

High Rates.

At a meeting of prominent bankers and other leading financial men of Canada, which was held in the city of Montreal, the General Manager of one of our larger Banks made the following remarks regarding the taking of deposits by Loan Companies and life corporations: "Such corporations unquestionably serve a useful purpose, & but it is a distinct mistake to our country that, concerns making this class of investments are allowed to receive deposits payable on demand or on short notice. This is fully borne out by the unfortunate experience of Canadian depositors with loan companies and private bankers during the past few years. You are all aware that it is the poor and those who can least afford to lose money who always suffer from loan companies and other financial failures. They are attracted by the financial rates of interest, personal attachments and other inducements; and the wisdom of allowing these corporations to accept deposits from the people is, I think open to criticism."

We pay the HIGHEST RATE OF INTEREST consistent with absolute security and stability. Interest allowed from date of deposit to date of withdrawal.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

One week from to-day and to-morrow—September 13th and 14th—Wellesley expects to hold its biggest and most attractive Fall Show. Preparations are about completed, both in the grounds and building, by the enterprising directors. From the entries already in and the talk of the public the crowd will likely be a record smasher this year. The march and drill of the school children will be a specially attractive feature this year.

It is not always the biggest towns that turn out the best lawn bowling teams. Already Hespeler has given Berlin a couple of trouncings this year while Wellesley has taken both Stratford and Waterloo into camp and we're looking for Berlin and Galt scalp before the season closes.

There is (or need to be) a law which permitted any one to drive animals from the public highway to the pound and get one-half the fine for their trouble. Would it not have a good effect if the same sort of a law was applied for the checking of the automobile "scorching" habit which is now prevalent. It may be pleasurable to the chauffeur to say "I came from Widdleton to Waddleton—which is 18 miles, you know—in exactly 41 minutes" but it is anything but pleasurable to the pedestrians and rigs which have to scurry into fence-corners and lanes along the road to escape with their lives from the flying horror.

The Cuban insurrection is taking on a more serious phase and the local authorities may be unable to quell it without outside help. If the United States is called upon to restore peace it will give that country an opportunity to formally annex the island for their trouble. It would not be the first time in history that such a course was followed.

Linwood is certainly enjoying a boom as the result of getting the railway to that village. Fifteen or twenty new buildings, including some fine business blocks are going up, while a grist mill and elevator are confidently looked for in the near future. When the shipping of live stock from that point is established the village will cater to much wider farm trade than at present.

Edna Meyers, the ten-year old daughter of Mr. Meyers, Ryckman's Corners near Hamilton, met with a terrible accident on Saturday afternoon. She was playing in the barn, when her hair was caught by the shaft of the windmill. Her entire scalp from the nape of the neck to the forehead and a large piece of skin on the cheek was torn off. About ten o'clock she was put on the operating table, and doctors worked over her for three hours. The father of the unfortunate girl was present, and skin was taken from his arm to graft on his daughter's head. Several patients in the hospital willingly allowed the doctors to take skin from their arms as well for that purpose. Doctors have some hope that the skin may graft over her head, and that she will recover. Over a year ago Miss Olive Clegg of Hamilton, met with a similar accident.

Eczema.

For the good of those suffering with eczema or other such trouble, I wish to say, my wife had something of that kind and after using the doctors' remedies for some time concluded to try Chamberlain's Salve, and it proved to be better than anything else she tried. For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley, Ont.

Remedy for Diarrhoea, Never Known to Fail.

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York Co. and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I cannot say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world." S. S. Jemison, Spring Grove, York County, E. I. This remedy is for sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist Wellesley, Ont.

On Labor Day the Wellesley bowling green was the scene of a very spirited contest between two rinks of the Waterloo club and several combinations of locals. The genial visitors made themselves very popular here by their gentlemanly, jovial conduct, and they came in for the lion's share of applause from the large gathering of lady and gentleman spectators. In the six contests Wellesley played as many new players in the rinks as could be gathered, and the "colts" gave a very creditable account of themselves. The weather was fine and the sport was very enjoyable.

REV. D. LACHNER DEAD.
A telegram was received here on Monday announcing the death of Rev. D. Lachner, which had occurred early on Sunday morning. He was pastor of the Miss Lutheran church here for eleven years, removing to charge near Sherwood, Ohio last February. But he failed in health almost at once and was only able to preach once to his new charge. Mrs. Lachner and her estimable family have the profound sympathy of a large circle of warm friends in Wellesley.
Among those from here who are or have been at the Toronto Fair since our last issue are: Messrs W. W. Cloghorn, Albert Meiner, A. J. Sander, H. K. Forler, Will Forler, Ed. Albrecht, W. Kelterborn, A. Barscht, H. Neeh, Geo. Belling, Chris. Bergman, Ed. Spahr, Mrs. John Spahr, Miss Ina Belling, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald and others.
Remember the grand concert on the evening of the second day of the Wellesley Fall Show. Splendid outside talent has been secured and a grand treat is before all who attend. See program. Plan of hall at post office.
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Borey, Better Than Three Doctors.
"Three years ago we had three doctors with our little boy and everything that they could do seemed in vain. At last when all hope seemed to be gone we began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Borey and in a few hours he began to improve. Today he is as healthy a child as parents could wish for."—Mrs. B. J. Johnstone, Linton, Miss. For sale by A. J. Sanders, druggist.

THE HELL-BOUND TRAIN.

(From an exchange.)

Tom Gray lay down on the barroom floor, Having drank so much he could drink no more.
So he fell asleep with a troubled brain,
And dreamed that he rode on a hell-bound train.

The engine with blood was red and damp,
And brilliantly lit with a brimstone lamp;
For fuel an imp was shovelling bones, While the furnace rang with a thousand groans.

The boiler was filled with lager beer,
And the devil himself was the engineer.
The passengers made such a motley crew—Church member, atheist, Gentile and Jew;

Rich men in broadcloth and beggars in rags; Handsome young ladies and withered old hags;
Yellow and black men, red, brown and white—All chained together! What a terrible sight!

The train dashed on at an awful pace,
And a hot wind scorched the hands and face.
Wild and wilder the country grew,
And faster and faster the engine flew.

Louder and louder the thunders crashed,
And brighter and brighter the lightnings flashed.
Hotter and hotter the air became, Till the clothes were burned from each quivering frame.

Now in the distance there arose such a yell—
"Ha, ha!" laughed the devil, "we're now nearing hell!"
Then—oh, how the passengers shrank in their pain, And begged for the devil to stop the train;

But he capered about and sang in his glee,
And laughed and joked at their agony.
"My faithful friends, you have done my work,
And the devil can never a pay-day shirk."

You have bullied the weak and robbed the poor, And the starving brother turned from your door; You have laid up gold where the canker rusts,
And given free vent to your fleshly lusts;

You have justice scorned, and corruption sown,
And trampled the laws of nature down.
You have drank and rioted, murdered and lied,
And mocked at God in your hell-born pride.

You have paid full fare, so I'll carry you through.
For it's only just you should get your due.
The laborer always expects his hire, So I'll land you safe in the lake of fire.

Where your flesh shall roast in the flames that roar,
And my imp torment you forever more!"
Then Tom awoke with an agonized cry, His clothes soaked with sweat and his hair standing high.

And he prayed as he never prayed before,
To be saved from drink and the devil's power,
And his vows and prayers were not in vain, For he never more rode on a hell-bound train.

NEWS NOTES.

Mr. E. R. Riener, Berlin, last week disposed of the tailor business established and carried on by his father, the late M. Riener, for thirty years. The purchaser was a gentleman out of town and he has removed the stock. Mr. Riener has several propositions before him.

The death occurred at the hospital, Galt last Wednesday of Mrs.
Geo. Moog, who was struck by the G. T. R., at the crossing on the stone road, north of Galt, while crossing the tracks. There can be no blame attached to the railway company. The woman was walking on the track and the engineer blew the whistle a considerable time before the train overtook her, but she paid no attention. It was impossible to slow up and avoid the casualty. The unfortunate woman was thrown 20 feet from the track.

The train stopped and she was picked up unconscious. Those who knew her, say she was not deaf, and this adds a shade of mystery to the fatality, which possibly the coroner's inquest, that will be held, may clear up.

The Smith's Falls News has an editor who went to church some time ago and listened to a very good sermon, as sermons go. "We enjoyed the singing and stood up with the brethren and sisters while they sang the good old hymn, 'Shall We Know Each Other There?'" While the hymn was being sung we glanced about us and counted abut a dozen members of the congregation and of the church who do not speak to each other when they meet on the street, or elsewhere.
The thought occurred to us, why should they 'know each other there' when they seemingly don't know each other here?"

On Monday, a Gordon printing press, on the railway platform for several hours at Cobolt, until a team could be got to convey it to the printing office, was the subject for much comment. It was surprising how few people knew what it was. One man thought it was a machine for use in the Chinese laundry. We sat silently listening to the various remarks made, until one tender-foot, explaining to his friend, in the most confidential manner, that it was a diamond drill, and then we thought it was time to enter a protest, on the part of the Gordon.

Had an Awful Time.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.
It is with pleasure I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.

The Victoria Cross

For Valor In Ten Colors

Weekly Mail and Empire

For News 24 Pages

THIS picture shown is one dear to every man, woman, boy and girl, on account of its meaning—"The Victorian Cross" (The Victoria Cross) is a symbol of valor.

the soil of South Africa could voice the deeds performed upon it, how many Victoria Crosses would have been found to have been earned by Canada's sons! It is hard in the heat of action to notice every act of valor, and therefore only those which take place under the eye of superiors of sufficient rank can be noted.

The picture shows one of such deeds. Two troopers are closely pressed by the enemy. The horse of one is hit.
Under the withering fire, the man whose mount is unharned halts, and, risking everything, waits to get his comrade safely mounted behind him and carry him back to the Canadian lines. It is a desperate deed, and one often performed but seldom noticed. When, however, such an act is seen, the reward dear to soldiers' hearts above every other is the result.

This picture is from the brush of Mr. W. B. Wollen, an artist famed for his war pictures, one whose work appears all the leading illustrated periodicals of the Empire. It is a forcible subject from the hand of a strong man.
