LINWOOD.

Mr. Beaton, the principal of our public school, has resigned his position, and will leave at the mid-summer holidays.

Rev. Mr. Monks of Glenalla, occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, preaching a very fine sermon. His remarks were very pointed and plain and he will always be welcome in Linwood.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a garden party on the lawn of Mr. Langrave, June 29th. A good time is in store for every one who can come.

Great was the rejoicing in the Methodist church last Sunday when Rev. Mr. Sterling announced that he had decided to remain at Linwood for another year. His many friends were very glad to hear him say so. We congratulate the Methodist friends, as Rev. Sterling is a great favorite in Linwood.

Mrs. Thomas, of Bloomingdale is visiting at the home of Mr. Robt. Rome, this week.

Quite a number from here attended the Sabbath School convention held at Hawkesville. They report a very successful convention.

The bricklayers started work at Mr. C. Heinbach's new house on Monday.

A much needed work was started last week, in the putting in of large sewer pipes and filling the open ditch on the north side of main street. This has been a very dangerous place and also an eye sore to the people of the village, but now it will all be levelled up.

Mrs. Manser, who is at the home of Mr. G. B. Manser.

Last Friday evening while Mr. and Mrs. Emery Rennie and Mrs. Seacord were returning from the Sabbath School convention at Hawkesville, they had a narrow escape from being killed. Getting a little to the side of the road near John Gerth's their buggy upset in a deep gully which the water had washed out along side of the road. Fortunately no one was hurt, but they all got a bad fright and shaken up. It is a shame that the council does not have this road attended to as it is in a very dangerous place. If it is not made safe, some day there will be a big bill of damage. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Fresh strawberries and many other dainties at the T. Buggle Co's store next Friday and Saturday.

CROSSHILL.

Mrs. Geo. Manser, of Linwood, and Mrs. Robert Manser, of Toronto, visited at Mr. J. H. Campbell's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Badley, of Glenalla, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Heipel, near Wellesley, were the guests of Mr. John Frame on Sunday.

Messrs. Reid and Hinson, of Berlin, called on guests in the village on Sunday.

Mrs. George Petch has returned from Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Foster, of near Hawkesville, spent Sunday at Mr. Robt. Foster's.

Mrs. Glue, of Linwood, visited at Mrs. A. Knight's last week.

Miss M. Berdus, of Wellesley, spent Sunday with her friend, Alice Snyder.

The Crosshill public school will hold a lawn social on the school campus on Friday evening, June 29th. Mr. A. B. McBride, of Waterloo, will act as chairman. A good program provided, Bert Lyles, Berlin's comic entertainer will be present. Admission 15c. and 10c. Tea served from 7 to 8 o'clock.

HAWKESVILLE.

Mr. Harry Gesch, of Elmira, called on his brother, Mr. Roger Gesch, on Sunday.

Mr. Fred Dahley and Mr. Herbert Dahley, of St. Agatha, spent Sunday at Mr. F. Lackner's.

Miss Kleie Winn spent a few days last week in Waterloo.

Mr. Alvin Shelly, who had been spending some time in Manitoba, has returned home.

Miss Katie Weber, of Elmira, spent Sunday at Mr. Laidlaw's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Winn are visiting friends near Preston for a few days.

The Sunday School convention held here last Friday was not so well attended in the afternoon but the church was full in the evening. Among the speakers were Rev. Mr. Monks, of Glenalla, Rev. W. Sterling, of Linwood, Rev. Mr. Edgar, Mr. Hamilton, and Mr. Luckhart, of Elmira.

Rev. Mr. Monks, of Elmira, took charge of the Presbyterian service in this village on Sunday morning last.

THE JUNE "ROD AND GUN."

With midsummer heat, people's thoughts are turning to vacations, and they are seeking to escape from man-made cities to the delightful haunts of Nature, and the simple, free, and untrammelled life of the God-made country. Again Rod and Gun and Motor Sports in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, at Woodstock, Ont., is prepared to give them just the information devoted to Boating and Summer Resorts and the longing to be away from toil and turmoil will come over most people as they turn over the pages of this fascinating Magazine. The choice of outings in Canada is infinite in variety and attractiveness, and some very fine samples are presented for consideration in this number. From the east to the west places within easy access of civilization, and those remote from the throbbing life of cities, seaside, backwoods, and the mountain resorts, all receive notice while sportsmen of every kind find some fare dealing with their own particular field. The immense strides motor boating has made in Canada are fully dealt with in this number, and the Toronto Canoe Club, the largest organization of the kind in the world, is the subject of a specially illustrated article. Hunting and fishing remains, as ever the special strength of the Magazine, which in entering upon its eighth year shows all the symptoms of a healthy vigorous life and justifies to the full the statements made in the birthday retrospect, and gives promise of continuing with even more effectiveness, its good work for the future. The numerous attractions presented by Canada to the sportsmen and tourists of the world are becoming more widely known each month through the pages of Canada's premier Sportsmen's Magazine.

OUR FREAK LANGUAGE.

When the English tongue we speak, Why is "break" not rhyme with "freak"?

Will you tell me why its true We say "few," but likewise "few," And the maker of a verse Cannot cap his "horse" with "worse"?

"Beard" sounds not the same as "board,"

"Cord" is different from "word" "Cow" is cow, but "fow" is low; "Shoe" is never rhymed with "fow." Think of "how" and "dow" and "loose," And of "goose" and "yet" of "chose." Think of "comb" and "tomb" and "bomb."

"Doll" and "roll" and "home" and "some";

And since "pay" is rhymed with "say, Why not "paid" and "said," I pray? We have "blood" and "food" and "good."

"Mould" is not pronounced like "could,"

Wherefore "done," but "gone" and "lone,"

Is there any reason known? And, in short, it seems to me, Sounds and letters disagree.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Russia's first parliament has already got into trouble. In the lower house the opposition upset the government and then claimed the right to take power and form a ministry. The Czar doesn't seem pleased at the assumption of parliament that it is any more than his plaything; hence the row.

William Jennings Bryan, the twice defeated Democratic candidate for the United States, stands a good chance of once more becoming the candidate of that party. If he is chosen he will be the first one to receive a third Presidency nomination. The Americans do not seem to favor a third term for one man.

"It might be a good plan for Canadian politicians to adopt the "No Third Term" policy. In these days when education and scientific training are so thoroughly developed there is no longer difficulty in securing capable men for any public position. If every member of the Dominion and Provincial Houses were suddenly to retire there is no doubt that just as good men—perhaps better—could speedily be got to fill their places two or three times over, so that there is no necessity on that score for keeping any one set of men in office too long. "Barnacles" will gather on even the best "ship of State" that rides the political waves too long. One term is too long for a bad government. Many think two terms plenty long enough for a good government. A new broom sweeps clean. Since Canada has plenty of splendid material from which to make brooms, there seems no particular reason to keep old political brooms in use for thirty-five years until they are worn down to the handles. No matter how good, after two or three terms 'rouse mit 'em!

Great Britain is facing a new South African trouble which may yet develop into a bloody war with the native black tribes. For a long time the Zulus, Basutos and other tribes have been restless and of late they have shown a strong inclination to join forces in an attack upon the whites whom they outnumber at the rate of about one hundred to one. In the hard times which followed the Boer war the Natal government was in great straits for money with which to carry on the public affairs. All the taxes were paid by the whites while the blacks practically paid nothing. To overcome this a poll tax was imposed upon all, whites and blacks alike. To this the latter objected and are now making it one of their excuses for the present unacted state. In collecting this tax a few months ago two officials were killed while trying to force payment from a tribe who refused and were resisting the law. Later the outlaws were arrested and sentenced to death by the Natal authorities. The home government in England refused to ratify this sentence at first and the blacks took this to mean that England did not back up Natal in enforcing the law. The colonials at once held indignation meetings and finally induced the home government reluctantly to permit the execution to go on and the dozen or so blacks who had murdered the officials were duly executed. The blacks no longer seem to think that England sides with them against the colonials and if they can join the various tribes together, which begins to look probable, there is likely to follow a bloody conflict.

There are six stakes, all well filled with from 15 to 20 entries each, insuring large fields, among them a bunch of fast ones from the States. Fare and a third on G. T. R. good from 27th to 30th.

DEATH OF MRS. GLAISTER.

At her late residence, just east of Crosshill, on Tuesday, June 19th, 1906, Isabella McWilliams, relict of the late John Glaister, aged 63 years, four months and three days.

Although Mrs. Glaister has been ill for the past year and for some time latterly quite low, yet her death was a surprise to the community where she has lived and been known so long. Born in Banffshire, Scotland, she came, when only five years old, with her parents to Canada, first settling in Woolwich township, but shortly afterwards removing to Berlin where she received her public and grammar school education. When about twenty years of age she was married to the late Mr. Glaister. They moved at once to the large Glaister farm, a mile or so east of Crosshill, where she has lived ever since. Her five children are all living in this vicinity, with the exception of John, who removed to Battisford, Sask., this spring. Dr. Wm. Glaister of this village being among the number. Deceased was a member of the Crosshill Presbyterian church. She was of a quiet lovable disposition, devoting her highest duties to home and its up-building. Her remains will be laid away to rest beside her husband, who died 23 years ago, in Rnsh's cemetery this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE POND EMPTIED.

In order to make repairs to the foundation of the flood-gates it was necessary to drain the Wellesley pond almost dry last week. The boys, backed by the Rod and Gun Club, took advantage of the occasion to make a systematic drag-net search for the big carp which have become so unpopular. The search revealed a big supply of cat-fish, suckers, etc., but less than half-a-dozen carp were landed. The pike and black bass which were put into the pond recently seem to be thriving, but none of the varieties of fish are multiplying as expected. This is probably because the use of the pond for water-power is destructive to the spawn, which is deposited near the shores and is ruined by the rising and falling of the water daily. A spawning ground may yet be devised in the upper reach of the pond which will remedy this difficulty.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The Wellesley roller mill has been put in thorough, up-to-date order this year. The latest addition to the mill is the installing of an electric light plant capable of supplying 125 incandescent lights of 16-candle power. The plant was put to work early last week and is giving very gratifying results. The Milling Co. has expressed a willingness to enlarge their plant and wire up the entire village if profitable patronage is given. We are informed that contracts have been formed for 500 or more lights.

The Maple Leaf acknowledges complimentary tickets for the Monster demonstration in Tavistock on Dominion Day. Baseball, football, races, fancy dancing etc., are on the big program. The famous band of the 48th Highlanders, Toronto, are the leading musical attractions afternoon and evening. The public Library of that village have charge—and that means success.

EDUCATION.

What is the end and aim of all education? There are some, says H. Bernard "who seek to know only that they may know, and it is base curiosity; and some who wish to know only that they may be known, and it is base vanity; and some who wish to know only that they may sell their knowledge, and it is base covetousness. But there are some also, who wish to know that they may edify, and it is charity; and some who wish to know that they may be edified, and it is heavenly prudence." In other words, the object of education is neither for amusement, nor for bread, nor for fame, nor for controversy, nor for profit, but that we may know God here and glorify him forever in Heaven hereafter. Our own great verulam, Lord Bacon, has warned us that our studies are meant neither as a "couch on which to rest, nor a cloister in which to promenade alone, nor a tower from which to look down on others, nor as a fortress whence we may resist them, nor as a workshop for gain and merchandise, but as a rich armory and treasure-house for the glory of the Creator and the ennoblement of life."—Dean Farrow on Modern Education (Sermons and Addresses in America.)

I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.

STRASSER & CO

CLOTHIERS

WATERLOO,

NEWS NOTES.

The Misses Breithaupt, eldest daughters of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Breithaupt, Berlin, left last Thursday for Montreal, where they will embark on the "Tunisian" and cross the Atlantic to Europe, there to tour England, France, Germany, Belgium, and Switzerland during the next succeeding three or four months. The young ladies are joining Dr. Withrow's party of twenty friends. Mr. and Mrs. Breithaupt accompanied their daughters to see them fairly started on their journey.

With startling suddenness came the death of Mr. James Johnston, Township clerk of Carrick, at Midway, on Wednesday evening of last week. Deceased had been in his usual state of health until Tuesday morning, when he took a sick spell, but even this did not entirely incapacitate him from attending to his duties. In the evening, however, while engaged in family worship, about nine o'clock, he suddenly fell forward, and expired almost immediately. Needless to say his death leaves a vacancy in the town and township, which will be very difficult to fill. Mr. Johnston was 64 years, 7 months and 15 days old, and leaves a widow, five sons, George at Toronto, James in British Columbia, William and John A. (editor of the Midway Gazette) at Midway, Charles, Civil Engineer at Wahnapitae, and one daughter, Mrs. J. H. Biehl, at Gore Bay.

Mrs. Hannah R. Gould, of lot 16, concession 14, East Terra, died on Thursday morning of last week. She was found dead in her bed. The evening before she had entertained some company and had retired in the very best of health. Death is attributed to heart failure.

The Galt Reporter relates a tragic story about a Glenmorris cat that sacrificed its life to save the family from a horrible death. A few evenings ago one of the inmates of the house read aloud from a newspaper an item pointing out that certain fish, particularly suckers, were poisonous and unfit for use. The cat was an attentive listener, and when a day later, the head of the family brought home two fine suckers he had fished out of the Grand River, and had prepared them for the frying pan, the faithful house cat suddenly recalled the newspaper article and resolved to save the family at all hazards. A few minutes later the fish were missed and the cat was found in the last throes of a horrifying struggle for life. Yes, suckers are not good for food, at least Grand Valley suckers are not good for Glenmorris cats.

The mistake of his tailor has cost Mr. R. King Farrow, of Ottawa, formerly of Stratford, $62. Mr. Farrow went to the Dominion Methodist picnic at Cryler on Saturday and had his wad in the pocket of a new summer suit he had just received from his tailor. Towards evening he missed his roll and on investigating found that the tailor had neglected to sew up the bottom of his pocket.

By a miracle only Mr. W. R. Cowley, of Laurier-st., Stratford, escaped being mangled to death last week. He with William Hill and another man, were working on the house of Fred Brown, on Dowdle and were operating in the triangle of the gable. Cowley stepped out on a board projecting from the interior of the building and it overbalanced and shot both himself and Hill down. Hill managed to cling to the building, but Cowley fell 30 ft to the ground amongst the rocks there. He received various injuries. A cheek bone was smashed as well as his left ankle, whilst he was generally shaken up. Cowley also suffered from cut over the eye and mouth. He was picked up and taken into the house next door, and a doctor sent for. The injured man was afterwards taken home, where he will remain it is feared for some weeks before his painful injuries are healed.

The Maple Leaf gives all the home news.

THE BOWLER'S WIFE.

Since our Jim joined the bootin' green
 He canna rest at night,
 He gibbles gabbles through his sleep
 Free darknin' till daylight.
 He'll start and fling his arms about,
 An' shout, "No, there's a ditcher,
 Before the echo does away."
 "Comfound it a', a ditcher."
 "I have it; oh! I have it."
 Neist he's ridin' up the green,
 And kicks the claes off—"Oh! I've missed
 The jock, why, bless my e'en!"
 He gabbles on, quite School Board
 Like,
 O' free hand, back hand, drawin'
 I'd like to see his hand less free
 An' 'blessed gainst the lawin'.
 An' just a thoctie less back hand
 When pay day comes about,
 An' leave the boots as night a week
 To tak' a body out.
 Their tournaments are juist hum-
 bing
 To keep us quiet at hame,
 W' visions o' a brow new dress
 If Jim should win the game.
 But waur than a', he mumbles drop'—
 It's queer hoo things should alip
 See—
 Something about "Kissing Katie,"
 I'll kiss her—oh! the gipey.
 But I'll be alee an' thole a wee,
 Till hooceels whaur she lingers
 Then kaim the cuttie's hair in style
 W' my tem' yunkie fingers.
 An' if I spared anither year,
 As sure as aye I'll remember.
 The dell a booi our Jim'll throw
 Unless I'm made a member.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who has suffered quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well! For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.

In the July Delinicator is begun a new novel by C. N. and A. M. Williamson, authors of "The Lightning Conductor." "The Chautau and the Chaplain," which is the title of the new story, promises to be the brightest, cleverest piece of fiction that the two famous authors of motor stories have ever written. Of the several groups of collaborators who have won success in large measure, none is more interesting than the two Williamsons. Before their marriage Mr. Williamson was an editor of renown. Mrs. Williamson employed her time in devising countless romances for the better class of English papers. It is said that she could turn out a story of any length, built around any given plot, in a stated number of hours. Their methods of work are interesting. Between them, it is understood, they devise the plots of their stories, while Mrs. Williamson supplies the dialogue, and Mr. Williamson the facts and data. It is one of their literary traits to write their experiences into their books, and their story which begins in the July Delinicator is the direct result of a tour of Holland, that the authors recently made in a motor boat.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be dependent upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs, of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.
