At a meeting of prominent bankers and other leading financial men of Canada, which was held in the city of Montreal, the General Manager of one of our larger Banks made the following remarks regarding the taking of deposits by Loan Companies and life corporations: "Such corporations unquestionably serve a useful purpose, and it is a distinct menace to our country that encourages making this class of investments are allowed to receive deposits payable on demand or on short notice. This is fully borne out by the unfortunate experiences of Canadian depositors with loan companies and private banks during the past few years. These banks are all aware that it is the poor and those who can least afford to lose money who always suffer from loan company and other financial failures. They are attracted by high rates of interest, personal attentions and other inducements; and the wisdom of allowing these corporations to accept deposits from the people, I think, open for criticism."

Guelph, Ont., Sept. 7.—Mr. John Murie, one of the best known residents of the township of Pilkington, near Elora, was found dead beside a plow yesterday. Mr. Murie had not been in good health for some time past. He was engaged at plowing, and was in the house a little before 11 o'clock. Some time after, as he had not come in to dinner, Mrs. Murie went out to see what was detaining him. She found the team standing in the field and Mr. Murie lying dead, the reins in his hands.

The little three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Wm. Christie, Ingersoll set herself on fire with matches the other day while her mother was upstairs dressing to go down town and was fatally burned, dying in agony a few hours later. The mother's hands and arms were severely burned in extinguishing the flames when she was attracted by the child's screams.

DR. WHITEMAN HONORED.

Shakespeare, Aug. 30.—About fifty of the most intimate friends of Dr. Whiteman assembled at the residence of Mr. James Whiteman on Wednesday evening, Aug. 29th, for the purpose of bidding Dr. Whiteman and his daughter Mable farewell, prior to their departure for their future home in Berlin, the rest of the family having left a few days before. Owing to the doctor's recent severe illness from which he has not yet recovered, but is improving every day, the affair was not as public as we would have liked. It would be too trying on the doctor's system.

Mr. Joseph Thompson made a few remarks, after which Rev. P. J. McLaren gave a very appropriate address. He spoke of the thirty-two long years the doctor had been practicing in our town, and of his having been our public school teacher before that. He is a person who will be very much missed by the whole community, far and near, where he has been so widely known. He was ever ready, no matter what kind of weather, no matter what hour of the night, to start out on his long trips, and did it cheerfully. He was always at his post. Dr. Whiteman was the mainstay of the Presbyterian church, always ready to give liberally whenever needed, one of our most prominent in politics or anything in the social line. He was the first man to step forward and in losing the doctor and his family we lose some of our best citizens. Mrs. Whiteman will be greatly missed in church work and social circles of all kind. She was president of the Ladies' Aid, and was always at the head of anything there was to be done in the church and Sunday School and her house was always open and ready for any entertainment in that line. She spared no pains in trying to make things pass off successfully. Mr. McLaren asked the doctor to accept the small tokens of love and esteem from his many friends and hoped that God would spare him many more years of usefulness in his profession.

Mr. Sebastian Fryfogel then presented him with a handsome gold headed ebony cane, purchased at J. Welsh & Sons, Stratford. Mr. James Kiddell, presented the handsome plush Morris chair. The Dr. who was taken completely by surprise, thanked the donors for their valuable gifts in a very touching manner and for their expressions of confidence and esteem, a very pleasant time was spent in social chat. Miss Mabel Whiteman and Ethel Whiteman gave a few selections on the piano in their pleasing manner. Dr. Whiteman and fam-

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." THE BETTER THINGS OF LIFE.

Tis better to speak kindly words,
"Tis better to do kindly deeds,
"Tis better to know
That the seeds you may sow
Will blossom as flowers, not weeds.
Tis better to do with a will
The duties that come one by one;
"Tis better to say
At the close of the day:
"I have tried to leave nothing undone."
Tis better to cultivate love,
Contented with blessings of worth;
"Tis better to fight
For the cause that is right
Than to covet the riches of earth.
Tis better to smile, tho' the heart
Be burdened with sorrow and pain;
"Tis better to smile,
For 'tis always worth while
And we'll never pass this way again.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bros., Greenville, Ala.—This remedy is for sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist Wellesley Ont.

The Victoria Cross

For Valor In Ten Colors

Weekly Mail and Empire

For News 24 Pages

THE picture shown is one dear to every man, woman, boy and girl, on account of its meaning—"The Victoria Cross," given for conspicuous bravery. If only the soil of South Africa could voice the deeds performed upon it, how many Victoria Crosses would have been found to have been earned by Canada's sons! It is hard in the heat of action to notice every act of valor, and therefore only those which take place under the eye of superiors of sufficient rank can be noted.
The picture shows one of such deeds. Two troopers are closely pressed by the enemy. The horse of one is hit. Under the withering fire, the man whose mount is unharnessed halts, and, risking everything, waits to get his comrade safely mounted behind him and carry him back to the Canadian lines. It is a desperate deed, and one often performed but seldom noticed. When, however, such an act is seen, the reward dear to soldiers' hearts above every other is the result.

This picture is from the brush of Mr. W. B. Wollen, an artist famed for his war pictures, one whose work appears in all the leading illustrated periodicals of the Empire. It is a forceful subject from the hand of a strong man.
