BADEN.

On St. Patrick's Day a gang of men came from New Hamburg to our peaceful little town presumably to play hockey but apparently to show the rougher element of the Irishman's character. As far as bookey goes they were certainly a poor excuse to represent the game but were experts in using their sticks over the arms of the Baden men and we think they must h been trying to snow how the Irishman uses his shillelah when roused. The referee did not pretend to know all about the game but he has two eyes and could not help noticing the foul attempts to play rough and was forced to send some of the New Hamburg sports to the fence and he is sorry that they took the correction with such bad ernor.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION-OR Friday afternoon of last week one of the pupils of Crossbill school by surprise before the teacher, Miss Rennie, dismissed the school. She called Master Tommy Wilford to the front, when one of the puntls, Master David Zehr, handed him an envelop taining a sum of money, and Miss Millie Foster read and presented him with following address, which shows the kind spirit existing between the scholars one for another, and by the appearance of the envelope every scholar must have put in a mite:—

"Dear Tommy,"—We your fullow pupils of 8 S. No. 17, Wellesley, wish to show our appreciation of your kindness in providing music for our drills and exercises from day to day. You have always done this in a hearty manner and we feel that it is somewhat imposing on good nature for you supply your own intruments. ask you to kindly accept this small sum to help you to replace your organ which has done its work so well for a long time. Again we wish that you may long be spared to favor us with your music, whether in school room or out, and that at last we may all juin in that music around the eternal throne.

Another sad story, showing the depth of a mother's love and the pure cussedness of the son upon which the tender love was wasted, comes from an Ohio town. A worthless son was supported by an oll mother, who had to work very hard, but succeeded in feeding and confortably clothing the wayward hoy. Some time since the son got into trouble of some kind and was sentenced to a long term in peni tentiary. The old mother was tentiary. The old mother was assured by lawyers that if she had a sufficient sum of money the buy could go free and she went to work to save money. Night and day the old soul toiled, deny-ing, hereaft exerctions but the ing herself everything but cheapest food and only a limited quantity of that. Her savings grew so slowly that she decided to out down her allowance of food but worked the harder. A few days ago she was found dead, and the physicians said death was due to Marvation. In the lining of her dress was found $250, saved to: employ conesel for her worthless son. Nothing is so tender, so truly heautiful as a mother's love, but it metimes seems a pity that this purest attribute of the soul should be wasted upon objects so worth tess and undeserving

EARL GREY'S APPEAL On behalf of Needy Consumptives Strong words of Canada's Governor-General

At the official opening of the King Edward Sanatorium for Consumptives, near Toronto, His Excellency delivered an address that must have an important bearing on the future of the sanatorium movement in Canada. We quote :-

"The proceedings this afternoon commenced with a beautiful and reverent prayer from your old friend, Dr. Potta. He prayed that the light of the Lord might shine upon us. That prayer is abundantly answered. He also prayed that the White Plague might be removed. Well, whether that prayer will be answered or not depends upon yourselves."

"Is it not a standing shame and reproach to the govern-ments and individuals that thore is not more care taken by the people of Canada to protect themselves against the curse of consumption?"

On his way out to the King Edward Sanatorium,—so mamed by permission of His Majesty King Edward VII—the Gov-King Edward VII—the Gov-ernor-General's car was stopped in its progress outside the Canada Cycle & Motor Co. by a large crowd of jits employees. A contribution of one hundred dol-lars was handed the Governor-General, a donation to the Toronto Free Hospital for Con-sumptives.

"Twas a kingly gift" said His Excellency in making acknowledgment. "I will tell the King."

Addressing the large audience that attended these opening exercises, referring to this event, Earl Grey said :

d: "Ladies and gentlemen, when the workingmen of Canada are setting an example of this character, I hope you will not be slow to follow, and I trust that the example of the Canada Cycle & Motor Ca. may be followed, as I am sure it will, in every factory and manufacturing industry throughout the land."

We carry these words to the people of Canada in our appeal to-day on behalf of the

Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives

An institution that has never refused a single applicant admission, because of his or her inability to pay.

Seventy-five patients can be cared for to-day. Accommodation could be provided for three hundred if the required money were forthcoming.

To make this possible, our appeal is for $50,000, to be used in extension of buildings and maintenance of patients.

Where will your money do more good? Every community and every individual is interested.

His Excellency Earl Grey has shown his interest and sympathy in the work at Muskoka for needy consumptives, by accepting the position of Honorary President of the National Sanitarium Association.

Contributions may be sent to Sir Wm. R. Meredith, Kt., Chief Justice, Osgoode Hall, Toronto; W. J. Gage, Eq., 35 Spadina Ave. or J. S. Robertson, Secy-Treas., National Sanitarium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, Capada.

A local editor, in drawing a comparison between the home paper and the larger dailies which find their way into all communities, and speaking of the relative beue-fits to be derived from each by readers, says:—"To get the least possible notice from a large duily newspaper you must steal $100,000. commit an atrocious murder, or have half a dozen living wives. But your local papers watch over you with loving sobelitude all the time. If you are sick it is sorry and hopes you will soon be well. It tells when you come and go; when your house burns down or von build a new one; when your Johnny has the mumps or your Mary has the measles, and how much your little Pete weighs on arrival. And when you require the whole street and both sidewalks to get home from lodge, it shuts both eves and "num"s" the word. Yes, take the big papers if you are intorested in what is going on in

Does it Pay?

It does not pay to advertise say some merchants who have done but little and that without keeping it up. The incident of the boy and the pump illustrates the matter very well. The boy was sent after a pail of water He poured in the priming and poured out as much as he poured in. Then stopped to rest and the priming ran down, After some time of alternate pump-ing and resting he concluded it did not , 'r to pump and quit in dis-gust. The merchant who does not believe in advertising does it like the boy did the pumping. He advertised a few weeks, then stopped and allowed people to forget him and his business before he advertised again and then concluded advertising did'nt pay.
