EDITORIAL NOTES.

Yes, Tommy Burns again pocketed several thousand dollars a few days ago at Paris, France, for his prowess in delivering a blow which laid his opponent hors de combat for ten seconds. The defeated individual also received a goodly sum for his grit in entering the ring to be battered round in a contest which he knew he had no hope or chance of winning. Thus do present day pugilists connive together for monetary gain, for the lure that will buy beer and pig's feet for years to come, while the easily-duped public are ever ready to give of their hard-earned gains to secure a peep at two individuals slugging each other with the fury of devils to an exhibition finish. Truly the savage is not yet dead in man. One cannot help associating the cheers of a frenzied crowd when a boxer—misnomer of all appellations—is knocked down, a bleeding, senseless, inate mass of humanity, with the plaudits of the multitudes gathered around the arenas of the old world, as beast after beast was cruelly slaughtered to make a Roman holiday.

A Canadian paper remarks: "John Ruttan, of St. Thomas Ont., could not get a job on a Detroit street railway because he refused to forswear allegiance to King Edward. It has just been decided by the United States federal courts that the relatives of a Canadian or any other alien who gets killed on a railway in Pennsylvania have no right to collect damages, even if the fatality was due to gross negligence on the part of the railway company. Two bits of evidence that your Uncle Sam is not as big a man as he looks."

What a grand bird of prey is the lawyer! Surrounded by a lot of musty books, and fortified with an education gained at college, he glides over trouble and plucks the feathers from the goings who know no better than to dwell upon the opinions of men trained in the art of making every case appear plausible. Some lawyers are honest, but most of them gain their meal tickets much the same as a train robber, but without the gun.

The gambling fever has gripped the women of New York and reports from this great society mecca are to say the least hair-raising. It is said that there are hundreds of poker games running nightly, and homes are being neglected, jewels and other valuables pawned, and in many cases utter ruin in the result. When woman takes to bad there is no awakening till the disease has robbed her of womanliness, purity and all the nobler attributes of femininity.

New industries are starting up in Berlin in spite of the gloomy predictions of Berlin newspapers to the effect that Mayor Huber's opposition to granting special privileges would kill business and drive manufacturers away.

WHY CERTAIN MEN MARRY.

An editor sent out circular letters to a large number of married men, and asked them why they married. Here are some of the answers:

I didn't intend to do it.
Because I did not have the experience I have now.

I married to get even with her mother, but never have.

That's what I have been trying for 11 years to find out.

I returned for company and now we have it all the time.

I thought it would be cheaper than a breach of promise suit.

Because Sarah told me that five other men had proposed to her.

That's the same fool question my friends ask me.

I wanted a companion of the opposite sex. She is 14 still opposite.

The old man was going to give me his foot, so I took the daughter's hand.

Because I asked her to have me and she said she would: I think she's got me.

Because I thought she was one among a thousand: now I think she is a thousand among one.

I was lonely and melancholy, and wanted some one to make me live.

She makes me very lively.

"A Kingly Gift"

EARL GREY'S APPEAL

On behalf of Needy Consumptives

Strong words of Canada's Governor-General

At the official opening of the King Edward Sanatorium for Consumptives, near Toronto, His Excellency delivered an address that must have an important bearing on the future of the sanatorium movement in Canada. We quote:—

"The proceedings this afternoon commenced with a beautiful and reverent prayer from your old friend, Dr. Potts. He prayed that the light of the Lord might shine upon us. That prayer is abundantly answered. He also prayed that the White Plague might be removed. Well, whether that prayer will be answered or not depends upon yourselves."

"Is it not a standing shame and reproach to the governments and individuals that there is not more care taken by the people of Canada to protect themselves against the curse of consumption?"

On his way out to the King Edward Sanatorium,—so named by permission of His Majesty King Edward VII—the Governor-General's car was stopped in its progress outside the Canada Cycle & Motor Co. by a large crowd of its employees. A contribution of one hundred dollars was handed the Governor-General, a donation to the Toronto Free Hospital for Consumptives.

"'Twas a kingly gift" said His Excellency in making acknowledgment. "I will tell the King."

Addressing the large audience that attended these opening exercises, referring to this event, Earl Grey said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, when the workmen of Canada are setting an example of this character, I hope you will not be slow to follow, and I trust that the example of the Canada Cycle & Motor Co. may be followed, as I am sure it will, in every factory and manufacturing industry throughout the land."

We carry these words to the people of Canada in our appeal to-day on behalf of the

Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives

An institution that has never refused a single applicant admission, because of his or her inability to pay.

Seventy-five patients can be cared for to-day. Accommodation could be provided for three hundred if the required money were forthcoming.

To make this possible, our appeal is for $50,000, to be used in extension of buildings and maintenance of patients.

Where will your money do more good?
Every community and every individual is interested.

His Excellency Earl Grey has shown his interest and sympathy in the work at Muskoka for needy consumptives, by accepting the position of Honorary President of the National Sanatorium Association.

Contributions may be sent to Sir Wm. R. Meredith, Kt., Chief Justice, Osgoode Hall, Toronto; W. J. Gage, Esq., 84 Spadina Ave., or J. S. Robertson, Sec'y-Treas., National Sanatorium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, Canada.

SPILT INK.

Easy money generally proves a curse to the one who gets it.

Envy dries the blood and makes the lives of those addicted to it a vast desert of bitter thoughts.

Drink whiskey and the world butts in; drink water and you drink alone.

Don't look before leaping when an automobile comes scorching your way.

Amateurs rush in where experts fear to gamble, especially in the newspaper business.

In Nevada water is so scarce in some of the mining camps that saloons cannot afford to put it in the whiskey.

The employer who drives his help with a whip for small wages, and the employee who watches the clock, "soldiers," and eternally talks "union," are both in the same canoe.

A blush is defined by a doctor as "a temporary erythema and caloric effulgence of the physiognomy, etiologized by the perceptiveness of the censorium when in a predicament of unequilibrium from a sense of shame, anger, or other cause, evacuating in a peristalsis of the vasomotor capillaries whereby being divested of their elasticity, they are suffused with radiant, aerated, compound nutritive circulating liquid, emanating from an intrinsicated precordia." How glad some of us must be that we don't blush.

An Englishman who had his doubts about "Irish wit" asked a friend, accustomed to go to Ireland yearly on fishing trips, if he had ever met any not specially prepared for the English market. "As I was going down to fish on the morning of my arrival," he answered, "an old fellow came along the road who, on a former visit, had done me several little services. And how is Michael? I asked, approaching him. 'Sure it's Mr.—' I exclaimed my friend recognizing me. 'And how have things been since I saw you last, Michael?' Without a moment's hesitation he answered: 'Sure, the corkscrow's got rusty since your honor was here.'"

The following by the editor of the Wawanesa Independent, indicates that he gets them too.

Of course there is no editor in newspaperdom who does not receive a letter once in a while that reads something like this:—

"Dear Editor,—My subscription expires Jan. 1st, please stop the paper, have so much reading matter on hand, wishing you success, I remain, Yours, etc.

That man evidently thinks, by such a letter, to smooth the supposed ruffled feelings of the editor; such however is not the case.
