FATAL BOILER

EXPLOSION

THOMAS HUBER AND WILLIAM ATTIE INSTANTLY KILLED.

A frightful accident occurred just at noon on Monday last by which Thos. Huber, who lives on the Ninth line, Wellesley, one mile west of the Elmwood Road, and Wm. Attie, of Newton, lost their lives.

Mr. Huber has for years conducted a blacksmith and carriage business on the lot where the accident occurred, and was this year adding a complete cider making plant. The work was about finished and on Monday forenoon the boiler was steamed up for the first time. Mr. Attie, the well-known contractor, was assisting in installing the plant, and both men were working in the blacksmith shop when the boiler came in and reported that the boiler was "blowing off" although the steam-gauge only showed 25 pounds pressure. Mr. Attie replied that he would soon fix it, and started for the boiler room, accompanied by Mr. Huber. The hired man, thinking Attie intended to regulate the safety valve, remained in the blacksmith shop, and to this he probably owes his life, for a moment later there was a terrific explosion. The older mill building was completely wrecked. Attie was found near by, with one side of his face completely torn off, probably by a piece of flying iron, and his body otherwise mutilated. Huber had been thrown a long distance into the field and against an elm tree only twenty rods away. Every article of clothing had been torn from his body. Both men must have died instantly.

Neighbors quickly gathered and did all that was possible for Mrs. Huber, who had just a few minutes before the explosion called the men to dinner and was now nearly frantic with grief.

Both men are well known and highly respected all over this district. Mr. Attie has for years been engaged in moving buildings and taking contracts for other work of this nature and he has a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Huber, "Tom" as his family known to nearly everybody has lived at "Huber's Corner" all his life, his father having for many years in the early times kept tavern at that place. He was about 40 years of age and leaves a mourning wife and two children. For several years he has acted as correspondent for the Maple Leaf from that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Weber, of Berlin, are visiting their friends here at present.

A representative of the Dominion Government was in Lindsay a few days ago looking up a site for the proposed new post office, customs house, etc. It is understood that prices were named for three different sites, that at the corner of Main and Dodd streets being looked upon as the most likely. It is altogether probable that nothing definite will be heard of the site or building until after the elections.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Niagara Powers scheme is now passing through the mandamus stage, and will soon be back to the people for their final vote. The Power Commission, headed by Hon. Adam Beck, has certainly had a struggle in carrying out the work given them to do by the Ontario government. Not only were they dealing with a pioneer scheme, but they were compelled to work it out eliminating all business profit; at the same time they were to see to it that all of the people's money taken from the Provincial treasury would finally be returned to it safely. All along the line they have met with the most strenuous fight which the gas and other power monopolists could put up. It must be admitted that the commissioner's work showed crudeness in spots, but they had no precedent to follow nor available advice to take, so that it would be unfair to criticize them. The great stumbling blocks from the beginning have been that the government is unable to retail the power to individual consumers, and that they are not able to tell exactly what the power will cost per h. p. until the entire cost of putting the power line in operation is known. But they were able to give a maximum estimate, and upon this the municipalities interested voted power to their councils to join the scheme. Then the various councils took up the struggle, insisting that the Commission give the impossible information as to the exact cost to the consumer before the contract was signed. Hardly was this overcome by the councils when several of the mayors refused to sign the contracts for various reasons. The mandamus followed, and this was fought out in the court, and in the main the mayors won. The next step appears to be to re-submit the bylaws to the people and so get their final fiat. Some of the towns and cities are already doing this and the Commission is hopeful that by the end of this year all obstacles will have been overcome and the contracts for building the line can be let. It looks as if their hopes will be realized, unless the monopolists have a new obstruction to spring.

Perhaps there are good reasons for both parties in North Waterloo refraining from bringing out a candidate until the last possible moment, as they appear to be doing, but they should remember that Allen Huber is thus getting a chance to make himself "solid." The Twin City ought to know by this time what a joke of that kind means.

The Saturday edition of the Stratford Daily Herald reaches out into the future with a daring pen each week and, under the caption "Twenty Years Hence," gives its readers a forecast of the possibilities of the near future. The Herald's writer has a large scope for his witty pen without becoming mere extravagant and unbelievable than if some of the ordinary appliances of today had been prophesied of twenty years ago. The airship, the advanced transmission of electric energy, the wireless telegraphy, are all evidences of this; they were wild dreams twenty years ago—today they are common place facts. The public mind is becoming educated up to the reception of any future scientific possibility and the Herald is catering to this taste with ornamental energy, to say the least.

He will be assisted by the Hon. Geo. P. Graham, Minister of Railways, and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Postmaster General, as well as the Liberal candidates for North and South Waterloo.

The meeting will be held in Victoria Park at 1:30 p.m. If the weather be inclement, the addresses will be given in the Berlin rink.

Arrangements are being made for a great demonstration. Several bands will be in attendance, and the event will be the most notable in the political history of the riding.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Ladies of Wellesley: Miss Fatts, who is now in New York, will re-open the Dress Making Department at Smyth Bros., Berlin, on the 14th September. You are kindly asked to place your orders now.

BACK TO HIS OLD LOVE.

Berlin Daily News-Record: The Wellesley Maple Leaf has changed hands. Mr. Herbert Kaufmann, of the News-Record composing staff, has purchased the plant and business and gone possession on the 24th inst. Herb thus goes back to his first love for it was in the Maple Leaf office that he learned the trade. He leaves the News-Record with the best wishes of all his associates for an abundant measure of success in his new field.

THE FALL SHOW.

The weather for the fall show which is in full swing today (Wednesday) is all that the directors can desire. The attendance is very large. The Maple Leaf goes to press too early to give an extended report of the show.

OUT DOORS

The show of live stock was very good but it would be going beyond the facts to say that it eclipsed other years here.

Horses were the main attraction and some magnificent specimens were shown both in the heavy and light classes.

Cattle and sheep were both but sparsely represented.

In hogs there was a fairly large entry and some superb animals were on exhibition.

Poultry was an unusually large and interesting exhibit, being nearly double that of last year. This department was constantly thronged with spectators.

The attendance was not as large when viewed on the grounds as the ticket office receipts seemed to indicate.

The new grand-stand did a hand-office business and seemed to be just what the spectators wanted—a place where they could rest themselves and at the same time get a good view of the equine exhibits.

INSIDE THE HALL

The exhibitors have made 1908 a record year. There are at least 400 more entries than last year, while the quantities are as high as any ever shown here in all of the classes.

On Tuesday evening the hall presented an animated scene, crowds of spectators watching the sights while enjoying the fine program of music rendered by the Wellesley Brass Band. Reiner Bros. & Co. had a special display of stoves that it would be difficult to excel in any town. Their display of "made-in-Wellesley" woollens was really magnificent and made a splendid array of goods known from end to end of the Dominion. This firm also had a very pretty display of merchandise from their store.

Wm. Keltorborn, general merchant, had a large space taken up with a truly elegant exhibit of the fine goods he has loaded his store with for the fall and early winter trade. There were the choicest ladies' furs in the latest patterns; silks and satins in the finest array; suits, waists and skirts; girls' magnificent coats in lovely "bear-cloth," and millinery—inconceivable to the masculine eye. Miss Tena Froelich has charge of The Rose millinery at Keltorborn's and she has reason to be proud of the display and the red price ticket. The pencil drawings and paintings were also especially good this year, while bread and pastry took up a large and prominent place in the building.

MOTION PICTURES ALL THE WEEK.

The Opera House was jammed at the moving picture show, and it has been decided at the last moment to continue the show every evening this week at reduced prices so that all may enjoy them. Mr. G. O. Philip, the manager, has ordered a special supply of films so that the program will be entirely changed every night.

DRUG STORE MOVED.

Mr. A. J. Saunders has moved his drug store into the fine new building built by Mr. A. K. Froelich next the Albion hotel. Mr. Saunders has installed new furniture and fixtures and a splendid gasoline lighting system and Wellesley can now boast of us pretty and up-to-date a drug store as can be found in this part of the province.

HAMPSTEAD.

Rev. Mr. Key, of Stratford, preached in our church on Sunday last. From his text, which was "The Feeding of Five Thousand," he brought out the lesson of suf-ing the most of our talents by consecrating them to Jesus Christ, who alone can perpetuate them for eternal good. A fair sized congregation listened to the sermon.

Mrs. H. McMillan, who has been on the sick list, is, we are glad to hear, improving again.

Miss Bloane, of Peterboro, visited her brother last week at the home home of Mr. G. J. Stuck.

Mr. Valentine Neeb, one of our esteemed young neighbors, was married last week. The wedding took place at the home of the bride in Zurich. Mr. and Mrs. Neeb have taken up their residence in Hamptstead, and we all join in wishing them every happiness.

Miss A. Stuck took in the Toronto National Fair last week during a stay of some days with friends in the city.

Miss Zierhart, teacher in Hamptstead public school, spent the week end, including Labor Day, at her home in Mitchell. She had an enjoyable holiday.

September Slashings

An Immense Showing of Astonishing Values.

ANYWHERE AND EVERYWHERE YOU LOOK IN THIS STORE there are inducements held out to you to spend your cash. Bring it out of your long purses and dark drawers and plank it down on our counters and get some good out of it—and a rate of interest that will make most of your dollars do duty for two.

We will sell all September our entire stock of Ladies' Underwear at 20 per cent. off.

Dress and Tweed Costumes, with short and long coats—at exactly 33 1/3 and 50 per cent. discount.

Nothing but cold cash or the long green bills could induce the sweeping September reductions we are making in Men's Ready-Made Clothing.

We announce one of the largest stocks of fine furs and fur coats we have ever shown in Stratford, and we will hold an advance

SALE OF FURS for September at 30 per cent. off for cash.

The custom has been for us to give 20 per cent. off after Christmas, and you would go without furs till then—many of you.

The sale of furs properly does not begin much for two months yet—about the first of November. We want to make it worth your while to BUY FURS IN SEPTEMBER and will give 20 per cent. or 1-5th off for cash.

LEGS AND FEET must be covered, too, and we will hold a September discount sale on the balance of all light and heavy cotton, hosiery and silk hosiery for men, women and children—at 20 per cent. discount.

A BIG DRESS GOODS EFFORT. We have selected 102 webs of all colors in dress goods, that occupy the shelves on the south side of our Dress Department—and will be sold at 20 per cent. discount.

This is a rare chance right on the threshold of the season to save enough on your dress to trim and line it and leave money in your purse into the bargain.

SILKS AND SATINS. During September we are slaughtering all silks, peau de soie and satins of whatever kind, price or quality, at 20 per cent. or 1-5th off.

THE MEN! THE MEN!

We are gripping their trade with hooks of steel. We're offering a case of men's striped black hyde shirts regular 75c each, for 50c; a case of double bucks and fronts, good value for $1, to clear at 55c; a case of socks, regular price 10c, for 5 cents.
