Faber Bros. are paying 84 cents for fall wheat at the Wellesley mill this week. We pay cash for all kinds of grain. Give our family flour a trial; it will give you good satisfaction.

Did you miss the splendid moving picture show last Saturday evening? You have one more chance to see them in the Opera House next Saturday evening, Sept. 26. Admission only 15c and 20c for two hours of entirely new pictures.

FLEISCHBAUER—MICKUS

The marriage of Miss Edith, eldest daughter of Mr. Albert Mickus, and Simon Fleischbauer, occurred very quietly on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 22nd, at the home of the bride's parents in this village. After the wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. Fleischbauer started on their wedding trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo. This popular young couple have the best wishes of the entire community for their unalloyed happiness.

POLITICAL CONVENTIONS

This week is marked by both parties in North Waterloo holding their conventions.

The Reform adjourned convention was on Monday, when William Lyon MacKenzie King was unanimously chosen on the first ballot. The conservatives will hold their convention in Berlin this week. It is not yet known who they will decide upon as a candidate. Mr. Boagman is anxious to retire and several prominent names have been spoken of as his successor. But there is no telling what the outcome will be now that the Reformers have chosen a man already so high up in the government. Mr. Allen Huber has not yet announced the date of his convention.

Mrs. Trussler is spending a few weeks with her daughter in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gross were visiting at Mr. John Stahl's on Sunday.

Miss Laura Strome, of Elmira, is at present the guest of her uncle, Rev. Mr. Battenberg.

Moving pictures again next Saturday evening. Entirely new scenes throughout. Opera House, Wellesley, 15c and 20c.

Several from here took in the Tavistock show on Tuesday. Mr. P. Berdax made a clean sweep with his large poultry exhibit.

Mrs. Frame who was injured in a runaway accident a few weeks ago, was able to be removed to her home in Crosshill, on Friday last.

Miss McDonald, who has been visiting relatives in Missouri for the past month or two returned to her home in this village last Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Altman returned on Monday from an extended visit at her father's home in the North West. Her many friends regret that her health was not improved as much as was hoped for by the trip.

There was a slight rainfall last Friday night—just enough to lay the dust—and the first for a month. Since then the weather has been as dry as ever. Jupiter Pluvius is evidently away on his summer holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald, Miss Hunter, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Green are at the "Maplewood" farm this (Wednesday) afternoon attending the marriage of Miss Christina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ruppert, near Nithburg, to Mr. Win. Hyde, son of Mr. John Hyde, North Easthope.

The following from the Galt Reporter, refers to a former pupil of the Wellesley public school and a graduate of the Maple Leaf office: "A visitor to-day, (Sept. 24th), was Mr. Carleton C. Green, son of Elton Green of the Wellesley Maple Leaf. Mr. Green is the guest of his uncle Mr. Thos. I. Elsie, East Main St. He was an ex-pupil of the G. C. I. and has embraced journalism, taking copy from his father, in the real sense of the term. Mr. Green is the mining editor of the Silver City News of Huelburg, and to judge by the excellence of his department is making good. He pays glowing tribute both to present doings and future prospects of the Land of Mines. "There's a great rush to Gow Gonda lake just now" he states. "Rich finds of silver are reported. The place is 25 miles from Elk Lake" Montreal river. At Silver Lake and Miller Lake finds also are announced and the influx to these places is up in the hundreds." Mr. Green is a young man not much beyond twenty, but he displays a wonderful knowledge of the Cobalt country and is familiar with all kinds of prospecting and mining. His duties involve lengthy canoe trips through New Ontario, and his experiences are varied."

All summer goods go cheap now at John Spahr's.

The Platteville football team was announced to play here last Saturday evening, but they were unable to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schaub returned to their home in Harrison last Thursday, after spending a week or so visiting at his parents' home here.

Mr. Peter McMillan of Hamstead had his arm severely injured one day last week while felling a tree in his woods. The accident will keep him out of active work for some time.

Mr. John B. Lichy is preparing the foundation for a large cement brick residence west of the mill pond which he intends to have completed early in the spring, when he will retire from the farm and move to the village.

DIED OF LOCKJAW.

A heavy draught horse belonging to one of Mr. J. E. Katz's saw-mill teams died last week from lockjaw, the result of a slight accident to one of its front feet.

LIGHTNING KILLED HORSE

A valuable horse belonging to David Trussler, just west of this village was killed by lightning during the thunder shower of Saturday evening last.

THE MOVING PICTURES

As was briefly announced last issue the motion picture show was continued in the Opera House last Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. On the latter evening the attendance was so large and so well pleased that a plan was set on foot to secure still another show before the costly electric wiring is removed. Mr. Philip consented and as a consequence another exhibition will be given in the Opera House next Saturday evening. Hand-bills are out announcing that over 7,000 feet of entirely new films will be used, making the performance over two hours in length, showing as good pictures as can be obtained, including the colored, magic, comic, historical, pathetic, etc., besides illustrated songs, views, etc. The admission has been placed at the low price of 20c and 15c. If the attendance warrants the expense we cannot see why this splendid entertainment should not be continued as a Saturday evening feature in Wellesley for some time to come.

Bargain days are every day now at John Spahr's.

PARTING.

The writer closes his connection with the Wellesley Maple Leaf today after conducting its business since it was founded eight years ago, lacking one month. During that time we have faithfully endeavored to keep in view, and advance as much as possible, the best interests of the Wellesley section; and now that the hour of parting has come it is a pleasure to know that the most prominent men of the district believe the Maple Leaf has fulfilled its duties in this respect.

Our aim has always been to keep the Leaf a crisp, newsy, clean, reliable journal. In this work we have been assisted by as able a staff of correspondents as ever gathered round an editor, and to whom we owe an undying debt of gratitude. Editorially we have endeavored to keep our readers in touch with the local and general affairs of the day, and have often received assurances that this labor has not been in vain.

Our relations with the newspapers round about us have ever been of the most friendly nature. Personally we have found the editors a set of jolly good, manly fellows from whom we part with profound regret.

We have to thank our patrons for their business support and personal friendliness during our stay here. And especially we wish to mention the kindness and courtesies shown Mrs. Green during the occasions that editorial duties were forced upon her during our absence.

Mr. Herbert Kaufman, who succeeds to the Maple Leaf business, was born and raised in Wellesley and needs no introduction from the retiring editor. We trust he will receive public support and be in every way eminently successful.

With warmest wishes for happiness and prosperity to the entire Wellesley section,

Sincerely Yours,
J. W. GREEN.

As will be seen by the above we have acquired the Maple Leaf plant and business and assume control today.

Having entered the newspaper world under the wing of Mr. Green, we will endeavor to keep the Maple Leaf in the high standard he has brought it up to during his eight years of efficient services to the Wellesley district, and we trust the public will bear with us in entering this, to us, new field of journalism.

Weak your continued support and will try to merit it.

Our job department will be kept right up to the modern standard and we will always be prepared to compete with the best printing office.

The Maple Leaf will continue to keep in touch with the local happenings and we cordially invite everyone to assist by sending in or telling us items of news.

I hope, in the course of events, to become personally acquainted with the people of this entire district, and respectfully invite your support.

H. W. KAUFMAN.

If you have a cast off vambat fur coat for sale, Ed. Pfeiffer, the Lisbon merchant tailor, wants to talk to you.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The date of the Dominion elections has finally been set. October 26th is "X" election day.

The starting of the first regular train, last Monday morning, over the new Grand Trunk Pacific railway from Winnipeg to Edmonton is closely associated with the aspiration of Wellesley for railway connection three years ago. There was a tacit understanding between the C. P. R. and the G. T. R. that so long as the latter did not invade the Northwest the former would project no new lines in Ontario. At that time the C. P. R. was a heavy stockholder of the Preston-Berlin which had the money practically borrowed in England to build to Wellesley. While Berlin was adding with its bonus by-law in the courts the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme was being concluded with the government. That broke the pact between the C. P. R. and G. T. R., and by the time Berlin finally got its by-law in shape the C. P. R. prevented the borrowing of the English money by deciding to use its own capital—$24,000,000—to build railroads "all over Canada," and the Wellesley electric branch was not one of it's schemes. So it happens that Winnipeg and Edmonton got an extra railway on Monday while Wellesley got—a lemon.
