7. Communications

- distributed by email prior to the meeting

8. Curator's Report

- links to Ontario Genealogical Society material on township cemeteries have been added to the Society's website

- year-end statistics show almost 3000 visitors to the website, with 9705 pages viewed. Cost for the website is $70 per year.
- 50 photos have been posted on our Instagram site, which has 34 followers
- some material to deaccession has been identified
- February 16th is Family Day and the Historical Room will be open from 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. This is at the beginning of Heritage Week and Nancy hopes to put up material on Instagram every day that week. She is also working on some press releases.
- Nancy has been working on an article on the Wellesley Maple Leaf for the heritage edition of the New Hamburg newspaper. The Wellesley Maple Leaf was published from 1900 till 1927. She has been digitizing the issues from 1900-1908 which are thought to be the only surviving issues. She will try to have the first year of publication on our website by Family Day/Heritage Day.
- The Maple Leaf Journal is the history of the township was written in 1983. It was digitized by the Historical Society in 2012 after borrowing money from the Koehler estate fund to buy supplies and pay for Nancy's work on the project. We have now paid back costs for digitization to the estate fund and any further proceeds from sales will come to the Historical Society.
- three books were sold to Castle Kilbride. The Castle is planning a display on Victorian hygiene and the Society was asked if we had any objects for them to use. Nancy sent them a list of possible items. .
- Nancy was contacted by a member of the Ottman family and he will scan a number of photographs and donate them to the Society. The Ottmans were a prominent Wellesley family in the late nineteenth century.
- Nancy took a course at Conestoga College last fall and has written a paper on Michael Peter Empey, who lived in Hawkesville in the mid-nineteenth century. Moved Peter/Diane that Nancy be authorized to spend up to $100 to secure copyright for a copy of a portrait of Empey by artist Paul Kane.
- Kitchener Public Library has eight years of the Wellesley Maple Leaf newspaper on microfilm. Nancy will be digitizing this material to put on the website. She has also digitally copied the Tweedsmuir history for Wellesley and the 1856 survey of Hawkesville, both of which are at KPL.
- Ron and Nancy will attend the township council meeting on January 27th. Moved Ross/Carol that Ron will present a proposal to approve the renewal of Nancy's contract for 2015, with a cost-of-living increase. Carried.

8. New Business

- Ron reported that Wellesley mayor Joe Nowak has spoken to him about using interest money from the Koehler fund to pay for repairs to the old Wellesley fire truck. There was some discussion, and Ross suggested that other local groups, such as the ABC Festival and the Lions Club might be asked to contribute to costs of this project. Ron will speak again to Joe for further information before the Society makes a decision.
- Peter brought in two calendars purchased at auction. One was a 1936 calendar from Jacob Lotz Flour, Feed and Seeds and the other was a 1951 calendar from M. R. Futher Funeral and Furniture Service. Thanks were extended to Peter for his donation.

9. Next Meeting - Monday, March 23rd, 2015, 7:30 p.m

10. The meeting adjourned at 9:10 p.m. (moved by Peter/Carol).
