Wellesley Township Heritage and Historical Society

WTHHS Historical Room and Collection

The Historical Room opened in 1979 in the old school in Wellesley- 1137 Henry St., Wellesley ON. Visitors are welcome from 10am to 2pm on the last Saturday of every month except for December, or by appointment.

The WTHHS has a collection of approximately 6000 artifacts, photographs, and documents

Digital Collection: There are more than 12 000 pages of digital records on our website.

WTHHS Photograph: Collection contains almost 2200 photos.

Maple Leaf Journal Research Files:

Of particular note are the research files used in 1983 to write The Maple Leaf Journal: A Settlement History of Wellesley Township. The files contain material gathered, but not necessarily used, in the book, including some family, town, village, school, and church histories.

Tweedsmuir Histories:

These were created by members of the Women's Institute. We are fortunate to have the Wellesley, Linwood, and Dorking Tweedsmuir. The Wellesley binders are available for study in the Historical Room.

Historical Records in the Township Office, Corporation of the Township of Wellesley:

The Township Office holds records of historical interest and value, some of which date to early days of the Township's history.

Wellesley Township Heritage and Historical Society

About Us

An active group of volunteers who were preparing to celebrate the Township's 150th anniversary founded the Wellesley Township Historical Society in 1979.

In 2007, the Historical Society merged with the Heritage Committee and the name was changed to the Wellesley Township Heritage and Historical Society.

Preserving the Past for the Future

The primary objectives of the Society are:

1. To collect, preserve and exhibit artifacts, photographs, and documents pertaining to the history of Wellesley Township.
2. To acquire artifacts, documents, narratives and records of Wellesley Township's pioneers and families.
3. To research significant events, people, and circumstances pertaining to the history of Wellesley Township.
4. To maintain a facility for the storage and exhibition of artifacts, photographs, and documents pertaining to the history of Wellesley Township.
5. To host history-related exhibits and presentations to which the public is invited.
