EDITORIAL NOTES.

There are but few who do the thinking of mankind, and the great masses are led by the few sometimes in the right, sometimes in the wrong direction. It matters little whether this is to be regretted or not, it remains a fact that must be faced. Yet this state of things makes every independent thinker the more valuable. Every man who is an independent thinker is a power in his sphere, and will contribute a share to further evolution of thought in humanity.—Dr. Paul Carus.

The financial panic in the United States has been quelled by the announcement of Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou to the effect that the government would issue Panama Canal bonds to the extent of $50,000,000, and also 3 per cent interest bearing Government certificates for 100,000,000 if necessary. This action by the government will no doubt be appreciated by financial and banking institutions.

In the Caledon wreck trial a few days ago the jury brought in a verdict of "Not Guilty" and both conductor and engineer were discharged. The verdict was a popular one and will no doubt meet with the general approval of the people of the province. But the question arises "If these men were not guilty of negligence, who was? Certainly some one, and the matter should not be allowed to rest with the acquittal of these men. If the rails were defective at this point, and of such proportions as to be a menace to the safety of the travelling public, surely some one is to blame. It would appear that insufficient care is exercised by those in authority in having their roadbeds in safe condition and in the manipulation of their rolling stock, and it is safe to say that more accidents occur from such indifference than from negligence on the part of engineers and conductors, who generally have to bear the brunt of investigation.

The Thorold fire hall was badly damaged by fire a few days ago. This was probably due to the many hot shots fired at the fire fighting apparatus by local critics.

Although bullets were flying fast and furious, no one was hurt in a battle near Montreal between six armed desperadoes and an equal number of detectives a few days ago. It would be well, however, for Montreal detectives to take a little backyard target practice before sallying forth to deadly combat without superior numbers. They may not be so lucky in their next encounter.

Skating fiends are already tugging at the restraining bonds of fair weather, and numerous individuals, in their insane anxiety to skid o'er the glassy fields, are reaping the fruits of their rashness. While many of those immersed are escaping with a mere ducking, a few are meeting death in the icy waters. Skating at this time of the year is about as safe as living at the foot of Vesuvius—you never know what is going to happen.

SICK CHILDREN

For it Cares for Every Sick Child in Ontario whose Parents Cannot Afford to Pay For Treatment.

The Hospital for Sick Children, College Street, Toronto, appeals to the fathers and mothers of Ontario for funds to maintain the thousand sick children that it nurses within its walls every year.
The Hospital is not a local institution—but Provincial. The sick child from any place in Ontario who can't afford to pay has the same privileges as the child living in Toronto and is treated free.
The Hospital had last year in its beds and cots 761 patients, 267 of these were from 196 places outside of Toronto.
The cost is 95 cents per patient per day, and there were 129 sick little ones a day in the Hospital.

Let the money of the strong be mercy to the weak. The Hospital pays out dividends of health and happiness to suffering childhood on every dollar that is paid by the friends of little children.
If you know of any sick child in your neighborhood who is sick or crippled or has club foot send the parent's name to the Hospital.
See the example of what can be done for club-foot children. There were 14 like cases last year and hundreds in 25 years.

Please send contributions to J. B. Robertson, Chairman, or to Douglas Davidson, Sec. Treas., of The Hospital for Sick Children, College Street, Toronto.

At a largely attended meeting of the Women's Institute, held in their rooms a few days ago, Mrs. Truesler and Miss Annie L. Fleischhauer were appointed as delegates to attend the winter fair, which will be held at Guelph on Dec. 12.

The band concert on Friday evening last was a great success, and largely attended. The programme, a high class one of instrumental music, was admirably carried out under the able leadership of Bandmaster Ottmann. The selection by the young boys, who are being trained by the leader, was particularly acceptable, and was enthusiastically received by audience. The solos, duets, etc., were also well rendered, and came in for a good share of the applause. The proceeds of the concert amounted to between fifteen and sixteen dollars.

CANBORO FARMS SOLD—Within the past week four farms in the Canboro district have been sold to Wilmet men, the purchasers being Messrs. Wagner, of Phillipsburg, and Huehr, Hiltgartner and A. M. Zweller, of the vicinity of Wilmet Center. Mr. John Hill is rapidly gathering a large settlement of Waterloo friends around his new home at Canboro, and the fact that our best farmers are buying in that section is a pretty sure sign that the land there is first class when tilled in the Waterloo county style. Next week the MAPLE LEAF will publish a new list of snap bargains in farms now to be obtained in the Canboro neighborhood.

We regret to record in this weeks issue, the death of Barthel Wagner, which took place at his home here after an illness of only a couple of days duration. Deceased was born in Germany in 1827, and came to Canada when he was only 14 years of age. He settled with his parents at Berlets Corner, Wilmet township when that part of the country was covered with brush and in rough shape. He received his education at New Hamburg, after which he taught school for a period of about 19 years, teaching at Wilmet, Heidelberg, Wellesley, Phillipsburg and Bowmanville, Minn. Of late years he had not been engaged in any active work, and had been unwell at various times. A few days prior to his death he was taken ill with pleurisy and pneumonia and sank rapidly. The remains were interred in Wellesley cemetery on Sunday afternoon. Deceased was 80 years 7 months and 9 weeks old and leaves a wife and one daughter, who have the sympathy of the neighborhood.

SPLIT INK

Tom Mason, in an article instructing men how to bath babies impresses upon his readers the necessity of keeping the baby face down, when manipulating him. Otherwise, he says, you would not be able to put water anywhere else but in his mouth.

"Constant quibbling wears away a stone" might be altered to "constant nagging wears away a saint" for one sees some of the finest men in creation belittled, made into morose irritable creatures by a small tyrant wife.

A writer says it is an accepted fact that woman always loves the prodigal instead of the good young man who stays home when there is no Y. M. C. A. meeting. The young man doesn't look on the wine when it is red nor play battlelore and shuttlecock with the ten commandments: he comes to her immaculate and innocent—and she promptly labels him imbecile and insane, while she gathers the prodigal into her forgiving arms, wipes out his tears and checkered career with one sweep of her dainty handkerchief and tearfully tells him that while the lamp holds out to burn the lowliest sinner (of his sex) may return, that she (and her eyes shine with a holy light)—she will reform him.

Gambling destroys joy, peace, goodwill, health, morals and bank accounts. It makes a slave of the amateur and a social outcast of the professional gambler. So young chap, beware of the poker game when it looks good to you, for in the end it will put you on the hog, and shuffle the gray through your curly or straight hair. The old humbug, the Goddess of Chance, sits on her green throne while all around slaves can be seen going through their devotions by shooting craps, peeping at the hole cards, buying wheat on margin, calling the turn, drawing to bob-tails, tossing the cubes, drawing to 16, bucking the wheel or some of the other myriad ways in which man prays that he may cop the other chaps dough without losing his own. And all this while anxious mothers are pacing the floor and praying to God for their loved ones.

It takes money to run a newspaper says the St. John Kansas news; What an exaggeration, what a whopper. It has been disproved a thousand times; It is a case of fairy fancy. It doesn't take money to run a newspaper, it can run with out money. It is a charitable institution, a begging concern, a highway robber; the newspaper is a child of the air, a creature of a dream. It can go on and on when another concern would be in charge of a receiver and wound up with cobwebs in the window. It takes wind to run a newspaper; it takes gall to run a newspaper; it takes scintillating acrobatic imagination, and half a dozen white shirts and a railroad pass to run a newspaper. But money—who ever needed money in conducting a newspaper? Kind words are the medium of exchange that do the business for the editor, kind words and church societies' tickets. When you see an editor with money watch him; he'll be paying bills and disgracing his profession. Never give money to an editor. Make him trade it out. He likes to swap cordwood, cabbage eyewater, cork-plaster, old clothes and scrap-iron are all useful to him. Then when you die, after having stood around for years and sneered at the editor and his Jim Crow paper, be sure and have your wife send in for three extra copies by one of your weeping children and when she reads the generous and touching notice about you, forewarn her to pay the extra fifteen cents to the editor. It would overwhelm him. Money is a corrupt thing and the editor knows it and what he wants is your heart-felt thanks. Then he can thank the printers, and they can thank the grocers. Send your job work to some city office, and then come and ask for free pulls every time the baby cuts a tooth. Get your lodge letter heads and stationary printed out of town, and then flood the editor with resolutions and cards of thanks. They make such spicy readings and when you pick it up with these glowing and vivid mortuary articles, you are proud of your little paper. But money—scorn the filthy thing. Don't let the pure innocent editor know anything about it. Keep that for the scold trades-people who charge for their wares. The editor gives his bounty away. The Lord loves a cheerful giver. He'll take care of the editors. Don't worry about the editor. He has a character from the state to act as a door mat for the community. He'll get the paper out somehow; and stand by you when you run for office and he about your pigeon-toed daughter's lucky wedding, and blow about your hair footed sons when they get a $4.00 a week job, and weep over your shrivelled son when it is released from your grassing body and smiles at your giddy wife's second marriage. He'll get along. The Lord only knows how—But the editor will get there somehow.

On common fences the continuous wire stays are sure to bend and the locks to lose their grip under continual pressure of your horses or cattle. And once they do, the top wire, soon followed by those below, will sag and destroy the efficiency of your fence.

Nothing like that can happen to our Dillon Hinge-Stay Fence. The short, stiff hard steel wire in our hinge-stays cannot bend when the lateral wires are weighted down, owing to their being so short and joined at each strand wire.

Pressure of a horse on the top wire brings the "hinge" in the stays into action and prevents them from bending. And when pressure is relieved the fence springs back into place again.

The lateral wires are High-Carbon Hard Steel and coated to provide for expansion and contraction by heat and cold, and are also crimped at the intersection of the stays and strands to prevent the stays from slipping sideways—therefore no locks are needed.

Buy the Dillon Hinge-Stay Fence. It's "twice as strong." Twice as good an investment. Catalogue free.
