hawkesville and other places. The pall-bearers were all first-cousins of the deceased. Her school-mates sent a beautiful wreath of flowers and at the grave sang very sweetly, "Safe in the arms of Jesus."

Readers of the Maple Leaf will notice that there are no less than 10% columns of new advertising matter in this issue. Besides the large new advertisement of Mr. O. J. Steiss, of Heidelberg, and the Rose Millinery, there are complete changes in the advertisements of Reiner Bros. & Co.; The Western Bank; Smyth Bros., Berlin; G. B. Ryan & Co. Berlin; A. J. Saunders, Wellesley; The Arcade Annex, Stratford; John Spahr, Wellesley.

Mr. John E. Ratz' saw mill, at Gadshill, was burned to the ground this (Wednesday) morning. Particulars have not reached here at the time of going to press.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Ottmann, wish through the Maple Leaf to thank their friends for the kindness shown to them during the sickness and subsequent death of their daughter.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and needless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an exceptional sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.
