Do Not Crowd the Season.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Cold at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. FROM CALEDONIA DISTRICT.

HALDIMAND COUNTY A GOOD PLACE TO BUY CHEAP FARMS.

Onshore, Ont., March 17, 1907
EDITOR MAPLE LEAF.—In response to your own request added to that of so many of my friends and former neighbors in and around Wellesley I am sending just a few lines about our country down here. There is an impression around Wellesley that because the land around here is so cheap therefore the soil must be poor. But that is a mistake. First, the 'lay' of our land is just as nice as it is in the Wellesley District; well it is clay loam and workable. The enormous amount of hay which is being shipped from Canboro is proof that our land is good; our buyer has shipped from the Canfield, Canfield Junction and Caledonia stations 10,000 tons of hay and it is still shipping right along. We raise wheat, barley, oats, hay, corn, peas, roots and all kinds of fruit (we are only about 13 miles from the great fruit country near Grimsby). I think we have as good a market as there is in Ontario. Most of our produce goes to Hamilton, Niagara Falls and a lot to Buffalo. Our farmers are taking things very easy—too easy or they would make more money. I am told by a minister that there are fewer farms mortgaged in Onshore than any other township in Ontario. But the farmers here are not keeping their land in shape as they do in Waterloo county, and that is one of the main reasons our land is so cheap. In fact many of our farmers do not come to farm at all, more so the young generation who prefer to go to the larger cities. When Mr. J. G. Reimer was here a year or two ago he asked a farmer why such good land was selling so cheap, and the farmer replied "It is not the land; it is the farmers." I think the farmer told the truth.

I have often wished that some of our farmers in Waterloo county—especially young men who want to start farming, would come over and see some of the farms that are offered for sale at the present time right around me. It would certainly surprise them. For instance: the farm adjoining ours has about 185 acres with dwelling alone worth $1000, nicely situated, for $3,000; another about half a mile off, 215 acres, good bush, good buildings, nicely situated, for $5,000; another farm situated to be the best in the township (this to close an estate) 735 acres, good buildings, two dwellings, 25 acres in flat wheat and 22 acres in ryegrass and black sand, for $3,000; then there are a lot of 100 acre farms from about $2,000 to $3,500 some of these are to be sold in closing up estates. We all expect land here is going to raise in price as there are a lot of public improvements going on such as the power line, electric roads and the rural telephone which nearly every farmer is getting around here.

If there are any who would like to see our country and have a look at some of these farms I will be pleased to give any information I can or meet them at Canfield station and show them around.

Yours truly
JOHN HILL,

A TRIP TO CALIFORNIA.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM DEPUTY SHERIFF HUBBARD.

I left Heidelberg for Waterloo on Feb. 8th and the next morning, together with my brother Christopher and Mr. Heller went to Galt on the trolley and spent an hour or two looking up friends among whom were county sheriffs Jaffray, Cowan, Mandy, Allison and others.

We left Galt on the C. P. R. at 11 o'clock for Sunny California. In passing through Kent and Essex counties we were much interested in the large public drains which tend to greatly improve that country. They looked to be much more costly than the George Brunner drain. Arrived at Detroit in the evening and remained three days. I called on two of my former apprentices C. Miller and C. Allmang, both of whom are doing well, and also on several other friends, among them Jacob Huchengard, well known in Wellesley village and Waterloo county. So many of our people visit Detroit that I need not describe the city.

Late on Tuesday night, Feb 12 h we were en route for Chicago and next day we were established at the Hotel Kaiser. In Chicago we called on Louis Hergott (son of Elias Hergott from near St. Clements). He conducts a large wagonshop and blacksmithing business. Here we met an old friend, Mr. Hall, who made many enquiries about St. Clements and vicinity and expressed a strong desire to see his old home again. We made a trip to the stock yards, but a detailed account of the work such as the killing and dressing of 12 hogs in one minute, would more than fill the paper. We spent the rest of our time in Chicago looking up other points of interest.

At midnight we boarded the cars for Kansas City, arriving there at 5 p.m. next day, where changed for Pueblo which city we reached after another 23-hour ride. Between Kansas City and Pueblo are thousands of acres of uncultivated lands. The parts where water is to be had are used for pasturage, but we saw where numbers of horses and cattle had strayed from the herd and perished for lack of water. We spent five days in Pueblo with our brother who has been in that city for ten years. During our stay there we took a side trip to Colorado springs and Manitou. The latter place is situated in the mountains and we engaged a carriage to take us to see the sights, the point of most interest was the "Cave of the Winds," which is over three miles from Manitou. The road leads upward from through narrow canyons with rocks from 500 to 800 feet high on either side. Before we had gone far we found ourselves looking over precipices of a like height, and we followed this canyon road till we had reached an elevation 10,000 feet when we found the cave. EDITORIAL NOTES.

No less than eight members of the Senate and Dominion Parliament have died since the opening of the present session.

The hockey playing is now over for the season. All that is left of it is some kicking at the incompetent O.H.A. officials and one or two manslaughter trials.

The Berlin Board of Trade has decided to give every support possible to the C.N. Railway promoters, as they think that road is more likely to connect the County Town and Wellesley than the slow moving C. P. R.

Hon. Adam Beck is finding out that his work on the Niagara Power question is about as strenuous as that of the hockey player. He has a good cause in saving Niagara Power for Canadians and he is put up 'the fight of his life.'

The Auditors' report, soon to be issued, is a gratifying compliment to the financial abilities of Reece Robertson and his last year's council. They raised about $1,000 more than usual for township purposes, but with the money they did the necessary public work, besides paying up about $2,000 of debts, and left as much surplus in the treasury as they had when they took office.

Frozen private drains in the village are causing much annoyance and expense these spring-like days. The Maple Leaf has frequently suggested that the construction of a large drain down the centre of the street, into which private cellar drains could be given an outlet, would be much cheaper in the end, while keeping the street cleaner and making the road bed more lasting. The natural fall of the land upon which Wellesley is built to the mill-pond makes this scheme a quiet feasible.

The newly organized Wellesley Board of Trade, if properly conducted, ought to be a power for good. It is based upon the Dominion Act, and will be conducted the same as other Boards of Trade except that for the present it does not seek incorporation. The intention is to have its influence for good extended over the entire 'Wellesley District' so that unity of effort and thorough discussion may be brought to bear upon all public local improvements. To this end all are invited to become members. Frequent general meetings will be held and the regular meetings of its council will be open to all members. Hitherto the Wellesley District has been badly handicapped by reason of the fact that it is situated in different counties and townships so that when railroad or other matters come up the hastily formed special committees found their work very cumbersome. In view of the fact that the G. T. R. Co. is considering the matter of building a new railway line from Baden to Wellesley the new Board of Trade may find some very important work to do at an early date.

Now that the Dominion parliament has decided that Hon. Chas. Hyman has not resigned his seat there is a good opportunity for him to do so and the Globe thinks he ought to. But most of us sympathize with the position of a man who is able to back in the glorious pleasures of a California sea-side resort on a salary of $2,000, instead of having to face the chilling political storm in London.

dollar, and after viewing it's wonders, thought it well worth the price. We spent fully half an hour inside this dark dungeon. Diamond Hall and Crystal Palace are its attractive features, and their walls and ceilings are hung with festoons of silver and adorned with flower-like decorations more beautiful than human handwork. Language fails to describe the natural wonders of this cave. The Garden of the Gods, also at Manitou, is also very picturesque and should not be missed by any tourist.

Pueblo is a great railway center and is noted for its two large steel plants, one of which employs ten thousand men. There is also a zinc smelter and through the kindness of a friend we had the privilege of going through it. Its capacity is six car loads per twenty-four hours. The superintendent (whom we met) is a Canadian, and like most of his countrymen very pleasant and friendly.

We left Pueblo on the 21st at noon for Salt Lake City, arriving there next day at 1 p. m. Here we spent twenty-four hours and visited the Mormon tabernacle with its seating capacity of 12,000. This tabernacle contains the largest organ in America, which every Sunday accompanies a choir of 300 voices. The temple is even larger than the tabernacle but is not open to visitors and only to those Mormons who live up strictly to the faith. There are a number of small or buildings where services are held in foreign languages. All the buildings cover about ten acres of ground and enclosed by a decorated wall ten or twelve feet high. The grounds are nicely laid out with walks, drives, flower beds and shade trees. We found the Mormons on the whole a very pleasant people and ready to talk with strangers on any subject except their family affairs or the number of their wives, about which outsiders are naturally a little curious. We also visited the Salt Lake chamber of commerce where samples of Utah fruits and minerals are on exhibition.

We started on the 22d for Sacramento, California, arriving at seven next day. At the request of Mrs. Hahn, of Heidelberg, we called on Mr. Michael Goward, a harness maker by trade, who had many years ago also worked in Wellesley village. He spent half a day with us showing us many points of interest, one of which was the Capitol building, corresponding to our parliament buildings in Toronto. Most of the city streets are beautified with palms and a few orange trees are in evidence—the first we had seen. The weather was a contrast to what we had left at Heidelberg,—real summer—70° in the shade.

We left for Oakland, a distance of 75 miles, at 2 p. m., crossing the Sacramento on one of the largest ferry boats in America, which carried our whole train and had no accommodation for three others. Arriving at Oakland at 5 p. m., we looked up quarters and found the Waldorf very satisfactory.

On Monday we crossed to San Francisco by ferry and found our selves in the city so lately ruined by earthquake and fire.

(The balance of Mr. Hahn's letter, giving a vivid description of all additional scenes and experiences, will be given in next week's issue of the Maple Leaf.)

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Pleasant and Effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, cold and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Felham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by A. J. Saunders, druggist, Wellesley.
