LINWOOD.

An old pioneer of Wellesley township passed away a week ago in the person of Patrick McCardle, of Linwood. The deceased old gentleman had been enjoying his usual good health up to about one week ago, when he suffered a slight attack of bronchitis to which he eventually succumbed.

Up to his last illness, he has scarcely ever been sick, had never worn a spectacle, and never smoked. The late Mr. McCardle was born at Castle Blaney, County Monaghan, Ireland, on Feb. 10th, 1818, and was thus in his ninetieth year. He, a weaver by trade, emigrated from Ireland when he was thirty-two, and for three years followed his craft as a spinner at Tottenham in Teinmash Township, then coming to Wellesley where he, along with the many pioneers of the blazed trails who have gone before, hewed out a farm on the ninth line, near Linwood. The deceased farmed the same farm for fifty-six years, then moved to Linwood where he has lived retired for the last nine years.

DISTRICT NOTES

The funeral of the late Miss Mary Proudfoot took place on Jan. 21st at the Union cemetery. Her remains were brought from Galt by G.T.R. to St. Jacobs, thence to Winterbourne for interment. Miss Proudfoot had been living in Galt since 1893 previous to which she lived with her sister Bella, who resided on the old Proudfoot homestead, Winterbourne, now occupied by Walter Veitch. Miss Proudfoot was 51 years of age. She was of a quiet and retiring disposition and was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. She leaves one sister, Bella to mourn her loss.—Berlin Telegraph.

Two Stratford policemen were called to settle a disturbance in a house on Saturday night last, and on regarding to the spot found a man cruelly beating his wife. The man was arrested and marched off to the coop, where he was given a chance during the night to repent. He was to have been brought up before the Police Magistrate on Monday morning, but that worthy official is still on the sick list, so that the husband still goes unpunished.

Another of Stratford's foremost businessmen and a great church and Y. M. C. A. worker is shortly to leave us in the person of Mr. A. Bushfield, manager of the Central furniture factory.

Mr. Bushfield has ever been an earnest worker in the congregation in his church and acting on the board of directors of the association for many years. His leaving the city will be greatly felt by all Y. M. C. A. workers.

Mr. Bushfield has ever been an earnest in the Listowel Furniture Company and will take the superintendency of the factory. He leaves the city to enter on his new work on Monday, Feb. 24th, and best wishes from his many friends go with him to the place of his occupation.—St. afford Herald.

Stratford, Feb. 17.—To be beneath the rails near the Grand Trunk station here while eight cars thundered by was the unique experience of Eli Dion, a 11-year-old lad of Penetance, who has recently been released from St. John's Industrial school, Toronto. He had been under a three-year sentence, but was released after having served two years and sent to a farm near Seaforth.

Becoming tired of the dull monotony of rural life he filled his knapsack and decamped via a Grand Trunk freight train. Arriving at Stratford the boy attempted to leave the train while it was moving by the station and in so doing fell underneath the cars. Conductor Hayne, who stood on the platform of the caboose, is authority for the statement that at least eight cars passed over the boy. When the tail end of the freight disappeared from view the precocious Eli slowly rose from his crouching position and with merely a sprained ankle made a hasty retreat.

He was captured by the station officials and arraigned in the police court on a charge of vagrancy. He was remanded to jail.

Mr. Arthur Jones, the popular day foreman at the Grand Trunk roundhouse, met with a serious accident on Friday evening last, a few minutes before the closing hour. Mr. Jones was superintending a piece of work when a pin, which a workman was driving with a sledge hammer, flew up and struck Mr. Jones with terrific force in the face. Mr. Jones' nose was broken and his face otherwise disfigured by the flying piece of iron. The workman made an inaccurate "strike," his hammer glancing off the head of the bolt, the pin becoming dislodged, thus causing it to fly upwards. Mr. Jones' face was painfully bruised.—Stratford Her.

COMMENTARY.

A friend in Winnipeg asks us why the Lords Day Alliance does not make an effort to stop the rates of interest and rents which never keep Sunday or pay title. We suppose in the rush to get everything in their bill of oppression, the alliance people have overlooked the ceaseless work of rents and interest. We respectfully draw their attention to the oversight, and suggest at the same time that they have all the clocks and watches stopped on Sunday, and if possible have the sun hide its face.

J. H. Friewell says that when a man loves books, he has in him that which will console him under many sorrows and strengthen him in various trials. Such a love will keep him at home and make his time pass pleasantly. When a man is at home and happy with his book, sitting by his fireside, he must be a churl if he does not communicate that happiness.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A bigamist recently arrested and sentenced in London, England, is indignant because he is reported to have a hundred wives. He admits, however, having passed through the stages of matrimony on no less than thirty-two occasions. Had he been allowed his liberty for a few more years, judging by progress already made, no doubt he would have passed the century mark as a long distance pedestrian passes a mile post on the high road.

It is evident that a thorough kalsomining is necessary in the various branches of Berlin's administration. Three police constables are now walking the streets—but not in uniform—as a result of a recent case in the police court in which they admitted entering a certain hotel at midnight and taking a drink.

The "woman suffragette" movement in England is growing to an enormous extent. During one week six of these female agitators were sent to jail for a period of 40 days, for various infractions of the law, principally taking part in noisy demonstrations and causing annoyance to government officials.

The result of Berlin's new election will be awaited with interest. Men of integrity are sorely needed at this time to handle the reins of authority in that good city of beer and commerce.

Manitoba is again to the fore, this time with a new act in regard to local option. The new act abolishes the three-fifths clause, and requires only a majority to carry a by-law.

The old postal rate has again been restored to daily newspapers going into the United States. The rate of weeklies, however, remains unchanged.

Canadian Apples on the British Markets.

Mr. J. B. Jackson, Canadian Trade Commissioner at Leeds and Hull, writes as follows under date Jan. 22:—

The closing weeks of the apple season are now near at hand, and it is with much regret that I have to report that Canadian apples have not maintained their well known reputation on the British market this season. Indeed, speaking from a knowledge of the principal markets in this district which includes such important distributing centres as Leeds, Hull, Newcastle-on-Tyne and Sheffield, very many complaints have been against the packing and grading; in fact, the shipments this season are looked upon by the best judges in the trade as not inferior in quality to those received for many years, but that the grading and packing have scarcely ever been worse.

A REVIVAL IN THE SWINE INDUSTRY.

While the swine raising industry has been in some quarters resting on its oars and in others showing positive retrogression the Live Stock Branch at Ottawa has been getting out a revision of bulletin No. 10, "The production of Bacon for the British Market." This booklet in its first edition received such a call that a very large edition became exhausted before the demand was satisfied. The call for copies during the late summer and autumn months fell away to some extent but the renewal of interest and hope in the bacon industry is showing itself very strongly in a request from many quarters of the Dominion for more information upon the question of swine raising. Fortunately the new edition is off the press and ready for distribution.

The bulletin in its revised form will shortly be recognized. In addition to an almost complete new set of illustrations, which are better arranged than in the former issue, much new matter has been added. Careful treatment has been given the vital question of housing and in this connection a number of plans of modern, approved piggeries are illustrated and described. The economical utilization of dairy by-products—that margin upon which profit in the industry so much depends—is treated as new matter. The very strong revival of the swine raising industry which must of necessity follow the sacrifice of breeding stock that took place during the past autumn has already commenced to show itself. It is safe to predict that with the return of spring with its pasturage and renewal of supply of dairy by-products, together with the shortage of market stock, a demand for swine greater than has been for many years, will be experienced. To furnish information that will be desired at such a time Bulletin No. 10, revised edition, has been prepared. Copies may be secured free by making application to the Live Stock Commissioner, Ottawa.

"A Kingly Gift"

EARL GREY'S APPEAL

On behalf of Needy Consumptives Strong words of Canada's Governor-General

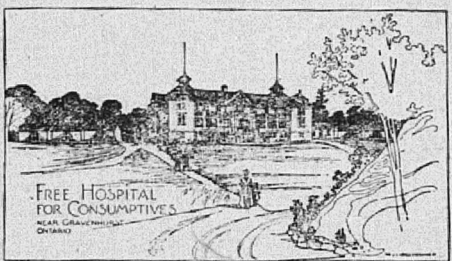

At the official opening of the King Edward Sanatorium for Consumptives, near Toronto, His Excellency delivered an address that must have an important bearing on the future of the sanatorium movement in Canada. We quote:—

"The proceedings this afternoon commenced with a beautiful and reverent prayer from your old friend, Dr. Potts. He prayed that the light of the Lord might shine upon us. That prayer is abundantly answered. He also prayed that the White Plague might be removed. Well, whether that prayer will be answered or not depends upon yourselves."

"Is it not a standing shame and reproach to the governments and individuals that there is not more care taken by the people of Canada to protect themselves against the curse of consumption?"

On his way out to the King Edward Sanatorium, so named by permission of His Majesty King Edward VII—the Governor-General's car was stopped in its progress outside the Canada Cycle & Motor Co. by a large crowd of its employees. A contribution of one hundred dollars was handed the Governor-General, a donation to the Toronto Free Hospital for Consumptives.

"Thus a kingly gift" said His Excellency in making acknowledgment, "I will tell the King."

Addressing the large audience that attended these opening exercises, referring to this event, Earl Grey said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, when the workingmen of Canada are setting an example of this character, I hope you will not be slow to follow, and I trust that the example of the Canada Cycle & Motor Co. may be followed, as I am sure it will, in every factory and manufacturing industry throughout the land."

We carry these words to the people of Canada in our appeal to-day on behalf of the

Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives

An institution that has never refused a single applicant admission, because of his or her inability to pay.

Seventy-five patients can be cared for to-day. Accommodation could be provided for three hundred if the required money were forthcoming.

To make this possible, our appeal is for $50,000, to be used in extension of buildings and maintenance of patients.

Where will your money do more good?

Every community and every individual is interested.

His Excellency Earl Grey has shown his interest and sympathy in the work at Muskoka for needy consumptives, by accepting the position of Honorary President of the National Sanitarium Association.

Contributions may be sent to Sir Wm. R. Meredith, Kt., Chief Justice, Osgoode Hall, Toronto; W. J. Gage, Esq., 81 Spadina Ave., or J. S. Robertson, Secy-Treas., National Sanitarium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, Canada.

After the ceremony the party sat down to a dainty wedding dinner which was awaiting them by Miss Maggie Knechtel and August Gulck brother of the bride. The bride was prettily dressed in cream silk trimmed with bridal veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carrying a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses in her hand. The evening was spent in speeches, music and games. Mr. and Mrs. Otto will leave on their short wedding trip with the best wishes of their friends. On their return they will settle down on the groom's farm near Lisbon.

The gambling fiend is much in evidence. The mania is mighty and prevails, even amongst the savages. Men get so excited that they will sit up all night and run $3 to $10 an hour for the privilege of pushing chips across a table when sawing three sticks of wood will give them muscular contraction of theiceps. They will stand twenty hours at a faro table guessing the high card or joggery the case and 'all dead with heart failure when their wives ask them to pack a bucket of water. They will waste a whole night yelling, "Blackjack!" and shout "Busted!" when the woman of their heart wants four bits for a new dress. Gambling fiends, in order to cluster around a table, like moths lighting into a candle and peep at whole cards or bet on red, black or the zeros until their brain gets murky and their pocket has a painful, lonesome vacuum. You must have cash to gamble. Without cash or with an unending supply of it the mania soon dies out. It is the gambler who keeps all games going even the stock exchange.

BURGLARS AT NEW HAMBURG

Burglars entered three places at New Hamburg a few nights ago, but did not succeed in finding much of value to them, as only small losses are reported. At the post office letters were found opened and strewn about, but the safe was untouched and only about $1 worth of postage stamps taken. They then entered the office of the New Hamburg Manufacturing Co., and a couple of dollars' worth of postage stamps were stolen. The Canadian Express office at the Grand Trunk station was visited and several boxes and parcels opened up and goods taken, among them a waterproof coat for one of the merchants.
