The Berlin Business College is enjoying a splendid attendance. One hundred and thirty six students have entered the various departments since September and new students are entering every week. It is a good school.

The public will regret to learn that Mr. John Sphar, who has carried on a successful mercantile business here for the past year, has decided to close out in a few months and move to the west. His large advertisement announcing this fact appears on the last page of this issue.

Mr. John Hill, of Canboro, spent the fore part of this week in Wellesley, being called here by the death of Mr. Fleischbauer. He is enthusiastic over the farming possibilities of the section in which he now lives, and where he owns and operates a 400 acre farm.

Some more improvements are required at Graham's flats before that boundary road is in really good condition. A couple of hills just west require to be cut down several feet and the earth used to widen the embankment and fill the wash approach to the flats. The work would cost four or five hundred dollars, but if divided between the townships and counties, the expense would scarcely be felt. At present the road is "illegal" and dangerous.

ST. CLEMENTS.

Concluded from First Page.

Death of Mr. Otto Fleischbauer.

Shortly before two o'clock last Friday afternoon Mr. Otto Fleischbauer, one of Wellesley's honored residents, passed away at his home in this village. For several years he has been troubled with a stomach disorder and was operated upon about three years ago, without success. Gradually he grew worse until a few months ago when he was confined to the house and his bed. As a last resort a specialist was called in and last week an operation was performed which seemed for a time to succeed, but after a day or two he sank until the end came peacefully. The funeral occurred on Monday, the attendance being immense in spite of the severe snowstorm. After a short service at the home the large cortege proceeded to the Lishon church where service was held and the remains were taken to the Stratford cemetery and laid away to rest. Christian, John, George, Adam, Louis, and Jacob Fleischbauer, brothers of the deceased, acted as pall bearers. Among the relatives from a distance gathered at the house were: Messrs John Hill, Canboro; John Katz, Caledonia; Dr. Schneider, Buffalo; Jacob Schneider, Plattville; John Schneider, Moorefield; Jacob Schmidt, Wilnot, and others. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, showing the high respect in which the late Mr. Fleischbauer was held and the deep sympathy felt by all for the bereaved family.

Deceased was a man of high integrity, generous impulses and deep Christian principles. By his personal thrift and energetic business qualities he has gathered together an ample competency and leaves his family in comfortable circumstances. Born on the family homestead, a few miles west of Waterloo, at the Wilnot boundary in Upper street, on Nov. 17th, 1848, he was one of a family of eleven children, and moved with the family, when nine years old, to lot 22, con. 10, North Easthope, where the family resided for many years. He went to school for one winter in Waterloo, and afterwards at Hampden for several winters while helping his father to clear and work the farm. In 1865 he hired to the late Mr. Henry Katz, in Gadschill, where he worked in the saw mill for four years, then (in March 1869) he took his first contract, sawing successfully for several years for lumbermen, of those early days, including the now famous "Gadschill" and Fred Beck, and others until October, 1877, when he bought a farm in Milverton, which he worked for several years. In '84 he bought the Gadschill saw mill from his brother, George, and operated it successfully for ten years when he sold it and moved to Stratford, in Jan. 1895. There he bought the Lebschman-Mundrell lumber business and conducted it until Feb. 1900, when he transferred it to his son, Norman, and removed to Wellesley, where he then entered the saw-milling business with his son-in-law, Mr. E. E. Katz, in which he was actively engaged until illness prevented him a few months ago.

On Jan. 4th, 1870, he was married to Miss Mary Ann Schneider, of Wilnot. To them were born five children: Norman, in Stratford; Clara, (Mrs. E. E. Katz), Annie, Adeline, at home, and Edna, attending school in Hamilton. Mrs. Fleischbauer resided him to the grave, passing away in Sept. 1898.

THE PITTSBURG ORCHESTRA

WILL VISIT BERLIN THIS MONTH.

The Pittsburgh Orchestra, perhaps the greatest permanent orchestra in America, will make a tour of Canada towards the end of this month and Berlin is selected as one of the few places in which the orchestra will perform outside the big cities. Berlin's date being Saturday, Jan. 26th. The Canadian Club in Pittsburg recently held the annual banquet at which Robert F. Sutherland, Speaker of the Dominion House, was the principal guest. The Pittsburgh "Leader" in referring to his speech said: "He gave a splendid tribute to the Pittsburgh orchestra." He spoke of the season in which the orchestra was held in Canada, especially in Toronto where for several years the annual season of concerts in connection with the Mendelssohn Choir of that city was admitted to be the most important musical event of the year in Canada. He pronounced the Pittsburgh Orchestra "the finest in the world, and said that Canada was proud of such an artistic partnership as Pittsburgh provided. The date for Berlin is Saturday, Jan. 26.
